Railroad Rates to the East Gradually Advancing. CHICAGO, 5. The railroad rates to the east are gradually going up to the prices which prevailed before the Erie and New York Central was made to-day on the through rates, but the general passenger agents decided to advance the rates to intermediate points from $2 to $5. It is anticipated that the passenger rates to New York will soon be advanced to $22.

Capture of an Illitit Still. An illitit still, of about fifty barrels capacity, was discovered by detectives to-day, on Carroll street, near Wood and its proprietors, John D. F. Jones and Alex. J. Jennings, committed in default of bail.

Army Movements. CHEYENNE, Wyo., 5. The court martial for the trial of Col. J. J. Reynolds and Alex. J. Jennings, both of the Third Cavalry, convenes here to-morrow. It consists of Brig. Gen. The temporary headquarters of the Department of the Plate are established here, the troops composing the late Powder River expedition being distributed from this point. The Ninth Infantry goes to the mouth of the Snake river, the Fourth Artillery returns to the Pacific Coast, the Fourth Cavalry to Red Cloud Agency, where Col. Mackenzie will take command.

The department headquarters of the Fourth remain at Fort Russell, and the Third at Fort Laramie.

Investigation of the Great Railroad Accident. ASHTABULA, 5. John P. Manning, manager of the telegraph office at the Lake Shore depot, testified before the coroner's jury, that he had a knowledge of everything which passed over the wires at the time and after the accident happened, and nothing was sent by any official of the road concerning the application of water, or relating to the fire. He did not know of any general order, understanding, or desire existing between the railroad officials to let a wreck burn, or to let a fire where lives had been in danger.

Charles L. Seville, engineer of the steamer Neptune, went to the depot with his engine ready for use. Many persons asked him why he did not use water. He replied that he had orders not to. They said the people were burning, whereupon he set his engine and blew the whistle for hose, but none came, and could find none. He saw bodies burning in the wreck and could have thrown water on them if he had any hose.

W. W. Sissons, night ticket agent at the Lake Shore depot at Ashtabula, knew of no order being received by Strong concerning throwing water, never told anyone such an order was received.

Henry Apocryphus, an employee of the railroad and telegraph company at Ashtabula, testified to giving aid to the sufferers. He did not know of any orders about throwing water on the fire, though he saw the men almost to save the wounded and victims of the terrible wreck.

The Legacies and Sunday Laws. BOSTON, 5. The Supreme Court sustains the lower court in its decision that the legacies are amenable to the State laws regulating the observance of the Sabbath. The case originated in an attempt to keep Sunday.

Appropriation Exhausted. WASHINGTON, 5. The appropriation for the purchase of notes and securities for the present fiscal year is exhausted and unless a deficiency appropriation be made immediately the Government must stop its purchases.

Vanderbilt's Remains. NEW YORK, 5. Commodore Vanderbilt's body will be in state for an hour on Sunday morning in the main hallway of his house. Many New York Central Railroad employees will view the remains, and the church on foot. Rev. Dr. Deems and Rev. Dr. Hutton will perform the burial services, and Dr. Deems will make address.

The corpse of the returning hero, who was killed at the battle of the Little Bighorn, will be taken to the city to-day.

The Investigating Committee. NEW ORLEANS, 5. Before the House committee, to-day, J. E. Harris of Point Coupee parish, a liberal republican, testified that he accompanied Packard into Baton Rouge and Feliciana, and found the negroes were afraid to vote the republican ticket; republicans were being killed.

On cross-examination he said he had seen the preparation of the bodies in the custom-house for the purpose of returning to the States to assist the supervisory thought the natural republican majority in the State was 10,000, and that few negroes voted the democratic ticket freely.

The House subcommittee heard the testimony of E. B. Lockport, the republican candidate for sheriff. He said he was fairly defeated and that the election was peaceable.

Seabury read the affidavit of Captain Theobald and James Logan denying the Eliza Plakston and Cora Williams charges that they took part in the murder of their husbands. They could prove an alibi.

