DIPHTHERIA.

MARSHALL'S HUMBUG OIL, when used freely internally and externally, will positively cure Diphtheria, even in its worst form; thousands can vouch for the truth of this assertion. The raw Oil may be used freely on the tenderest infant, leaving the parts exposed to the air to avoid blistering. For internal use, the Oil must be diluted with water. Four tablespoonfuls of water to one teaspoonful of the Oil—sweeten to taste; bathing the throat and chest freely and often. Dose, one teaspoonful, repeating frequently. The Humbug Oil may be found prepared for internal use, under the name of Marshall's Canker Cure.

SAVE YOUR HAIR

TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of society require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed. It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled.

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

Last Night's Dispatches.

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

EXTRA SESSION.

WASHINGTON, 20.—After prayer and reading of the journal the Senate adjourned till to-morrow.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 20.—McMahon called up the petition of citizens of Cincinnati in relation to the election of Butterworth and Young, and the whole matter was referred to a select committee, with leave to sit during recess. The committee was also directed to inquire into the operation of the supervisors' law in Cincinnati at the last election.

Butterworth and Young declared themselves in favor of the resolutions. Adjourned.

EASTERN.

Redemption of Called Bonds.

WASHINGTON, 20.—The treasury department will now redeem the called bonds embraced in the seventy-sixth to the eightieth calls, inclusive, paying interest to the date of redemption, or it will redeem at once bonds included in said calls, with interest to date of maturity, and apply the proceeds to the payment of any subscriptions for 4 per cent. consols.

Caucus of Democratic Senators.

The democratic senatorial caucus, to-day, nominated Rev. Jos. G. Bullock, of Alexandria, Va., for chaplain. The question of going into election for assistant doorkeeper then came up. The position of door keeper having been merged in that of sergeant-at-arms, and the general subject of inquiry as to which of the experienced subordinate employes of the Senate should be retained in their present positions, were referred to the committee appointed by the caucus last Monday to report concerning the order of business, etc.

Caucus of Democratic Representatives.

A caucus of the democratic members of the House of Representatives was held immediately after adjournment, to-day, for the purpose of considering the order of business and measures to be taken during the present extra session.

House, of Tennessee, was chosen chairman of the caucus by ballot, receiving 77 votes, against Clymer, chairman of the former caucus, who received 41 votes. Covert and Mills were appointed secretaries.

A resolution was passed recommending to the Speaker the appointment of standing committees.

During a debate on the subject, Wood said it was proper to appoint committees in order that the respective members of them should study subjects which probably they would be called upon to consider.

Knott offered a resolution with a view to confining the business of the extra session to the objects for which it was called.

Stephens opposed the passage of the resolution, and said that, as the people were deeply suffering all over the country, there should be legislation on the subjects of currency, the tariff, and internal revenue, in order that relief might be offered them. He declared, as one of the means of alleviation, that he was in favor of abolishing the internal revenue system, the people being already taxed to the point of oppression.

Ewing and Bright also severally opposed the resolution.

Wood and all the other speakers favored the resolution, giving their reasons why the legislation should be confined to the passage of the army and legislative and judicial appropriation bills.

Cox, New York, moved to amend the resolution of Knott by adding thereto a clause proposing a repeal of the existing laws to which they object by the passage of bills independent of the appropriation bills, and sending them to the President, and in the event of the President vetoing the bills, then placing the measures upon the appropriation bills with such legislation incorporated in them, that their action be adhered to until further advised by the caucus. The sentiment of the caucus, as far as developed, was in favor of confining the business of the session to the appropriation bill above named. There was no dissent, whatever, to the adoption of provisions similar to those heretofore attached to these bills, namely, the prohibition of troops at the polls on election days, repeal of the Jurors' test oath and the act for the employment of supervisors of elections.

The resolution of Knott and the amendment by Cox were not acted upon, but the entire subject, embracing the questions whether the provisions should be attached to the appropriation bills or embodied in independent bills, together with the order of business, were, on motion of Carlisle, referred to a committee to be appointed by the chair, who will confer with the caucus committee of nine of the Senate, and report to the adjourned meeting of the caucus, subject to the call of the chairman.

The action of to-day's caucus of the democratic members of the House has left no room for further doubt that they will enter upon their contest with the republican minority and President thoroughly united. How long and how firmly they will hold to the issue and what will be the ultimate issue of the struggle remain matters of uncertainly and speculation, but it is noteworthy that even before the contest has commenced this session, there are suggestions of possible modifications of the democratic demands for an entire repeal of the federal election law, which indicate that there may yet be found some means of speedily breaking the anticipated deadlock without a complete backdown on either side. It must be admitted, however, that these possibilities seem at present very slight, and general talk is now rather in regard to the duration of the deadlock and as to which party will surrender, than in regard to the methods of compromise and conciliation. A novel plan of procedure is, to-night, under consideration among democratic leaders. It is that both branches of Congress, after passing the appropriation bills with the political provisions included, shall suddenly adopt a concurrent resolution by the terms of which they will take a recess until the end of next November, thus leaving with President Hayes the appropriation bills, to be signed or not, just as he may or may not be willing to assume an undivided responsibility of allowing the needs of the public service to remain unprovided for during the first five months of the fiscal year.

