GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ADMITS. To Senator Johnson Address the Assembly—A Letter from the New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Three hundred delegates from twenty-two nations met in the city today to inaugurate the preparation for an international conference on the subject of peace.

There was a demonstration of the American citizens, but although they were not invited to the conference, they were not invited to the peace conference.

During the evening, the delegates were met by a committee who presented them to the peace conference.

Judge J. H. Johnson, who presided at the conference, reported the results of the conference.

At the conference, the delegates discussed the subject of peace and the possibility of a world conference.
