A Timely Intervention.

CUSTER, D. T., 6.—Yesterday while Henry Myers' freighting outfit, with six men, was camped twelve miles south of here, they were visited by three men who cooked their dinner at the camp fire, and made themselves so agreeable that all of the freighters except the son of Myers gathered about them. Young Myers was suspicious, and went to one of the wagons, where he got his shot gun and remained away from the party. During the conversation around the camp fire one of the strangers admired a shot gun belonging to the freighters, and took it to examine it. Suddenly he [cocked and leveled it, stepped between the freighters and their arms and ordered them to throw up their hands, saying they would take what money there was in the outfit. At this young Myers stepped from behind the wagon and fired, the shot striking the robber in the face and breast. The robber wheeled and fired at him, but missed. The robber then dropped the gun and ran, firing at the party with his revolver. One of the freighters shot at him with a rifle ball, striking him in the arm. He fell, and soon after died. The other two road agents fled and are not yet captured. A party under a deputy sheriff from here is in pursuit. The body of the dead robber was brought in here last night, and has been identified as that of a man known as "Texas Frank." It is believed that this is the party who robbed the Sidney coach a few nights ago. None of the Myers party were hurt.

Hanged on a Tree—Bryant Dead.

DEADWOOD, D. T., 6. — Curley and Mack, two well known miners of this vicinity, returned from the Big Horn country last night. They report passing a large party of prospectors which went out from the Hills under the guidance of a man whose name cannot be ascertained, but who was known as Charley. He claimed to have diggings on Rotton Grass that would yield thirty cents to the pan. Arriving at that place he confessed to the falsity of his statement, whereupon the irate miners hung him to a tree. It is presumed that he was in the employ of the post trader at Fort Reno, and took the party out for the benefit of that individual. Our informants report that the country is alive with Nez Perces Indians.

John Bryant, a principal in the Adams-Bryant tragedy of the 4th, died at 5 o'clock last evening.

The Revival of Business.

NEW YORK, 6.—The aggregate exchanges, during September, tend to show that whatever of reviving business prosperity is apparent, is due to the marketing of the exceptionally large grain crop. While some localities gained largely, others lost in comparison with the notable dullness of September, 1876, in the south and southwest, including St. Louis. Proofs of increased activity are lacking east of the Alleghanies. Business improves wherever grain goes in large quantities as at New York and Baltimore, but declines everywhere else. The iron and coal business make little progress, although last week's business at Pittsburg indicates some improvement, but the northwest, especially Milwaukee, Chicago and Kansas City, show a real and large improvement.

The Tammany Triumph.

The Tammany triumph in the State convention, though very unpalatable to Tilden's friends on one side, and the anti-Tammany John Morrissey crowd on the other, is likely to cause no serious defection from the democratic ticket, except among the Germans. The greatest danger which it threatens to the democracy is the loss of the State senators in this city, in favor of the Conkling republicans, thus lessening the democratic chances of electing Conkling's successor. The chief significance of the refusal to nominate the old State officers is in the fact that it puts the party control here in the hands of the wing opposed to Tilden's nomination for the presidency in 1880. It is also believed to be a settled fact that Tweed will be set free soon after the election.

The Railroad Freight Business.

At noon to-day the general managers of the railroads and freight agents were unable to agree and the presidents of the trunk lines adjourned their session to the 15th inst. Col. Scott informed a reporter that all questions brought before the meeting were still in abeyance. He could not say what plan the general managers and freight agents would agree upon, but whatever action they took would require the endorsements of the presidents. The general managers and freight agents are still in session.

An Earnest Appeal for Aid.

FERDINANDA, 6.—The mayor has issued an appeal to the mayors of northern cities, concluding as follows: "We cry for help, and cry for it now, in the name of our smitten community, in the name of the brotherhood of humanity, in the name of that God who hath touched us with his woeful judgment we implore you to give us help."

A Supposed Forger Arrested.