The Oliver-Cameron Suit.

In the Oliver-Cameron case, today, the cross-examination of Mrs. Oliver was continued. A number of letters were introduced, which witness acknowledged as having been written by her. She also admitted signing the receipt for $1,000 from Simon Cameron in full for all claims which she made on him. She had passed under the names of Cooper, Keefener, Stuart, Baker and Oliver. She introduced herself as Mrs. General Sherman, in the parlor of the Congressional Hotel. She went there to see Cameron, and when the waiter asked who called she thoughtlessly said Mrs. General Sherman. It happened but once. The servant did not refuse her admission to Cameron's room until she told him that she was Mrs. Sherman. When she took the money from Cameron, the last installment, and signed the paper, she intended to use the money while she was sick, but so much deception had been practiced upon her that she decided to keep back something to prosecute her suit. Her counsel was to receive a third of the amount that might be recovered. She testified that she went to Cameron's room at his request nearly every time. She took medicine at his request and the purpose was understood between them and it was for getting rid of her trouble. The money that he gave her was for taking care of her while she was sick and had nothing to do with the breach of promise suit. Adjourned.

The Proposed Compromise.

Republican senators are disturbed over the intimation that the President is disposed to advise the acceptance of the compromise proposed by leading democrats in regard to the repeal of the election laws and to repeal the clause authorizing deputy marshals to make arrests at the polls. Senator Dawes said, today, there would be no backdown on the part of republicans in the Senate; that they were the unit on not allowing the election law to be repealed or modified, and that if the President yielded he would fall between two stools. Senator Ferry said that he and other republican senators had been to see the President and urge him to stand firm, and not make any concessions to the democrats, but to throw the responsibility upon the democrats of not passing the appropriation bills. Republicans of the House are nearly unanimous on this question, but there are a few who are willing to make a compromise. Of the New England members, Loring is the only one who favors the proposed compromise, and it is said he does this from expediency to make favor with the democrats, who will be called upon to vote whether he is elected to a seat or Boylton, the contestant.

Diseased Cattle.

Some excitement was created here by the publication of a special from Toronto of cable news to the effect that the Chicago cattle, exported in the steamer Brazilian, had, upon her arrival at Liverpool, been found to have pleuro-pneumonia, and had been slaughtered.

A Threatened Panic.

NEW YORK, 20.—Many orders for currency were received here today, from New Orleans, and large amounts shipped. The order of suspension expires on the 29th inst. and before that time the funds from this city will have reached the banks. The action taken was to avert a threatened panic.

Freight Rates.

Advices state that the freight rates from Chicago to New York have been fixed at 20 cents per hundred on grain, and 25 cents on fourth class freight.

Relief for the Sufferers.

Several hundred dollars have been raised here for the relief of sufferers at Szegedin.

Arrest of an Embezzler.

Albert Falk, general manager and confidential agent for William Ryle, importer of raw silk, is in Ludlow Street Jail charged with appropriating to his own use silks valued at $68,000, the property of Ryle. Falk has returned to Ryle $24,000.

Anticipated Short Session.

A Washington special says: The belief that the session will be short is strengthened by the manner in which the proposed compromise on political legislation is received by both parties. Senator Whyte, of Maryland, is understood to be the proposer to republicans of a scheme likely to be adopted. This is to allow both United States supervisors and deputy marshals to be continued, but provides that no deputy marshal shall make an arrest at election time, unless on a warrant issued by a United States commissioner, on the authority of some respectable citizen. Republicans can safely agree to this, and also to a repeal of the juror's test oaths, and to the provision of the army bill forbidding the presence of troops near the polls. The democratic programme is to bring in the two defeated appropriation bills at once, and put whatever legislation is adopted on them, without waiting to adopt any independent measures.

The Baldwin Murder.

CINCINNATI, 20.—There was much excitement over the mysterious murder of Harry Baldwin, last Saturday night. The coroner has not yet finished his inquest, and the entire detective force of the city has been at work, although with scarcely a thread of evidence upon which to base the operations. To-day, a number of arrests of suspected parties have been made, chiefly among the demi monde, whose houses, it is intimated, young Baldwin had been visiting when shot.

Col. Sexton Nominated.

