THE CHRISTMAS NEWS

FOR 1901.

A UTAH-COLORADO EDITION.

The Christmas edition of the "News" this year will be printed on Saturday, December 21st, 1901. It will contain an exhaustive review of the year's developmen's in business, mining, commerce, real estate, building, and all other branches of business, and will form the most elaborate compilation of the resources and attractions of Utah which has ever been issued.

Our sister state, Colorado, and its industries and attractions will be well represented in the issue, many beautiful views of Denver and Colorado scenery being given. A big part of the edition will be circulated in Denver, and Colorado's principal Especially attractive articles wift be prepared by a corps of selected writers, and leading men of the community will contribute timely articles on current topics,

As the holiday number will be issued several days ahead of Christmas, it will form an invaluable advertising medium to local dealers for the Christmas trade. The general advertiser could find no better means for reaching the people of the great west. The "News" will pledge a circulation of at least 20,-000 copies for the Christmas issue. Special rates will be accorded advertisers who wish their notices printed in the Semi-Weekly News as well, giving them a total clircution of nearly 45,000 copies.

PESERET EVENING NEWS | PLATTE D. LYMAN PASSES AWAY.

Death Overtakes President of San Juan Stake After Much Suffering

for His Allment-Reloved by All Who Knew Bim.

Was Recently Operated upon at Provo

The sad and shocking word of the death of President Platte D. Lyman of the San Juan Stake reached President Joseph F. Smith this morning. The communication was in the form of a dispatch from F. B. Hammond of Moab, San Juan county, which stated that he had received a letter to the effect that the end came on Wednesday last, after weeks of terrible suffering.

There were few people in this section of the state who ever knew of Elder Lyman's affliction and were therefore totally unprepared for the sorrowful news. His death was caused by a cancerous growth under the right arm, for which he underwent a critical opera-tion at Provo several weeks ago. He first became aware of the growth while on the ocean returning from Europe last summer. It continued to grow worse until an operation became neces-sary. After the operation he seemed to be improving, but while in attend-ance at the October conference he shook hands with so many acquaintances that the affected spot was irritated, and he returned to his home sick and with the seal of death upon his brow. He met his fate, as he met every other juncture in life, with unfaltering front and with the fear of God in his heart.

He was a man full of energy and of sound common sense, not demonstrative in his nature but of such genuine sterling manhood that all who knew nim esteemed him most highly. was a man who enjoyed highest confidence of those were over him and fullest regard of those over whom he presided.

Platte DeAlton Lyman was born on the Platte river opposite Fort Laramie in Wyoming, August 20, 1848. His parents were Amasa M. and Eliza Partridge Lyman, and he was a broth-er of Apostle F. M. Lyman. Salt Lake City was his home until he was fifteen years of age, when he moved with his parents to Fillmore, Millard county. He was married in Salt Lake City by President Young on May 18, 1867, to Miss Delia Robinson and in the same month left for a mission to Great Britain. He labored in the Kent and London conferences, becoming president of the latter and was released to return home on the day he was 21 years

On returning home he was made a High Councilor in the Millard Stake, and in 1871 was sent to Oak Creek to pioneer that section and was later made bishop of the ward, which position he held until the fall of 1879. In the meantime he filled another mission to England with signal credit to himself and people.

In 1879 he was called by President John Taylor to the San Juan mission and was President Silas S. Smith's assistant in building up that country. When the latter settled in Colorado, Elder Lyman was called to preside over the Saints on the San Juan river. In 1884 he was released from his labors in the San Juan mission and returned to Millard county, locating in Scipio. But he moved back and forth from But he moved back and forth from Sciplo to San Juan until 1891, when he moved his family to the latter place and was chosen second counselor the late President F. A. Hammond, In 1898 he was called to preside over the European mission and discharged the duties of that calling with his customary zeal and intelligence. He was honorably released to return home last summer and it was while on his home-ward voyage that he contracted the affliction that has now claimed his life. When President Hammond met his tragic fate Elder Lyman was called to succeed him and was sustained by the unanimous vote of the people of San Juan, who are now in deer mourning over his untimely death.

BRIG ELLERBECK DEAD. Well Known Business Man Passes

Away at St. Marks. Brigham Ellerbeck, the well known business man of this city, died shortly after 6 o'clock this morning at St. Mark's hospital at the age of 48 About two weeks ago he underwent an operation in which one of his kidney's was removed and little hope was entertained that his life would be spared more than a few days.

He was born in this city and educated at the Deseret University, After graduating he entered the Salt Lake City Cas company remaining in its em-ploy for ten years. In the early 70's went into the plumbing busines at the time of his death was president of the Utah Plumbing and Supply company. gathered at the residence of Jno. M. Cannon, in Forest Dale, last night, to participate in the dedicatory exercises of the Cannon home were seated at the supper table at 6:45 and partook of delicious meal. The menu included all that could be wished for, and was served by a corps of ladies under the direction of the hostess. The table decorations were profuse and most beautiful and presented a very attractive appearance. After dinner the service commenced by all singing "Culde me, ch, thou Great Jehovah." Master of ceremonies, President Angus M. Cannon, called on President Frank M. Cannon, called on President 1. A.Y. Taylor to make a few introductory remarks in which he advised the people remarks in which he advised the people of the of Granite Stake to take heed of the advice given to free their homes from debt and dedicate them to the Lord.

"The Spirit of God like a fire is burning" was sung, and Apostle M. F.
Cowley offered the opening prayer.