CINCINNATI, 6.—J. Cooper, supposed to be implicated with his brother in extensive forgeries in San Francisco, some time ago, was arrested here, to-night. The brother of Cooper, who is principal in the forgeries, is reported to be in New Orleans. Bonds and stocks valued at $20,000, were recovered from the express office addressed to Cooper's wife.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, 6. — Wool dull, prices weak, and in favor of buyers, but without material change. Manufacturers are purchasing continuously, and only in quantities as wanted. Receipts continue light, notwithstanding limited stocks are becoming reduced, fine fleeces are still quite neglected, but there is more inquiry for desirable lots of medium. Sales of Ohio choice XXX at 52½, XX and above 47 @ 47½, medium and X and above 43 @ 45; XXX Ohio and Pennsylvania quoted at 50 @ 50½; XX and above 47 @ 47½, X and above 43 @ 45; medium 44 @ 45; sales of No. 1 Mich at 43 @ 43, X and XX at 43, but principally in the range of 40 @ 42 for Michigan and Wisconsin, and this is a fair quotation for good average lots. Combing and delaine fleeces continues to more favor than any other kind at 50 @ 53 for washed, and 33½ @ 38½ for unwashed. New fall California has already made its appearance. A lot of 16,000 lbs. sold at 15 @ 19, and 86,000 lbs. at 19 @ 20. The sales of California were the largest for some weeks, comprising 184,000 lbs. spring at 17 @ 35½, and 236,000 lbs. at 15 @ 20, pulled wools sold at 35 @ 38 for super and X.

TEXAS.

More Mexican Troubles.

FORT DAVIS, 6. — A Mexican mob, 400 strong, took possession of the towns of Ysleta and Sullizarco. The infuriated rabble hold the officials prisoners. The cry is death to the Gringos and viva Mexico. Letters to-day state that the Mexicans in large numbers have captured and hold all the officers of El Paso County. The lives of all the white men are threatened. There are no troops on the frontier, and a horrible massacre is imminent. Judge Charles H. Howard is a prisoner, bound with ropes.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 6.—An immediate mobilization of another Russian army corps for Bulgaria is ordered.

The Italie says it is authorized to declare that Italy has concluded no alliance whatever with Germany.

Ali Saib is commanding the Turkish forces on the southern frontier.

Montenegrins on Friday attacked Podgoritzo, Spuz, and the small forts of Avnie, Ismail, and Dervish, and the attack was vigorously repulsed.

At the commencement of Thursday's battle, Mukhtar Pasha's dispatch says: Two Turkish columns are now attacking the Russians who are concentrated on the bank of Kara Ischal, opposite Kobak Heights, while the Turkish cavalry from Soubatan, and a corps from Kizilteps have been sent to threaten the communication of the Russians with their camp at Kurabel.

EASTERN.

Another Battle with the Hostile Nez Perces.

CHICAGO, 7.—The following dispatch, from Gen. Miles, was received by me here at eleven o'clock this evening:

Quarters, District of Yellowstone, Camp near Bear Paw Mountains, Oct. 3d, 1877.

Gen. A. H. Terry, commanding the department of Dakota.

General—This command moved rapidly to Snake Creek, striking a fresh trail of the hostile Nez Perces coming out of Bear Paw Mountions at seven o'clock of the 30th. We next surprised the camp at eight o'clock, capturing the larger part of their herd, about 600 horses, mules and ponies. The engagement was quite severe. The Indians lost seventeen killed, including Looking Glass, Joseph's brother, and three other chiefs, and forty wounded. Joseph gave me his solemn pledge, yesterday, that he would surrender, but did not, and they are evidently waiting for aid from other Indians. They say that the Sioux are coming to their aid. They are closely invested in some deep ravines. To take them by assault would cost many lives. I may wear them out, and eventually compel them to give up. They fight with more desperation than any Indians I have ever met. I believe there are many escaped villains in the village who expect to be hung when captured. I believe there is communication between this camp and Sitting Bull, and I have used every effort to prevent a junction. I am expecting the companies with Sturgis here soon and will then endeavor to send the second cavalry companies to Benton. I presume you do not wish them withdrawn.

