

BRIGHAM CITY.

Beauties and Industries of the "Queen City."

BRIGHAM CITY, UTAH, June 29th, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

Brigham City is one of the oldest cities in Utah. It dates back to most of the earliest settlements in the northern part of the Territory.

THE "QUEEN CITY."

which appellation this town truly merits, is built on a piece of high table land a little over a mile west of the mountains, and about two miles east of the Great Salt Lake.

Since 1855, under the guiding genius and wise instructions of Apostle Lorenzo Snow, the city has steadily increased in growth, in population and material progress.

At the present time the people, nearly if not quite all of them, own their own houses, plant their own gardens and cultivate their own farms, from which they gather abundance of the good things of life, with which to feed themselves and the strangers who pass within their gates.

"FOREST STREET"

is a splendid boulevard over half a mile in length and extends east from the railroad depot to the Court House. On either side of the spacious road is a double row of shade trees which render the sidewalks delightful promenades, and the broad roadway is an excellent drive for equestrians.

The suburbs present many enchanting views of rural beauty, where in some of the shady groves the swains may, it would seem, enjoy complete felicity. A little east of Main Street is located the County Court House, from the top of which one may feast his eyes and delight his senses with magnificent views of mountains, lake and river; of farms, fields and meadows; the cattle on the numerous hills; the city beneath us, reposing in undisturbed tranquility, and many other attractions, all going to make a picture of almost ravishing beauty at this delightful season of the year.

Brigham City at the present time contains a population of about 2,500. Among the industries of this city is the cultivation on a large scale of the mulberry tree, and the production of silk.

In the northeastern part of the city is located a woolen factory with excellent machinery, and a capacity for executing first class work and producing both light and heavy fabrics. But unfortunately at present the works are inoperative. The institution which might under more favorable circumstances give employment to many of the citizens, stands

IDLE AND USELESS.

The cause in part I understand is, that it not dear bought, yet far-fetched articles for raiment are good for ladies, and not at all unacceptable to gentlemen; an expensive and impoverishing policy—the exact antipodes of what our late friend, President Young advised the people to adopt. Home industries, exportation and competition with outside manufacturers, build up, solidify and make wealthy communities; but exporting all the raw materials and then importing them back again in manufactured goods, and paying two or three prices for them, is paying dear for one's whistle.

There is a good tannery here which formerly produced a good supply of leather of an excellent quality. It is now inoperative, the vats are empty, and the hides are shipped to distant points to be manufactured into leather, boots and shoes, and our own have to import the materials for their domestic trade. There are in this city quite a number of boot and shoe manufacturers, all of whom appear to be fully employed at their craft. I believe there are more shoes required here by the people of Brigham for the protection of their soles than in any other city of similar size in Utah. This is owing largely to the sharp gravel that cuts the leather and soon uses up a "pair of understandings."

ST. CRISPINS AT HOME

A manufacturer here supplies nearly all the tin ware that is needed for the people. There are a few other industries in the place. The Co-op and several other stores, together with the wagon and machinery establishment furnish the citizens with mercandises and rolling stock.

Both city and county have furnished considerable data for volume two of Tullidge's Histories of Utah, which will be issued in the fall of the present year.

I must not forget to record the fact that Brigham City now numbers among its official dignitaries, a

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER.

There was a pretty strong fight for the position between a pair of "Liberals"—Mr. Chase, the present postmaster, and Dr. J. B. Carrington. The latter was the victor, and being as delighted with his erminical honors as a boy is with a new whistle, he is willing to bury the hatchet, be friends with his late rival, and wield his "sword of justice" to fight another "foe."

The educational interests secure due attention and support. During the winter season nine well-conducted schools are in session. At the present time, however, being the heated term, they are enjoying a vacation. John D. Peters, Esq., county superintendent of district schools, takes great interest in promoting the education of the youth, and he is ably assisted in his laudable efforts by parents, guardians and the leading citizens.

The ecclesiastical affairs of Box Elder Stake are presided over by President Oliver G. Snow, whose counselors are E. A. Box and John D. Burt. In this city meetings which are well attended, are held regularly on Sabbath days in the splendid Tabernacle and in the ward meeting houses. Except when the deputies make a raid on some of the citizens, because they will not violate their religious convictions, the calm repose of Brigham City is seldom disturbed. The citizens are peaceable, orderly and law-abiding, and are willing for all others to enjoy the tranquility and all other constitutional privileges they claim for themselves. NORMAN.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—On the 26th ult. a heavy rainstorm was pouring over the Santa Rita mountains and vicinity. This is the first heavy rain in that section of Arizona for several months, and foretakens an early rainy season. The country is much in need of it.

—On June 26th the east-bound train on the Southern Pacific failed to connect at Benson with the New Mexico & Arizona road because of a washout at some point in California. As a consequence there was no freight, express or mail from the west.

—Articles of incorporation of the St. Louis Milling & Mining Company of Montana were filed in Butte on the 27th. The incorporators therein named are Michael J. Hartnett and Chas. T. Remme, of St. Louis, and Wm. Mayer, of Butte. The capital stock is placed at $5,000,000, paid up and non-assessable. It is divided into 500,000 shares at the par value of $10 each. The objects of the company are to operate mining properties at or near the town of Marysville, Montana.

—In Butte, M. T., last week, the Miners' Union proceeded in a body, 1,100 strong to the Blue Bird mine, where some fifty Italian miners were at work for less than the union scale, and getting the Italians, marched to the union's hall and initiated them. No violence was used, but some forcible persuasion. Hereafter they will get the full price—$3.50 per day—when they work underground. Their addition increased the membership of the union from 1,950 to 2,000, and the Blue Bird will only employ union men hereafter. Notice was given all stragglers at small mines to join, otherwise they will be blacklisted.