Amadea Delamotte testified in broken English to the organization of bulldozers in East Feliciana for the prevention of hog stealing.

During cross-examination witness became greatly excited, and spoke of the Young gang stealing the votes of "Young's scallawags," but immediately apologized.

At the demand of the chairman for a peremptory answer to the questions witness jumped up and asked the chairman if he wanted to fight?

On cross-examination Rogers said he knew nothing about intimidation except that he saw a party named to the contrary was placed in the Custom House.

Wm. B. McIntire, colored, testified to the same effect.

M. A. Leitch, supervisor of registration, testified that Moore, republican candidate for the Senate, offered him $2,500 to return him elected. Said he had never received the money, but had thrown out some pills because not returned in time, others for informality.

At the evening session Senator Wadleigh's witness testified to a peaceable election in Baton Rouge.

The House committee in the evening heard Col. Zachary in reference to the question of election law and acts of the returning board under it.

At the evening session of the Senate committee, Toney Clark testified that he was recorder of mortgages in East Feliciana. In 1875 was waited on by the committee headed by Dr. Saunders and told that he should not live there; had been charged with being concerned in inviting negroes to arm, but the real cause was his being a republican.

Witness Clark introduced a letter from Col. Hardee, of Clinton, in reply to a question whether he could come back, telling him, "You are as long as you hold office, and you know Grant's bayonets alone keep Kellogg and his crowd in the State."

James Degray, colored, said he had held several offices, but was forced to resign all, and that numerous outrages had been perpetrated on blacks in East Feliciana; did not vote the republican ticket, was afraid to.

Logan Nominated Senator. SPRINGFIELD, 5. John A. Logan was nominated U. S. Senator at the republican caucus to-night.

The Burning Coal Mines. HARRISBURG, Pa., 5. The fire in Lykers Valley and the Short Mountain mines is still raging. The damage is already estimated at $200,000. It is doubtful whether the case the fire should be extinguished that work will be resumed before next summer. Nearly 3,000 men are employed in the several collieries in Lykers Valley, one thousand of whom worked in the burning mines.

WESTERN. SAN FRANCISCO, 5. A San Diego dispatch says the board of trustees met the citizens en masse, last night, to discuss railroad matters. A resolution was adopted endorsing the action of the trustees, which was strict adherence to the direct line, with a demand that the work should begin at this end within six months, thirty miles to be completed the first year and no bonds to be issued for any point without like work on this end.

FOREIGN. TURKEY. INDIGNATION OF THE GREEKS. CONSTANTINOPLE, 5. The Austrians have been becoming more and more incensed against the Russians in consequence of the project of General Ignatieff, the Russian plenipotentiary, of annexing old Serbia to one of the provinces into which Bulgaria, according to the Russian proposals, is to be divided.

News has been received confirming the Greek indignation of the project of the Russian plenipotentiary, which tends to subordinate the Greek population to Slavs. The hope is unanimous that Midhat Pasha will be able to carry out the reforms single-handed.

GREAT BRITAIN. ITEMS CONCERNING THE EASTERN QUESTION. LONDON, 5. The Standard's special London correspondent, after reviewing the proceedings in Thursday's sitting of the conference, expresses the opinion that the danger of a crisis is over. The Paris Morning Post, which is close to the French foreign office, however, publishes the following paragraph: "We regret to state that the disposition of Turkey is not improved in the least by the conference, which has been held at the last of England is ended."

The Standard's Belgrade dispatch says the Serbian government continues to arm and demands that the armistice be abrogated, as Serbia cannot bear the prolonged uncertainty which makes it imperative to keep her people in arms.

The Vienna correspondent of the Standard says there have been several executions in consequence of the gross breaches of discipline and revolutionary meetings.

The Post's telegram from Berlin states that it is affirmed that negotiations will be carried on elsewhere if broken off at Constantinople. It is stated that the Russian plenipotentiary is likely to be permanently withdrawn its ambassador in the event of a failure of the conference.

