

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.

Salt Lake City.—The Art of Dancing was the subject of an address by Mr. Peter Christensen before the students at the general assembly on Wednesday.

Last night Prof. Stewart went to Santaquin to address the school patrons of that place.

By a recent decision of the faculty the regular normal course will be extended one year, making a five years' course. The effect will take effect at the beginning of next school year.

On Thursday President Kingsbury delivered an address before the students of the Ogden High school.

Next Saturday our track team will go to Provo to contest with the athletes of the B. Y. U.

Senator Sutherland has written to President Kingsbury authorizing him to arrange for the appointment of a first alternate to a midshipman cadetship at the Annapolis Naval academy. The age limit is from 18 to 20 years. Anyone wishing to make application can do so to President Kingsbury.

The faculty has appointed Mr. Oscar W. Carlson of the college seniors, and Miss Elsie J. Ward of the fourth year normals, to represent their respective classes as valedictorians on commencement day.

On Monday evening next, Dr. J. E. Falmagne will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Russia" in Barrett hall. The price of admission will be 25 cents. This lecture will be under the management of the Authors' association and the proceeds will be given to the University gymnasium fund.

All candidates for graduation have been notified that their theses must be handed in by May 26.

On Thursday all class and laboratory work was suspended and the students turned out to continue the work on the athletic field that was begun last Saturday. Five strands of barbed wire were fastened to outside of the board fence to prevent boys from tearing the boards off. The afternoon was spent in hauling said wire over the field. At noon the women, under the supervision of Miss Wheeler of the domestic science department served luncheon in the assembly room.

A feature of the University summer school will be the social music, and practical handwork including 30 lessons in dress making. For this work Miss Emily C. Jessup of Carnegie hall, New York has been secured as instructor.

Last night Oscar W. Carlson, Henry Soule and Ben Howells with Prof. Roylance went to Sandy where they conducted a public debate with Messrs. Holman, Reese and Stewart of that place. The question for discussion is "Resolved, That the Monroe Doctrine should be abolished." Messrs. Carlson, Soule and Howells will debate this question on May 12, with representatives of the University of Denver. The debate will take place in Salt Lake City.

Yesterday morning Prof. Allen went into the main hall of the library building and wrote on the bulletin board the following:

"Take Notice,"

"Students are hereby warned against becoming engaged for Friday evening, May 5."

As the students passed they began to wonder what it meant. Finally a group caught the professor and asked an explanation. He simply smiled and walked away and the students are still wondering.

This evening the last of the series of parties given by the members of the faculty will take place in the Museum building. Profs. Cummings and Allen will have the affair in charge.

SALT LAKE CITY SCHOOLS.

Salt Lake City.—Supervisor Pollock addresses the city principals and teachers of the sixth and seventh grades on matters relative to the geography work of the fourth and fifth grades.

It has been decided to have no eighth grade exercises at the Theater this year. It will be remembered that a very pretentious program was rendered by the graduates last year; the present classes, however, will make displays in their respective buildings, where they will receive their diplomas. As to the High school graduates, nothing definite has been determined upon. In all probability their exercises will be held in the Theater. The senior and junior classes have their respective programs and are busily engaged in perfecting arrangements for an occasion which promises to eclipse all former attempts by students of the institution.

Third and fourth grade teachers of the Washington have introduced a novel idea in their departments, one calculated to impress their "young ideas" with beautiful thoughts of Eastern mysticism of the children's own make, candy eggs were placed, then the entire collection was given as an Easter gift to the tots of the first grade.

In the annual oratorical contest, which was conducted at the West Side High school, under the auspices of the Sons and Daughters of the Revolution last Wednesday afternoon, the following named students won the medals: Josephine Devereaux and Joseph Hartzlow. Their respective themes were: "The Fallen Heroes" and "A Tribute to Patriotism." Mrs. Miller, representing the D. A. R., and Mr. Fred Hale of the S. A. R., presented the medals.

The Lafayette library has been promised the proceeds of an opera, which will be given in the very near future under the direction of Miss Margaret Whitney, a member of the graduating class of that school.

The cantata under Prof. Wetzel is entitled "The Whole Year Round."

The Washington will give an exhibition of its year's work next Thursday afternoon. Pupils of the school will be in attendance.

Mr. Parratt held a meeting last Thursday for the second grade teachers; Mr. Wetzel, the same date, for those of the fourth grade.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY.