When surrounding the Nez Perces camp I intend to send my wounded to the Missouri and captured stock to the Yellowstone. I would respectfully suggest that information be sent to the British authorities to prevent any portion of the Nez Perces tribe crossing the line, or to disarm them should they take refuge on English soil. Can supplies be sent up the Milk River road for the Second cavalry?

Please send me any information or orders that should govern my movements.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant.
NELSON A. MILES.

The following was received at midnight from Lieut. Gen. P. H. Sheridan:

I learn from the scout Bucknum, who brought Gen. Miles' dispatch, that the battle took place on Snake Creek, about eight miles from its mouth. He thinks that General Miles' force consisted of three companies of the Second Cavalry, three of the Seventh Cavalry, and eight of the Fifth Infantry. He also thinks that none of the officers reported wounded, are fatally injured. Gen. Sturgis, whose arrival Gen. Miles expected, must have with him seven companies of his regiment. The three companies of the Second Cavalry with Gen. Miles were originally intended as an escort to the commission to meet Sitting Bull.

$200,000 Fire.

NEW YORK, 7.—A fire occurred at Hunter's Point, early this morning. It was first discovered in the lumber yard belonging to Dudley, Groel & Co., and before the fire department was on hand, the yard, containing about 10,000,000 feet of pine lumber was in flames. From this the fire communicated to the yard of Simpson, Clapp & Co., and 300,000 feet of their stock was destroyed. It burned furiously until 4 p. m., when it was thought to be under control, but at 7 p. m., it again broke out in Simpson, Clapp & Co's yard, and is is feared that 5,000,000 feet, directly in its course, will also be destroyed. The loss at present embraces nine and a quarter million feet of pine lumber, with over 10,000 sugar boxes and hogsheads which were stored on the premises, amounting in all to $200,000. Insurance not ascertained.

The Roll of the Next House.

The World's Washington special says, Adams has completed the roll of the new House. The parties will stand—democrats 165; republicans 139, one republican from Colorado and one democrat from Missouri are omitted. The Louisiana delegation stands, four democrats and two republicans, instead of the reverse as the certificates represent; Florida one democrat and, one republican, instead of two republicans as reported. The President is anxious to have the tenure of office act repealed. The difficulties growing out of that act will suffice to keep Congress in session up to December.

Another Forger Arrested.

BOSTON, 7.—Col. Henry R. Sibley, a prominent citizen of Charleston, was arrested, yesterday, charged with forging endorsements on two promissory notes which he had discounted.

A Valuable Found.

WASHINGTON, 7. — The U. S. Treasurer a few days ago received advices from the agent of the U. S. Depository, at Tucson, Arizona, acknowledging the receipt of the letter containing an exchange on New York amounting to $100,000, which was sent from the Treasury in May last, to that agency. The mail rider bearing the dispatches was murdered by Indians en route. The letter was left, together with other dispatches at the scene of the murder, by the savages. It was recently found by a scout and forwarded, uninjured, after lying in the pure dry atmosphere of that region nearly six months.

Released.

CINCINNATI, 7.—J. R. Cooper, whose arrest in connection with the disappearance of certain California funds was reported in the dispatches last evening, was released, to-day, after turning over his valuables to G. P. Griffith, vice-president of the Third National Bank, in trust for A. D. Cooper, creditor.

A Father Shoots his Daughter and then Himself.

ST. LOUIS, 7.—Henry W. Mann, cashier of the Stockyards, Kansas City, shot his little daughter, between two and three years old, through the heart, yesterday, and then shot himself through the head. Both died instantly. Mann's wife died about six months ago, since which time his mind has been affected at times, and this is assigned as the cause of the act.