—A dispatch dated Benson, A. T., June 26th, says: The French syndicate which recently purchased large tracts of land in Northern Sonora has re-sold a large portion thereof to a German company for colonization. The intention is not, as was first stated, to settle the land with French families. It was purchased by the French company merely for speculation, and will be sold to the highest bidder. Agents of the German colony have gone to Sonora with surveys to subdivide the land, and it is expected that the Germans will take possession before the end of the year. The soil is said to be exceedingly fertile, and particularly adapted to fruit and grape culture.

—At Helena, Montana, on the 27th the coroner was investigating a case which may develop into a brutal murder. A jeweler named Robt. J. Chapman, last Sunday night fell down a stairway in "Chicago Joe's" place and became paralyzed. He was taken to a room in the lodging house kept by Rogers & Luke, on upper Main Street. About 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning a stranger came in and asked the clerk for a room, and while the boy was dressing the man went into Chapman's room where he was lying helpless and beat him with a pair of knuckles it is supposed. His face was badly lacerated, his eyes closed, the scalp severely cut, with several large and severe contusions on his breast and abdomen. The same evening he was removed by Walter Holden to the poorhouse where he became delirious, with rational moments, and died on Sunday afternoon. The matter was kept quiet to facilitate arrests. Chapman was 50 years old on the 6th of last March, was slender in build, about five feet nine inches high, with dark reddish lined hair and moustache. He had been married twice, having eight children by his first wife.

—The total loss from the destruction of snowshed No. 8, which burned west of Sherman, on Friday night, is over $5,000. The shed was 1,800 feet long and the railroad ties beneath it were destroyed, while the rails were warped out of shape.

—A dispatch dated Miles City, June 25th, says: At 9:30 p. m., T. J. Bryan & Co's lumber warehouse and yard and office buildings were discovered to be on fire and the wind blowing strongly from the west, it was impossible to save the buildings, and most of the stock was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $7,500. Insurance $5,000. This is second time in four months that this outfit has been burned out and it was supposed that the former fire was incendiary although from what can be learned from this one, the fire originated from the tramp nuisance.

—At Helena, Montana, on the 28th inst. they had a wrestling match between J. H. McLaughlin and Andrew Buchanan. A platform was erected about twenty feet square in the Knights of Labor hall, and the match was for three falls out of five, collar and elbow style. The wrestlers appeared in excellent condition, though Buchanan was the smaller man, being perhaps forty pounds lighter than his antagonist. Conductor Loseby was chosen timekeeper, and Dunc. McDonald referee. Time was called at 9:50. The first round was uninteresting and resulted in a fall for McLaughlin in six minutes. The second lasted eight minutes, and Buchanan tried hard, but after being thrown three times lost a round on a fourth to McLaughlin. The third round lasted just five minutes, and Buchanan was thrown three times in quick succession by the colonel.

—Santa Fe, N. M., on Tuesday afternoon had a rain, accompanied by many curious and interesting phenomena. At 5:30 about the top of Atlatya peak a flash of lightning came in the form of an elongated ball of fire attended with a loud explosion. At first it was of a pale yellowish color after the tinge of ordinary chain lightning, and then seemed to burst into a ball of deep red fire with blue and purple darts spouting forth from the crest of the globe. A number of people were fortunate to get a full view of this extraordinary pyrotechnic display of nature's own make, and all agree that it was truly wonderful in color, shape and length of duration. At the telegraph office a great commotion prevailed during the storm, which reached the zenith of its fiery glory when the great flash broke in the eastern sky. At the Western Union office the electric flames played hide and seek over the entire room, and at the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe city office the sparks flew eight or ten feet across the room and darted about the keys like so many little mad demons.

In Butte, on the morning of the 26th about 5 o'clock, K. S. Batteiger, who owned a grocery on the south side of Galena Street, near Wyoming, in the rear of which he slept, was awakened by smoke entering his bedroom, and found that it proceeded from a Chinese laundry fronting on Wyoming, which had caught fire and communicated with his store. How long the fire had been burning there could not be ascertained, but the buildings being frame, and the stock in Batteiger's cellar being very inflammable, it was only a few seconds ere the entire building was enveloped in flames. The building was the property of Joe Nadeau, and the grocery stock was valued at about $5,000, insured for $2,000 in George F. Marsh's agency, $500 each in the North British and Mercantile, the Edinburgh, the Home of New York, the National of Hartford and the Western of Toronto. Of this about $1,200 worth was saved in the shape of barrels of whiskey, vinegar and other heavy goods which the fire did not reach. The Chinese laundries were leveled to the ground and the grocery store was gutted and nothing but some charred boards left standing.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court in and for the Third Judicial District of Utah Territory, County of Salt Lake.

Catherine Schoenhals, Plaintiff, vs. Edmond Schoenhals, Defendant.

The people of the Territory of Utah, send greeting: To Edmond Schoenhals, Defendant.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons.—If served within this county; or, if served out of this county, but in this district, within twenty days; otherwise within forty days—or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to have a decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant, and awarding to plaintiff the care and custody of the minor children, the issue of said marriage, and setting aside to plaintiff such portion of the common property as may seem just, and that defendant be required to pay into court a reasonable sum to defray the expenses of this action and for counsel fees, and that he pay to plaintiff such further sum for alimony as to this Court may seem just for her support during the pendency of this action and for general relief. The above relief is prayed upon the ground that defendant committed adultery with one Eliza Keeler, on or about October 15th, 1885, and on divers other days and times, and has also failed to provide plaintiff a support, having the ability so to do. And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded therein.

Witness, the Hon. Charles S. Zane, Judge, and the Seal of the District Court of the Third Judicial District, in and for the Territory of Utah, this 15th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and eighty-seven.
