dence 663 Twenty-fifth street, Weber county loses one of its stalwart and most highly respected citizens. He was taken sick just four weeks ago yesterday. At first great hope for his recovery was entertained, but when dropsy developed there was little hope of his surviving it.

Isaac McKay was born in Scotland, November 2, 1839, was the son of William and Ellen Owan McKay. When a boy about 15 years of age he became a member of the Mormon Church, and in 1859 emigrated to Utah coming to Weber county, taking up his home among the pioneer residents of Huntsville where he lived, doing much to assist in the upbuilding of that valley. He made his home there untill 1903, when he removed to Ogden.

He possessed those sterling qualities that goes to make up a man whom everyone respects. At the time of his death he was a faithful member of the high priest's quorum of the Weber stake. He was a brother to County Commisioner David McKay and uncle to Elder David O. McKay.

A loving wife and five children survive him. One of his sons, Heber McKay, is now laboring as a missionary in Samoa, and his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Stevenson, is at Baltimore with her husband, who is studying medecine. Funeral services will be held Sunday at 4:30 p. m. in the Fourth ward meeting-house.

men all suspected of being implicated in the burglarizing of a box car in the Union depot yards yesterday afternoon, were arrested by officers and are now languishing in the jail.

A report was sent to the police department by Freight Agent Chevers of the Harriman lines that some one had broken open a box car in the depot yards near the old water tank and stolen a quantity of clothing. The officers were detailed on the case and immediately started on a still hunt among the brush near the Weber river. Officer Morrissey after considerable time located a cripple who gives his name as Rob James, sitting on a pile of new clothing in a secluded spot in the brush. He was placed under arrest and Morrissey concluded to wait with him and see if his pals did not return. He was right, in a short time along came Fred Clark, J. J. Keating, and Ed Deal. They were given the high sign by James and broke and ran. Officer Morrissey fired several shots at them, bringing Deal to a halt and he took the two over to the patrol wagon and to the police station. Several boys saw the two men that ran away and kept an eye on them until the boys got to the Union depot when they notified Railroad Detective Baker who went in pursuit and caught them. They fought the officer and were giving him a hard struggle when Al Herrick came to his assistance and the two, who give their names as Clark and Keating, were placed under artwo, who give their names as Clark and Keating, were placed under ar-

WOMEN RECITE THEIR WOES.

The Old Tale of Desertion and Drunkenness Justifies Decree in Each Case.

Judge Ritchie handled the regular weekly divorce calendar yesterday afternoon in the absence of Judge Morse and granted three divorces, Mary Harrington informed the court that she had not seen or heard a word from John Harrington since he deserted her 12 years ago. She stated that they were married at Fall River. Mass., on Feb. 2, 1893, and that Harrington deserted her on Dec. 28, 1895, and ever since that time has failed to support her. She was granted a di-vorce and the custody of their child.

BRITCHER VS. ERITCHER.

Desertion and failure to support are the grounds upon which Mary E. Britcher was divorced from James E. Briticher, whom she married at Lara-Briticher, whom she married at Laramie, Wyo., on May 22, 1902. Soon after their marriage they went to York, Penn., to live and in January, 1904, Britcher deserted her and their child in order to join the navy. He also failed to support her so she was compelled to come to Bingham and live with her parents. She said that Britcher also deserted the navy but was captured and taken back to serve his time. She was granted a divorce and the custody of her child.

WAS HABITUALLY DRUNK. WAS HABITUALLY DRUNK.

Camilla J. Hendrickson testified that Harold P. Hendrickson was guilty of habitual drunkenness, had deserted her more than a year ago and had also falled to support her. They were married on Dec. 20, 1905, and Mrs. Hendrickson stated that her husband deserted her in October, 1906, and went to Ely, Nev. She was given a divorce, $50 as attorney's fees, $15 court costs and was allowed to resume her maiden name, Camilla Nielson.

Shannon of the Giants is the leading run-getter of the National league. Keeler has at last commenced to climb the golden ladder. His batting average is now well over the 250 mark.

Chance was canned for bottling the crowd.

Overall has acquired a habit of winning games and rarely breaks into the debit side of the pitcher's ledger.

In the National league the real fight is for second place and any of the three teams in the running may secure the "almost" prize when the season's tallies are counted.

Buck Francks leads the Western league with 33 stolen bases. He is batting at a 285 clip.

The veteran Carrick is still pitching good ball for Jersey City and breaks into the shut out column regularly.

Wee Willie Keeler has the grand batting average of .337 for 14 years of ball playing. In that time he has headed the table on two occasions, been second also twice and third three times.

Lumley and Gibson head the National league with three home runs, Wagner.

Mayee, Beaumont, Bresnahan, Seymour, Browne, Murray, Strang and Courtney having bagged two apiece.

DEFINITION OF "FAN"

How is this for a definition of a "fan?" The sketch is drawn by clever Joe Cummings of the Baltimore News. It follows:

Joe Cummings of the Baltimore News. It follows:

"An animal that is almost human in some respects. Runs wild from April to September, when species flock together in bunches between the hours of 3 and 6 p. m. Goes out of business in the winter season. The chief attribute of a 'fan' is dexterity in wielding the hammer, lungs like a rhinoceros, and a remarkably keen eyesight, which enables him to see a play better than the umpire whose nose is dangling over the contestants. The 'fan' subsists chiefly on peanuts and pop. Ever and anon he chews tobacco or smokes a stogie."

SMALLEST LIVING BABY.

New York, July 29.—The baby incubator establishment at Dreamland, Coney Island, has received what is believed to be the smallest living baby ever born. It is a girl and was born to Mrs. George Brown of this city. The child weighed only 19 ounces and 15 grams. The height of the baby is 11 inches, its arms are three inches long, and from temple to temple the measurement is two inches. Both hands of the baby will go at one time through the mother's wedding ring. A 10-cent piece hides her hands. A half-dollar hides her face. A 22-ounce baby was born this week in Providence and placed in an incubator to save its life. Previous to these two cases 24 ounces was considered as close to the limit.

The sayings of Christ were found near an old coptic monastery at Eofu. They were found by natives, who sold them for a few pounds to an Arab trader. There are about a dozen rolls of sixth century Greek papyri. They include 25 leaves of apocryphal sayings of Christ in a coptic translation of almost Greek original, of which previously only 13 leaves were known, 12 of them being in the national gallery at Paris and one at Berlin.

The discovery also includes parts of the Gospels of St. Matthew, St. Mark and St. Luke in Greek.
