A Word of Advice to Wool Growers .- It may not be generally known that in the eastern markets wools are judged by buyers, in s great measure, by the localities from which they come, as in some States they wash all their sheep before shearing, thereby disposing det. Ingenious and Beautiful. - We have been shown by Mr. Edward Brain, of the 20th Ward, a very handsome model of a temple, which he has just finished. The dimensions of the little structure are 173 inches in length, 12 inches wide, 10} inches in height and 18} inches ception, of one-eighth of an inch that the dome on the east end is proportionately considerably high-The materials used in making the model are for the body of the walls, towers, &c., plaster of Paris, and the pilasters or abutments are made of neatly cut temple sandstone, from St. George. It is very complete, having 126 windows, in Greek general who was killed durwhich glass of different col-ors, red, blue, green, orange, and purple, has been inserted. The dome is surmounted by a brass vane, made to revolve. There are two flights of stone steps at the enthusiasm he must urge the neeast and west ends, and the whole is placed upon a neat black walnut slab. The model has been nicely painted, and it has taken Mr. Brain six weeks to construct it. The roof is of tin, and so made with a vent as to admit of a lamp being placed in the interior, and when thus illuminated the effect, with the colored windows, is very beautiful. Altogether it is a very Lice piece of workmanship.