Provo, April 20.—President Smith, Elder John Henry Smith and Sister Susan Y. Ginter were in attendance at the last meeting of the board.

The committee on graduation is busy examining applications which have been submitted.

The woodwork department has never been so large, and has never put out such high grade work as this year. There are 25 more enrolled than there were last year.

There have been made in the department recently two roller-top desks for the White and Blue and the Student body; two large cabinets to be used as shoe cases in the natural science department; a large, handsomely finished table for the reception room; several smaller center tables, etc.

The series of lectures given last week by Mr. Fairbanks were instructive as well as entertaining. The subjects he treated were: Ben Hur, Alaska, and Whitman in the great north-west.

Mrs. Dusenberry will take her kindergarten trainees to Salt Lake Saturday, to a Froebel birthday celebration at the University of Utah, under the direction of Miss May. Some parts of the program will be given by the girls. Misses Webb, Hindley, Darton and Roberts will give four kindergarten songs and Mrs. Dusenberry will conduct the games.

Three dual track meets have been arranged for. The first one with Brigham will come off next Saturday. A week later our school will meet the U. of U. and the Saturday following that, we will "clash arms" with the A. C.

The basketball team and the faculty were banqueted Tuesday afternoon by the domestic science department. The spread was dainty and bounteous, the night and reorganized, with James H. Linford as president; Dr. John A. Whitsoe, vice president; and Joel Ricks, secretary. The society will meet weekly, on Wednesday evenings, and the division of work along the lines of archaeological research that has been planned, will, it is hoped, produce some interesting results.

Miss Lillian Oliver and her piano pupils are arranging to give a recital in the Assembly hall next Thursday evening. The services of Prof. C. M. Harris, violinist, and Miss Carrie Thomas, vocalist, have been secured to assist in the recital.

The Nature Study club met last evening and listened to lectures on "Local Flora" by Prof. Merrill, and on "Local Geology" by Prof. Chamberlain.

Prof. Levi E. Young of the University of Utah, was a visitor on Monday.

Prof. Wolfe's class in geology will take an excursion on the mountains Saturday.

The series of preliminary debates that has been carried on under the auspices of the Webster society during the last few weeks to determine who shall represent the college in the debate with the B. Y. University, was concluded last night, and Parley E. Peterson and Chauncey Loveland were selected as the debaters. In the discussion at Provo our representatives will have the negative of the question, "Resolved, That history has demonstrated the expediency of the fifteenth amendment."

Joseph Hill has been appointed student-manager of track athletics for the debating. They are now preparing for a final debate between members from the different divisions.—Rebecca Gustafson.

The members of the normal training class are making charts on the following subjects: The fur-bearing animals, cotton, lumbering, spices, agriculture and several other subjects. These are to be used in the training school.—Maud Neely.

The charts will illustrate the different processes the raw material goes through before we get the finished products of food, clothing and shelter, and will also show the various steps in lumbering, food products, silks, cotton, furs, etc.—Sara M. Jensen.

The senior class were required to hand in a thesis this week. The original research which this paper made necessary was in some respects new, but the extra effort put forth was fully rewarded by the discovery of material which the writers had not before heard of. These papers were in length from eight to 16 pages of composition paper.—Ray Gledhill.

The commencement issue of the Gold and Blue is now in process of compilation. It will be the souvenir of the senior class, and will contain the representative groups of officers and students, separate pictures of each member of the faculty and of the senior class. Each senior will be represented by some of his literary productions of the past year. The class poem, song, and sentiments will appear in this issue, which gives promise of being the best Gold and Blue ever published.—Charlotte Wetzel.

Joseph Hill has been appointed student-manager of track athletics for the

DON'T'S FOR SPEAKERS AND WRITERS.

(Written for the Saturday News BY EDWARD B. WARMAN, A. M. Author of "Practical Orthodoxy and Critique," "The Voice; How to Train It; How to Care for It," etc.)

(Copyright, 1905, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

Author's Note.—It is one thing to record errors, quite another to avoid them. He who waits for the faultless one to cast the first critical stone waits in vain; therefore, as one of the many working for the betterment of the English language, I shall be pleased to receive kindly criticism, if, perchance, I, too, have erred.

Don't say "social" for "sociable." Example: "I am going to the social." Note.—Social, is not a noun. Sociable, is both a noun and an adjective.

Don't say "some" for "about." Example: "It is some four blocks away." should be "It is about four blocks away."

Don't say "some" for "somewhat." Example: "He is some better" should be "He is somewhat better."

