TRIP TO PARK CITY.

By the Visiting Journalists—A Stop-over in the Junction City.

Awakened in Vernon's News the evening settles took a spin out to Park City yesterday, going by way of Ogden.

The start was made about 11:00 a. m. and after breaking up into parties proceeded to "chat" the miles. The managers of the various routes showed an possible courtesy to their guests, and at the Ogden depot were present to them, and speedy were most all in by base slides.

On their return trip a stop was made at Ogden, the visitors alighting from the train to view the sights of the Junction city. A 5-minute lay was viously been apportioned to each of the visitors, the whole to some underwing the request of the time which they were to arrive, to include arrangements could be made and as a consequence Ogden was deprived of showing her hospitality to the visiting journalists.

The executive committee of the Western Editorial Association met yesterday afternoon, at which time Mr. Howell of Cripple Creek, tendered his resignation as secretary ing secretary, his reasons being that he thought Utah entitled to the office, and further that his business interest would require time of him attending to the duties belonging to the office. On this showing the resignation was accepted, and A. B. Truman, of Salt Lake, appointed in his stead.

Another meeting of the executive committee was held this afternoon when matters pertaining to the short work of the convention were discussed freely.

Millard Stake Conference.

The regular quarterly conference of the Millard Stake of Z on convened in the large hall in the center school house at Scipio, 16 n. on Sunday, Aug. 25th.

Present on the stand were: Elders John Ilo ey Smith and Hester J. Grant, of the quorum of the Twelve Apostles; C. H. Spendlove, of the Seventies; Ira N. Hinckley and Daniel Thompson, of the Stake presidency), and other leading Saints of the Stake.

After singing and prayer, President Hinckley made a few opening remarks, and requested the members of the Sunday school to favor the people from the very best to some of the work, spoke in terms of praise of some of the societies and organizations, but said it appeared very hard in some to be consistent Latter-day Saints.

Bishop Tom Yates, of Scipio, and H. B. Bennett, of Meadow, and L. C. Calloway, of Flint ah, gave reports of their respective wards which were well with the usual blessing given by Elder Hinckley.

Elder L. D. Fielding then addressed the conference. He referred to the time when he was a boy in Salt Lake valley, and in Provo, and how Young ordained Bishops and set them apart for their callings. He said he was pleased to see the Saints in the valleys, but he would rather be in the mountains, for there he could feel more free to worship God. He referred to the fact that the Lord never failed to bless His people when they were faithful, and that the Lord never failed to bless the Saints when they were faithful. He said he was glad to see the people of Millard in the valleys of the mountains, and advised the Saints to enjoy everything that is good, and to be prudent in all things. He also referred to the fact that the Church, because of the Saints of some of the things pointed to the Lord in the dedicatory prayer given by the Prophet Joseph Smith, and enjoyed by those who the Pioneers came here; knowing that there were conditions for us to comply with to fulfill our part, and he said so that the Lord would do His part.

Elder M. W. Merrill congratulated the people on their surroundings. In 1856 he visited this valley and became in the blessings of the Lord there was a change; for then this valley and the reputation of not being fit for farmers was spoken of every night in the street. He set forth that the people are more wealthy through having been blessed in the world. We should not be idlers. Both ministers and members should labor with their hands. We were told how we must work on ground given by being a believing people. He said he enjoyed the privilege of being one of the first to arrive when they were more convenient to visit during which they received the spirit of the Lord in their hearts. Finally I began using it and the result was wonderful. After the first bottle I could eat with relish, and now I am completely well and can eat anything I want."

He Could Eat But Little and Was in Constant Pain—Cured With One Bottle.

W. T. Locke, a well-known resident of Kent, Ohio, says that Mangum's Discovery Cure unconditionally saved his life by relieving him of dyspepsia in less than a long time I have been afflicted with dyspepsia. I suffered untold agony and had what is commonly called "heart trouble." I was constantly in misery and my heart would beat so fast that I could not lie down. I was unable to get any relief from medicine until I began using Mangum's Discovery Cure, but I had used so many different medicines without benefit that I thought this would be only another failure. Finally I began using it and the result was wonderful. After the first bottle I could eat with relish, and now I am completely well and can eat anything I want."
