HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE

WE understand that a legal gentleman, in some remarks made by him on Saturday evening at the opening of the Exchange and Reading Rooms, assert ed that he felt pleased to be able to state that he had the honor of assist-ing in the opening of the first Sunday School ever inangurated in Utah. ion that he stated the truth when he made this assertion, and delude himself with the idea that he enjoys the honor of which he speaks-But he is mistaken, as we can easily prove to him at any time when he chooses to call upon us. We do not know the exact date of the gentleman's arrival in this Territory; but we do know that in 1854, we returned to this Territory, after an absence of five years, and Sunday Schools were in operation then; and a young man who is at our elbow while we write, informs us that he attended Sunday School taught by Elder Richard Ballantyne and others in the 14th Ward of this city before even the date we mention. How is it? Was the speaker on Saturday night a resident of this Territory at that time, or had he even thought of coming here then?

CO-OPERATIVE FAMILY HOTEL.

THE Philadelphia Press contains the outline of a plan for the establishment of a Family Hotel, by which citizens can have the convenience of a home without its discomforts. A family hotel, it asserts, can be built to combine completences, comforts, conveniences, and facilities for pleasant, social intercourse and entertainments, and other attractions of a well conducted hotel. with desirable domestic privacy, the before his arrival Cleig was dead. beauty, enjoyment and delights of a beauty, enjoyment and delights of a A small phial was found in the room, separate house, the charm of a home containing morphine, and this was circle. Such a hotel, properly managed, will furnish, the Press thinks, all the necessary accommodations oheaper than they can be obtained through house-keeping. It gives a plan which is devised for the city of Louisville but which it thinks contains many hints of which is thinks contains many hints of value for Philadelphia and other cities. The plan is nothing more nor less than co-operation. > A MOST singular case of self destruction took place a few days since, in Cleveland Ohio. The autocide was an Englishman, forty years of age, named Cleig, a widower, with two children. The aight on which he accomplished his own destruction he invited a number of his countrymen to go with him on a spree; and he and they repaired to an inn, where they got on a big drunk. Champagne and liquor were indulged in to excess, and songs and inbilition were the order of the evening, Cleig being the most merry of the crowd. At the close of the carouse, Cleig took a small bottle from his pocket, containing a white powder, of which he partook and handed round to his friends, and they, not knowing what it contained, partook, when it was returned to him, and he again swallowed more of its contents; then calling for London, 8.—It is hald the French government will endeavor to enlarge the scope of the conference on the Black Ses question, but the stempt is discountenanced by the London and St. Potersourg cabinete on the ground that it would endanger the assemblage by per-emptorally denying men the right of serving as jurors, without show-ing cause of disability. I will now ask: Have packed juries' ever served in the courts of judicature in this Territory, and if so, has the object been to preserve the isws of the land, and the liberties of the people inviolate—or has it rather been to usurp that most odious, that most detestable object: POWER WITHOUT RIGHT?

I think the removal of Chief Justice Crewe, alluded to in my former letter, bears some resemblance to the removal of some of our indges lately, especially to the removal of Chief Justice Wilson, except that the former was sounded by the ernment; whereas the dismissal of the inits stead.
