

SOCIAL CHAT

the club house) Mrs. C. H. Bisselhead gave the music on "Early Christian Architecture."

The Misses Hattie Crabb and Cleo's White entertained at a parish shower in honor of Miss Sarah Cameron last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Frank N. Campbell and Mabel Denkin gave a kitchen party for Miss Sarah Cameron in one of the September suites last Thursday evening at the home of the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dickinson announced the engagement of their daughter, Eliza, to A. M. Fadill, the wedding to take place soon.

Mer. William Reid entertained the Sewing Club Friday at a quiting party.

Mr. John C. Curtis, Jr., will entertain for sewing club next Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Miss Ethel Lambourn entertained at a small dinner Thursday evening for Mrs. Fred Lambourn. The room was decorated in pink and white roses and sweet pea. Fourteen guests were present.

Miss Eddie Thomas entertained the Cup and Saucer club at her home on B street yesterday.

Mrs. J. J. Dwyer, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at 621 Kensington at 67 street.

Miss Blanch Young, a daughter of Isaac Young and Harold R. Hagan, formerly of Phoenix, was married Wednesday morning by the Very Rev. Father Kelly at the Papal residence, South Temple street. Mr. and Mrs. Hagan will be at home after Sept. 15 at 22 Snow avenue.

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Smith Wednesday evening, when their only daughter, Anna, was married to Ray E. Murray. The bride was a young girl, dressed in white satin and tulle, with a sheer bouquet of tulips. Mr. and Mrs. Murray will be at home after Sept. 25 at 561 Philo avenue.

Another wedding of Thursday was that of Miss Leona Pratt to Robert Murray, who were married at the Methodist church at the home of Mr. C. D. Wren, the bridegroom, at Lincoln avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Murray will live in Phoenix, Colo.

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Smith Wednesday evening, when their only daughter, Anna, was married to Ray E. Murray. The bride was a young girl, dressed in white satin and tulle, with a sheer bouquet of tulips. Mr. and Mrs. Murray will be at home after Sept. 25 at 561 Philo avenue.

Several Salt Lakeites will go to Logan today to attend the wedding of Miss Eva Ellison and C. Clyde Squires, which takes place on Wednesday next. Among the party will be Mrs. Ella Squires, Mrs. M. A. Squires, Dr. Almon Squires, and Miss Nan Clawson.

Among the affairs of the week given for Miss Florence Madson was a luncheon given by her brother, H. H. Madson, last Monday, covers being laid for 16. The house was prettily decorated in the wedding colors, pink and green. Pink and green satin ribbons, pink roses and sunflowers were used with great effect on the tables, the place cards being heart-shaped and stamped with the monogram of the bride and groom.

Miss Ethel Armstrong and Isaac H. Barton were married on Wednesday in the temple, and in the evening a large reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emily Armstrong, on East First South street. The house was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and a stringed orchestra played. The bride wore a beautiful chiffon gown over taffeta made up in princess. Mrs. Armstrong was assisted in dressing by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Barton, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bunnell, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Armstrong and Mrs. William Bean. About 150 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Barton left Wednesday morning for the east, where they will visit all the principal cities, after which they will be at home at 31 Seventh East street. The bride wore an elegant going away gown of grey silk voile, with velvet hat to match.

Clyde Squires was honored guest at a delightful musical given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sadler, by Walter Smith, on Tuesday evening. About 20 were present.

Carols have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. McFie announcing the birth of their daughter, La Verne, to the Rev. George S. A. Hanson of St. Mark's performing the ceremony. Only the immediate family were present. The house was prettily decorated in green and white and the bride and groom left on the evening train for Ely, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Dwyer, Jr., entertained at dinner followed by a musical, on Wednesday evening, for Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Dwyer, who were soon for Ocean Park, where they will reside for some years.

The Art section of the Ladies' Literary club held the first meeting of the year at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at pink and white sweet peas. The house was beautifully decorated in pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Turk will live in Pocatello, where the groom is in business.

A pretty party for Miss Ethel Rogers who was married last Thursday, was given on Monday by Miss Vida Fox. Sweet peas were used for decorating a low two-story bow of the flowers containing 100 doves forming a picture. Other emblem typical of Labor day were on the hand painted cards. Pink and white satin ribbons stretched from the chandelier to the four corners of the tables. Sixteen were present.

Tuesday evening a fine musical was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McCrea for Miss Blanche Kimball and Karl Schiedt. The house was brilliantly decorated in reds and yellows with shaded lights and pleasant musical program was rendered by several well-known local artists, including Mr. Schiedt.

Wednesday morning for Miss Sarah Cameron, one of the September suites, last Thursday evening at the home of the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dickinson announced the engagement of their daughter, Eliza, to A. M. Fadill, the wedding to take place soon.