The Cologne Gazette, the Times Berlin correspondent writes, states that the Emperor William's order against German officers entering the Russian service was issued in consequence of the Czar offering power except to the Russian mobilized army. Gen. Mantouffier, although at first disposed to accept, declined in consequence of the Emperor's prohibition.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times says it is stated that Austria and Germany commenced negotiations upon the expediency of promoting Roumania's desire to have her territory declared independent, and neutralize its neutrality in the possible impending conflict.

Turkey seemed inclined to favor the idea.

The Russian telegraphic agency reports that the plenipotentiaries remain united, and are resolved to urge on Turkey the unanimous decision of Europe.

The Times prints prominently a Berlin dispatch for a reiteration of the statement that there will be no absolute rupture between the European powers and Turkey. If the latter does not yield the ambassadors will depart leaving Charges d'Affaires to transact the current business and continue negotiations.

The Paris correspondent of the Times communicates further details of Thursday's sitting of the conference. He states that the plenipotentiaries submitted to the Porte a programme substituting the consular commission for the executive commission at first proposed. He states that the Bulgarians volunteered to be incorporated in caedra recruited in neutral territory for what was originally the foreign occupation scheme.

Delegates were greatly surprised by Saeft Pasha reading a declaration in which the Porte deemed itself obliged to reject their proposals because they were contrary to the principles of Ottoman independence, and to the new constitution. Europeans warned the Porte of the danger it ran in thus defying Europe, as Russia had made preparations which compelled her to go to war unless she obtained adequate satisfaction, and the Powers were agreed that peremptory refusal was the most dangerous affront the Porte could offer Europe. Saeft said the Porte showed its desire for an understanding and its deference toward Europe, accepted the Bulgarian volunteer project, believing it thus satisfied all the legitimate and even the most exaggerated susceptibilities. The conference, after this unexpected and insufficient conclusion, adjourned until Monday, in the hope, mean while, of effecting a compromise on other points. It is said Saeft Pasha will, meanwhile, be appointed Turkish foreign minister, which would indicate a favorable change of policy.

The Times' Paris correspondent, continuing the same telegram, quotes a letter written by one of the most eminent members of the conference to show that the complete change in the attitude of the Porte, by which it now proposes terms to Europe instead of vice versa, is due to the fact, of which the Turks are fully aware, that Russian armaments are completely broken down, and that none of the other European powers are prepared to exert anything but moral pressure.

WALLACHIA. Shall Remain Intact. BUCHAREST, 5. The Roumanian Senate adopted a resolution declaring that the rights of Roumania shall remain intact, and calling upon the Government to maintain them in a manner worthy of the State.

Hunting Crossing Places. The Russian officers are reconnoitering the lower Danube, to find crossing places, and ships are being contracted for to aid in crossing.

GERMANY. Specie Decrease. BERLIN, 5. Specie in the Imperial Bank of Germany decreased ten and a half million marks during the past week.

Consumption can be Cured. Standard Steam Laundry Office, Cleveland, O., Oct. 30, 1876. DR. FRAZIER, Dear Sir: I feel it a duty I owe to suffering humanity to write you, stating the wonderful benefit I have derived from the use of your Life Saver and Strengthening Root Bitters. For some time I was sorely afflicted with a cough, raising bad stuff, with every symptom of being a consumptive. I tried many different medicines and cures, without finding relief; I also consulted three of our most prominent Cleveland physicians, the last one of which pronounced me a consumptive, and informed me I could not live more than a few months. About this time, hearing of your wonderful success, I commenced taking your Life Saver, and in connection with your Root Bitters, and at once was benefited, and after using the medicine some two months, I find myself entirely cured. If this statement of my case can be of any service to you, in bringing your medicines to the notice of the suffering, my object in writing this note will be attained, for I firmly believe my life has been saved by your treatment.

Signed, TORRENCE DUNK. Sold by all druggists everywhere. Dr. G. W. Frazier, proprietor, Cleveland, Ohio. Circulars mailed free.