CHICAGO, 20.—Journal's Washington: The democratic caucus nominated Col. Sexton, who was a member of Gen Lee's staff, as executive clerk of the Senate. The south has three of the four officers nominated.

The Political Disabilities Bill.

The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says: One of the first bills introduced in the Senate was to remove the political disabilities of Jeff. Davis, so as to prepare for his admission as senator, to succeed Bruce, two years hence. This was concealed under the bill to restore to citizenship all persons now under political disabilities. There were only about 30 on the list, of whom Davis is one. The bill was referred to the committee on judiciary, of which Thurman is chairman, and it is reported that the Jeff. Davis debate will be resumed, and Thurman's presidential prospects imperilled.

Clearing House Banks

NEW ORLEANS, 20.—The Clearing House banks decide not to pay out on checks more than $200 to one depositor in one day. All the other payments will be made by the certification of checks, which shall be received on deposit by the banks of the Clearing House. The arrangement will be temporary.

List of Bank Suspensions.

Following is a list of the new banks whose temporary suspension is announced to-day: The Germania National bank, Hibernia National bank, Louisiana National bank, New Orleans National bank, State National bank, Union National bank, Bank of Lafayette, Citizens' Bank of Louisiana, Citizens' Savings bank, Louisiana Savings bank, Metropolitan Bank of New Orleans, Canal and Banking Company, People's Bank and Workingmen's Bank. Collections for distant customers will be remitted for, as heretofore, in currency checks on New York. The effect of this action involves only local interests here and has checked the panic, all pretext for which will be entirely removed in a day or two when currency arrives, which is already on the way from New York. The banks held, this morning, about $2,200,000 legal tenders and $3,000,000 sight exchange on New York exclusive of their portfolios, with which to meet about $10,000,000 due depositors. Most of the banks to-day received more currency from depositors than they paid out.

A Chinaman Stabbed and Robbed.

DUBUQUE, Ia., 20.—Even the three Chinamen who live in Dubuque cannot remain peaceably. Last night the residence of Chakee was invaded by Sam Lee, and the latter, after stabbing the former in the head, robbed him of $40.

Disastrous Prairie Fires.

ST. LOUIS, 20.

A terrible prairie fire recently occurred in Republic and Cloud counties, Kansas. They extended over an area of ten miles long, three miles wide, and swept everything before them. It is said that about 100 homes have been consumed, also a large quantity of grain, farming implements, hay and other property. The winds were so high and the fires so fierce and hot that the inhabitants were obliged to take refuge in underground habitations. One life is reported lost, Mrs. Berversox, who was burned to death while attempting to release some horses from a burning stable. Several other persons were severely injured. The loss is estimated at $40,000.

Shooting Affray.

MARSHALL, Texas, 20.—Last night, after the Warde and Barrymore combination had finished playing, the company went to the depot to await the train. Maurice Barrymore, B. C. Porter, and a female attache of the combination were in the lunch room, when James Currie, a detective, entered and made some slighting remarks about the lady, to which exceptions were taken by Barrymore and Porter. After some words, Currie drew a pistol, shot Porter in the abdomen, killing him almost instantly, and turning shot Barrymore through the elbow, the ball coming out under the left shoulder, making a severe, if not dangerous wound. Porter and Barrymore were unarmed. Currie is jailed.

And all Diseases Indicating an IMPURE CONDITION of the BLOOD

Cutaneous eruptions upon the face or body do not necessarily indicate the taint of Scrofula, but whether the incipient person of that dire malady is present in the system or not, certain it is that completely cures such disorders. Irritating virus of Scrofula does exist in the every this matchless purifier will root out be it vestige of it. No eruptive malady, scrofulous or otherwise, can resist the potent sifting action of this safe and potent remedy, which renders the skin

Scovill's Blood & Liver Syrup

CLEAR, SOFT AND BEAUTIFUL,

when ordinary medicines utterly fail to arrest the progress of scrofulous and other eruptive diseases, the use of this incomparable depurent secured the desired result. From

of its reliability in our possession, we make the two following condensed extracts:

Mr. Samuel H. Matthews, Modestown, Accomac Co., Va., states that his child, when a months old, was attacked with an eruption which covered the head, face, arms, feet and legs, converting them into "sores, by one solid sore," but that two and a-half bottles of Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup effected a complete cure, without a scar.

Martin Robbins, Jr., writes that he suffered from Scrofulous White Swelling with twelve running ulcers on his legs, from which more than 100 pieces of bone slough ed away, but by the time he had finished the twenty-fourth bottle of the Syrup he was completely cured.

THIS GRAND REMEDY

is a compound of vegetable extracts, the chief of which are

Sarsaparilla and Stillingia

The cures effected by Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup are absolute, and their record is undimmed by failure. For sale by all Druggists.