Don't say "somebody else's" for "somebody's." Example: "That is somebody else's book" should be "That is somebody's else book."

Note.—This is merely preference. There is good authority for "somebody else's" but it would be somebody else's authority, not mine. I like Mr. Ayer's defense of the latter. It is better grammar and more euphonious to consider else as being an adjective, and to form the possessive by adding the apostrophe and s to the word that else qualifies.—The Verbalist.

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

DON'T'S FOR SPEAKERS AND WRITERS.

(Written for the Saturday News BY EDWARD B. WARMAN, A. M. Author of "Practical Orthodoxy and Critique," "The Voice; How to Train It; How to Care for It," etc.)

(Copyright, 1905, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

Author's Note.—It is one thing to record errors, quite another to avoid them. He who waits for the faultless one to cast the first critical stone waits in vain; therefore, as one of the many working for the betterment of the English language, I shall be pleased to receive kindly criticism, if, perchance, I, too, have erred.

Don't say "social" for "sociable." Example: "I am going to the social." Note.—Social, is not a noun. Sociable, is both a noun and an adjective.

Don't say "some" for "about." Example: "It is some four blocks away." should be "It is about four blocks away."

Don't say "some" for "somewhat." Example: "He is some better" should be "He is somewhat better."

Don't say "somebody else's" for "somebody's." Example: "That is somebody else's book" should be "That is somebody's else book."

Note.—This is merely preference. There is good authority for "somebody else's" but it would be somebody else's authority, not mine. I like Mr. Ayer's defense of the latter. It is better grammar and more euphonious to consider else as being an adjective, and to form the possessive by adding the apostrophe and s to the word that else qualifies.—The Verbalist.

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

Don't say "some such a" for "some such." Example: "I think it was some such a boy," should be "I think it was some such boy."

WOMEN NOT TRUTHFUL

This Statement Has Been Unjustly Made, Because Modest Women Evade Questions Asked By Male Physicians.

An eminent physician says that "Women are not truthful; they will lie to their physician." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male physician, but this is only in regard to those painful and troublesome disorders peculiar to their sex.

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions when those questions are asked, even by her family physician. This is especially the case with unmarried women.

Is it any wonder, then, that women continue to suffer and that doctors fail to cure female diseases when they cannot get the proper information to work on?

This is the reason why thousands and thousands of women are now corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham. To her they can and do give every symptom, so that she really knows more about the true condition of her patients, through her correspondence with them, than the physician who personally questions them.

If you suffer from any form of trouble peculiar to women, write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.

The fact that this great boon, which is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters received by her prove. Many such grateful letters as the following are constantly pouring in.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands A Woman's Ills.

Mrs. Ella Lee, Frankford, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I want to thank you for what your medicine has done for me."

"Three years ago I had inflammation of the ovaries and uterus for about three months, and the doctor's care for about three months, and the only time I was not in pain was when under the influence of morphine. The doctor finally said I never would be better, and would have to spend the rest of my life in a sanatorium, but one evening I came across one of your advertisements and decided to write you for advice. I did so and commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began to improve at once, and to-day I am a well woman, and I know it is all due to your advice and medicine."

Mrs. J. H. Farmer of 2809 Elliott Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I cannot thank you enough for what your advice and medicines have done for me. They have done me more good than all the doctors I ever had."

"For the last eight years I have suffered with female troubles; was very weak; had nervous prostration, and could not do my work; but I am happy to say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made a different woman of me. I am in perfect health and have gained in weight from 98 pounds to 122 pounds."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record for actual cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Special Correspondence, From Wichita, Kansas.

Mr. Joseph Tack, living at 423 W. 2nd Street, this city, one of the oldest and best known engineers in the State of Kansas, tells an interesting story in which he saved the life of Mary, the beautiful child of section foreman Wade Roy. Mary was sweet company for her mother, and she always ran with smiling and joyful glee to meet her father as he came from work, and her happy disposition banished any cares or worries that he may have had.

For two months little Mary lay at the point of death. The family physician had called in consultation three of the most skilled of his professional brothers. These good doctors did all in their power, with not a spark of improvement in Mary's condition. They lost all hope, and told the mother that her little darling could not live.