Mer. William Reid entertained the Sewing Club Friday at a quiting party.

Mr. John C. Curtis, Jr., will entertain for sewing club next Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Miss Ethel Lambourn entertained at a small dinner Thursday evening for Mrs. Fred Lambourn. The room was decorated in pink and white roses and sweet pea. Fourteen guests were present.

Miss Eddie Thomas entertained the Cup and Saucer club at her home on B street yesterday.

Mrs. J. J. Dwyer, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at 621 Kensington at 67 street.

Miss Blanch Young, a daughter of Isaac Young and Harold R. Hagan, formerly of Phoenix, was married Wednesday morning by the Very Rev. Father Kelly at the Papal residence, South Temple street. Mr. and Mrs. Hagan will be at home after Sept. 15 at 22 Snow avenue.

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Smith Wednesday evening, when their only daughter, Anna, was married to Ray E. Murray. The bride was a young girl, dressed in white satin and tulle, with a sheer bouquet of tulips. Mr. and Mrs. Murray will be at home after Sept. 25 at 561 Philo avenue.

Several Salt Lakeites will go to Logan today to attend the wedding of Miss Eva Ellison and C. Clyde Squires, which takes place on Wednesday next. Among the party will be Mrs. Ella Squires, Mrs. M. A. Squires, Dr. Almon Squires, and Miss Nan Clawson.

Among the affairs of the week given for Miss Florence Madson was a luncheon given by her brother, H. H. Madson, last Monday, covers being laid for 16. The house was prettily decorated in the wedding colors, pink and green. Pink and green satin ribbons, pink roses and sunflowers were used with great effect on the tables, the place cards being heart-shaped and stamped with the monogram of the bride and groom.

Miss Ethel Armstrong and Isaac H. Barton were married on Wednesday in the temple, and in the evening a large reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emily Armstrong, on East First South street. The house was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and a stringed orchestra played. The bride wore a beautiful chiffon gown over taffeta made up in princess. Mrs. Armstrong was assisted in dressing by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Barton, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bunnell, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Armstrong and Mrs. William Bean. About 150 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Barton left Wednesday morning for the east, where they will visit all the principal cities, after which they will be at home at 31 Seventh East street. The bride wore an elegant going away gown of grey silk voile, with velvet hat to match.

Clyde Squires was honored guest at a delightful musical given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sadler, by Walter Smith, on Tuesday evening. About 20 were present.

Carols have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. McFie announcing the birth of their daughter, La Verne, to the Rev. George S. A. Hanson of St. Mark's performing the ceremony. Only the immediate family were present. The house was prettily decorated in green and white and the bride and groom left on the evening train for Ely, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Dwyer, Jr., entertained at dinner followed by a musical, on Wednesday evening, for Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Dwyer, who were soon for Ocean Park, where they will reside for some years.

The Art section of the Ladies' Literary club held the first meeting of the year at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at pink and white sweet peas. The house was beautifully decorated in pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Turk will live in Pocatello, where the groom is in business.

A pretty party for Miss Ethel Rogers who was married last Thursday, was given on Monday by Miss Vida Fox. Sweet peas were used for decorating a low two-story bow of the flowers containing 100 doves forming a picture. Other emblem typical of Labor day were on the hand painted cards. Pink and white satin ribbons stretched from the chandelier to the four corners of the tables. Sixteen were present.

Tuesday evening a fine musical was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McCrea for Miss Blanche Kimball and Karl Schiedt. The house was brilliantly decorated in reds and yellows with shaded lights and pleasant musical program was rendered by several well-known local artists, including Mr. Schiedt.

Wednesday morning for Miss Sarah Cameron, one of the September suites, last Thursday evening at the home of the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dickinson announced the engagement of their daughter, Eliza, to A. M. Fadill, the wedding to take place soon.

Mer. William Reid entertained the Sewing Club Friday at a quiting party.

Mr. John C. Curtis, Jr., will entertain for sewing club next Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Miss Ethel Lambourn entertained at a small dinner Thursday evening for Mrs. Fred Lambourn. The room was decorated in pink and white roses and sweet pea. Fourteen guests were present.

Miss Eddie Thomas entertained the Cup and Saucer club at her home on B street yesterday.

Mrs. J. J. Dwyer, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at 621 Kensington at 67 street.

Miss Blanch Young, a daughter of Isaac Young and Harold R. Hagan, formerly of Phoenix, was married Wednesday morning by the Very Rev. Father Kelly at the Papal residence, South Temple street. Mr. and Mrs. Hagan will be at home after Sept. 15 at 22 Snow avenue.

