DANGER IN DISGUISE!

Summer Festivities Unpleasant Causes Explained and Some Timely Advice About How to Avoid It.

CERTAIN VALUABLE FACTS MORE PUBLIC.

It is well known that hot weather brings diseases, and that people go through the summer without unpleasant symptoms. The trouble becomes very serious, the pulse irregular, the head aches, the body aches, and the limbs swollen and tired. Ladies especially, with their natural delicacy and tendency to female troubles, find the hot weather almost unbearable. While Little Children are dying every day from exhaustion and because Parents neglect precaution and care. A prominent and well known physician of New York asserts as his positive belief that more than three-fourths of all so-called Summer complaints arise from disordered secretions, and that these secretions, which, by being out of order cause so much trouble, are the Kidneys and Liver. These organs are the governors of the system, and by their movements regulate the other parts of the body. The brain controls the life, but the lower part of the body rules the health.

There is one, and only one known vegetable that will absolutely regulate and control the Kidneys and Liver at all times and thus prevent the many dangers of the Summer. That vegetable is (West India Leaf), is used as the basis of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. It is pure, pleasant to the taste and absolutely certain in its results. It keeps those who intelligently use it in perfect health, and cures those whose secretions are deranged. For all urinary complaints of either sex it is infallible. For all bilious troubles it is certain. For the hot season it is invaluable, and it should be used upon the approach of the slightest symptoms. It may save your life or that of some dear friend; it will certainly prevent much suffering.

No remedy in America has ever received such high and enthusiastic commendations, and it is warmly Endorsed by the Professions, the Press and the People.

An Editor's Experience.
 ALBANY, IOWA, May 28, 1897.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I have great pleasure in making the following statement: I have been afflicted with a disease of the kidneys for the past two years and have tried numerous remedies with only partial and temporary relief. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure was recommended to me, and after taking it, the pain and distress left me, and I am today feeling strong and well. I can only say that I am a great believer in Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and I can only say that I am a great believer in Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and I can only say that I am a great believer in Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.

A Doctor's Certificate.
 I hereby certify that I have been a personal physician for twenty-two years, and I have seen many cases of kidney and liver trouble. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure is a most valuable remedy, and I can only say that I am a great believer in Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and I can only say that I am a great believer in Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.

A Patient's Testimony.
 I have been greatly troubled with my kidneys and liver for over twenty years, and I have tried many remedies, but I have not found any relief. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure was recommended to me, and after taking it, the pain and distress left me, and I am today feeling strong and well. I can only say that I am a great believer in Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and I can only say that I am a great believer in Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.

REFORM SPELLING.

VERNON, Alabama, August 11th, 1890.

Editors Deseret News:

The publication of my letter upon reform spelling, in the NEWS, has called forth a few expected objections, which I have now received in the form of a letter from you. I am very much interested in this question, and I am very much interested in the reform spelling. I am very much interested in the reform spelling, and I am very much interested in the reform spelling.

Looking at the writing how much prettier the present style of spelling looks beside the other. The word correct and compare with "correct, correct, correct." Why the latter looks like some foreign word? This argument is very weak, and I would advise for it an eternal rest. It is also incorrect, for "correct" is beauty. Our present spelling is imperfect, because its characters do not represent those proper sounds which the spoken words contain. It also contains words which are foreign to the English language. But if we had an alphabet whose characters would represent the sounds of our language, we would use those characters in the proper places, we would have a perfect system. Then we could talk of beauty to our hearts content without being vain. The reason that "correct" looks foreign is because we are not used to it. If we had been used to it, "correct" would not only look foreign, but it would be a word.

The second objection reads: "It is a poor rule that will not work in all cases. There are hundreds of words that it would be impossible to change and make sense of." Here is a misunderstanding. We are not wanting to change any words, we only want to change the spelling, in order that the common kind of a scholar may, by the spelling, be able to pronounce any word which he happens to see; or, by the sound, readily spell any word which he happens to hear. It is a poor rule that will not work in all cases. There are hundreds of words that it would be impossible to change and make sense of. Here is a misunderstanding. We are not wanting to change any words, we only want to change the spelling, in order that the common kind of a scholar may, by the spelling, be able to pronounce any word which he happens to see; or, by the sound, readily spell any word which he happens to hear.

The third and last objection is, "In this method you lose track of the derivatives; or, in other words, you lose sight of the origin of many words, and you lose sight of the meaning of many words." This is a mistake. Derivatives are, or should be, known by sound and not by spelling. The origin of many words is lost, but the meaning of many words is not lost. The origin of many words is lost, but the meaning of many words is not lost. The origin of many words is lost, but the meaning of many words is not lost.
