THEATRICAL.—To-night Mille Ravel will conclude her engagement here, which has been a very successful one. "Massanella" or, the "Dumb Girl of Portici" will be repeated, to be followed by the farce of "The Smiths and Browns." Between the pieces Mr. Charley Lamb will execute his "Clap Exercise."

THE HARVEST PROSPECTS.—It is several years since the prospects for a plentiful harvest were as good as they are the present season. From nearly every part of the Territory we receive the gratifying intelligence that grain is looking well, and we are told that Mr. William Ross of Centerville, informed us this morning, that that place was not an exception to this rule, the grain in that vicinity is looking as well as could be desired. He also stated that there was wheat growing in the fields Monday and Tuesday last, but beyond knowing of a number of short roofs and demolishing a few fences, no damage was done by it.

WILL PRESENT.—Elder Shriver will preach in the 11th Ward Assembly Room, to-morrow evening, to commence at 7 o'clock. Subject "Alphabet of Moral Mammals."

MINEVILLE.—A correspondent writing from Mineville, Beaver Co., on the 1st instant says: "The mines in this section are the 'Star' and 'Liscomb' are proving to a first rate. Gold as well as silver and galena ore rare among important new discoveries in Lincoln District, also in the U. S. District, very large amounts of silver bearing quartz have lately been discovered, some four to five miles north of previous discoveries. These veins are lengthy and three to four feet thick."

TERITORIAL ITEMS.—The following were received per Deseret Telegraph:

ORDER. April 28.

The band of robbers which was stolen from us yesterday a few days ago was driven to a northern direction. Sheriff Reavis and posse went in pursuit on Tuesday and returned this morning, bringing back most of the horses and men who bought them from the thieves, who affirms he had no knowledge of their being taken. It is quite probable. The thieves are still skulking some distance north of Brigham City.

Major Powell, the Colorado explorer, is expected to arrive here this evening, in the mountains east of Ogden, Kanab. Specimens have been brought here, but no definite assays or tests are yet made.

RICHMOND.—Yesterday Martin Kerr lost his stable, haystacks and sheds by fire. It is supposed to have originated from a fire set out a few days since near the stable, and is entirely out, but the wind breaking up yesterday explained the cause.

LAWRENCE.—It is very windy and dusty and looks like a storm. The people are putting in crops as if they anticipated a bountiful harvest. Everything is moving quietly.

MOUNT PLEASANT.—The Northern Sanpete Co-operative Institution, organized a short time ago, having added to its considerable amount within the past week, a sum equivalent to young stock in payment, which were started from this place this morning for the herd ground in Thistle Valley. Our new meeting house is nearly completed. The weather, in this section, has been very cold and stormy, causing delay in the work, but a good crop is anticipated this season. The health of the—FILLMORE.—At Meadow Creek yesterday, a horse, A. A. McBride's, 7 years old, was kicked in the face by a bronco horse, inflicting a dangerous wound from the nose to the chin, laying bare the bone and breaking two teeth. He was brought here last evening in a delirious condition. The wound was sewed up and dressed by J. S. Giles. He is now rational and doing well.

BEAVER.—The stage from Pioche arrived at 12 noon, containing three passengers and 500 pounds of bullion.

The election for the county seat of Lincoln county was of quite lively, little interest, but manifested, Pioche winning without a struggle.

A FAREWELL BENEFIT.—On the evening of Tuesday next, Mr. W. H. Power, who for the past two or three months has been ill, an engagement at the Theatre in this city, makes his last appearance and takes a farewell benefit. The entertainment on the occasion will consist of two drama, never before played here, one of which is entitled "Robert Emmet," the patriot of that name, and the rebellion of the other entitled "The six degrees of Crime." In the former will be received Emmet's speech, made before the judge who sentenced him to death, which justly ranks amongst the most celebrated specimens of eloquence in the English language.

By the orders of General Marrow, of Fort Douglas, the Camp band, in full uniform, will play on the occasion, rendering a altogether, highly attractive. Mr. Power has won golden opinions during his stay here, and we hope to publicize his name, as a well known actor and a gentleman by honoring him with their presence, patronage, and a full house on Tuesday evening.

PARAPING.—Brother Mark Lindsay is busy making preparations to accommodate the large number of pleasure seekers whom he expects to visit his pleasant summer resort on the bench north-west of the cemetery. In addition to his cold spring bathhouse he has had another erected and fitted up for the exclusive use of ladies. He has recently a new ice cream saloon on the grounds, planted out a large number of shade trees, and is otherwise providing for the comfort and pleasure of those who will visit his grounds during the coming summer. Should the grasshopper not visit him he will have an abundant crop of strawberries in the beds he has now prepared with bloomers, so that there will be this year an unusual variety in this exquisite dish: strawberries and cream. Mark's is an excellent place for picnic and school parties to go to spend a day in rest and amusement, and for strangers who wish to have a fine view of this city and valley. The swings, whirligigs, etc., on the ground, are great attractions for the children.

BING BUILT UP.—Among the various portions of the city that are being built up, not the least prominent is the bench lying north of the Twentieth Ward, beyond the city wall. Five years ago, that part, from City Creek kanyon east as far as the bench, was a desert waste, now it is dotted all over with pleasant, comfortable dwellings, it bids fair to become one of the pleasantest places in the city. It has the advantage of commanding a fine view, and is well adapted for the raising of fruit. A large number of shade and fruit trees have been planted this spring and many very respectable looking residences are now in course of erection.

WAITING TO BE CALLED FOR.—There are messages at the Deseret Telegraph Office for P. M. Cannon, B. S. Lane, Julia Marie, W. T. Vincent, John C. Tatton.

FEED SHORT IN CALIFORNIA.—In consequence of the shortness of feed for cattle in California, large herds are being shipped from some parts of that State to the sagebrush plains of Nevada to be fattened for market.