The Rescue as Told by the Engineer

A year ago I was troubled so with my stomach I thought I had cancer. One Sunday afternoon I had such pain I could hardly stand it. I was at Wichita, where we had three hours' lay over before going to Salina. I went to Arch McVie's drug store, and asked for a dose of Bromo Soda. He said that would only help for a few minutes and recommended Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for a permanent cure. I bought a bottle and had immediate relief. I took four bottles and am cured entirely.

I have run a locomotive engine for twenty-eight years, twenty-five of that time on passenger, where we only have twenty minutes for meals. That is what ruins railroad men's stomachs; that is why I thought it my duty to tell you about this medicine, so that my brothers could be relieved in case of trouble of this kind.

I have been a B. L. E. for twenty-seven years; run on Mo. P. R. R. twenty years; am known nearly all over Kansas. About a year ago, now, our section foreman, Wade Roy, from Ruella, told me his little girl had cholera infantum, and was given up by three doctors. While I lay at Kiowa I bought a new bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and while sitting in the coach I read a testimonial where children had been cured by taking twenty drops when doctors had given them up, so I poured half of my new bottle in the old one, and when I got back to Ruella, I stopped the engine in front of the section house and gave him the bottle and told him to read the circular and use his own judgment, that the medicine had cured me. Next morning he was at Anthony smiling and said the child was better from the first dose. In two weeks she was up and running around, and a more grateful family was never seen. With best wishes I remain,

JOS. TACK, Engineer Mo. P. R. R., 423 W. 2nd St., Wichita, Kansas.

Kodol

DYSPEPSIA CURE

Digests What You Eat

Relieves instantly and cures permanently Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Weak Stomach, Gas on Stomach, Belching, Puffed Stomach, Catarrh of the Stomach and all Stomach Troubles that are curable.

Prepared at the Laboratory of E. C. Dewitt & Co., Chicago, Ill. U. S. A.

Dollar bottle holds 24 times as much as the 5c. or 50c. size.

Relieves instantly and cures permanently Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Weak Stomach, Gas on Stomach, Belching, Puffed Stomach, Catarrh of the Stomach and all Stomach Troubles that are curable.

Prepared at the Laboratory of E. C. Dewitt & Co., Chicago, Ill. U. S. A.

Relieves instantly and cures permanently Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Weak Stomach, Gas on Stomach, Belching, Puffed Stomach, Catarrh of the Stomach and all Stomach Troubles that are curable.

THE DOLLARS YOU SAVE

In buying "Wellworth $3.50 Shoes" are not saved at the loss of comfort or style; for "Wellworth $3.50 Shoes" for men or women have the style, fit, and character of higher grade models. Made by the hand sewed process with "Rock Oak" double wear soles, uppers of famous guaranteed leathers. Fast color eyelets, never wear brass. Shoes of character, distinctly better in details that excel. Honest all through. They cost us more to make but owing to greater number of pairs we sell, we make up for lessened profits. $3 distinct styles—the new spring models include oxfords or shoes extreme pointed models to conservative styles. We believe "Wellworth" to be the best $3.50 shoe in the world.

Mr. Willard Gardner, a commercial student and one of the leading members of the sophomore class has accepted a position as cashier with the Cache Valley Banking company of Logan.

Prof. Northrop left Wednesday for the state fair at Nephi to start experiments on vegetables and trees, a new department in arid farm work.

The members of the Sorosis club were entertained on the first of April by Miss May Nebeker. The club has recently been photographed by Odell in Dutch and street costume.

No classes were held on Arbor day, but the exercises were in charge of the students. Miss Rudolph gave an address for the seniors. Mr. Willard Gardner, the sophomore, was the speaker for the juniors. Music was furnished by the college choir, aided by Mr. Ballard. After the exercises each class planted a tree on the campus and then the agricultural students played basketball in a ball game, the score standing 8 to 7.

Mr. Nelson, foreman of the college farm, is visiting the dry farm in San Juan county.

Mr. Levi Chubbuck, special inspector of the department of the interior, was a visitor at the college the past week, looking for agricultural graduates to take charge of work on the Indian reservations.

The Agricultural College Woman's club elected officers for next year at its last meeting. Mrs. Willard Langton is the new president. Mrs. Ball, vice president; Miss Wilkinson, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Guy Thatcher, secretary.

L. D. S. UNIVERSITY.

The school took its annual excursion to Saltair on Friday evening. A special train was ordered for that purpose.—Eva Evans.

This week Mr. William Parkinson, one of the business students, took a position as stenographer at the Utah Automobile company.—Eva Evans.

The different sections in the second year English class have been taking part of their oral composition work in