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Smith Wednesday evening, when their only daughter, Anna, was married to Ray E. Murray. The bride was a young girl, dressed in white satin and tulle, with a sheer bouquet of tulips. Mr. and Mrs. Murray will be at home after Sept. 25 at 561 Philo avenue.

Several Salt Lakeites will go to Logan today to attend the wedding of Miss Eva Ellison and C. Clyde Squires, which takes place on Wednesday next. Among the party will be Mrs. Ella Squires, Mrs. M. A. Squires, Dr. Almon Squires, and Miss Nan Clawson.

Among the affairs of the week given for Miss Florence Madson was a luncheon given by her brother, H. H. Madson, last Monday, covers being laid for 16. The house was prettily decorated in the wedding colors, pink and green. Pink and green satin ribbons, pink roses and sunflowers were used with great effect on the tables, the place cards being heart-shaped and stamped with the monogram of the bride and groom.

Miss Ethel Armstrong and Isaac H. Barton were married on Wednesday in the temple, and in the evening a large reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emily Armstrong, on East First South street. The house was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and a stringed orchestra played. The bride wore a beautiful chiffon gown over taffeta made up in princess. Mrs. Armstrong was assisted in dressing by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Barton, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bunnell, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Armstrong and Mrs. William Bean. About 150 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Barton left Wednesday morning for the east, where they will visit all the principal cities, after which they will be at home at 31 Seventh East street. The bride wore an elegant going away gown of grey silk voile, with velvet hat to match.

Clyde Squires was honored guest at a delightful musical given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sadler, by Walter Smith, on Tuesday evening. About 20 were present.

Carols have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. McFie announcing the birth of their daughter, La Verne, to the Rev. George S. A. Hanson of St. Mark's performing the ceremony. Only the immediate family were present. The house was prettily decorated in green and white and the bride and groom left on the evening train for Ely, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Dwyer, Jr., entertained at dinner followed by a musical, on Wednesday evening, for Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Dwyer, who were soon for Ocean Park, where they will reside for some years.

The Art section of the Ladies' Literary club held the first meeting of the year at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at pink and white sweet peas. The house was beautifully decorated in pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Turk will live in Pocatello, where the groom is in business.

A pretty party for Miss Ethel Rogers who was married last Thursday, was given on Monday by Miss Vida Fox. Sweet peas were used for decorating a low two-story bow of the flowers containing 100 doves forming a picture. Other emblem typical of Labor day were on the hand painted cards. Pink and white satin ribbons stretched from the chandelier to the four corners of the tables. Sixteen were present.

Tuesday evening a fine musical was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McCrea for Miss Blanche Kimball and Karl Schiedt. The house was brilliantly decorated in reds and yellows with shaded lights and pleasant musical program was rendered by several well-known local artists, including Mr. Schiedt.

Wednesday morning for Miss Sarah Cameron, one of the September suites, last Thursday evening at the home of the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dickinson announced the engagement of their daughter, Eliza, to A. M. Fadill, the wedding to take place soon.

Mer. William Reid entertained the Sewing Club Friday at a quiting party.

Mr. John C. Curtis, Jr., will entertain for sewing club next Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Miss Ethel Lambourn entertained at a small dinner Thursday evening for Mrs. Fred Lambourn. The room was decorated in pink and white roses and sweet pea. Fourteen guests were present.

Miss Eddie Thomas entertained the Cup and Saucer club at her home on B street yesterday.

Mrs. J. J. Dwyer, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at 621 Kensington at 67 street.

Miss Blanch Young, a daughter of Isaac Young and Harold R. Hagan, formerly of Phoenix, was married Wednesday morning by the Very Rev. Father Kelly at the Papal residence, South Temple street. Mr. and Mrs. Hagan will be at home after Sept. 15 at 22 Snow avenue.

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Smith Wednesday evening, when their only daughter, Anna, was married to Ray E. Murray. The bride was a young girl, dressed in white satin and tulle, with a sheer bouquet of tulips. Mr. and Mrs. Murray will be at home after Sept. 25 at 561 Philo avenue.

Several Salt Lakeites will go to Logan today to attend the wedding of Miss Eva Ellison and C. Clyde Squires, which takes place on Wednesday next. Among the party will be Mrs. Ella Squires, Mrs. M. A. Squires, Dr. Almon Squires, and Miss Nan Clawson.

Among the affairs of the week given for Miss Florence Madson was a luncheon given by her brother, H. H. Madson, last Monday, covers being laid for 16. The house was prettily decorated in the wedding colors, pink and green. Pink and green satin ribbons, pink roses and sunflowers were used with great effect on the tables, the place cards being heart-shaped and stamped with the monogram of the bride and groom.

Miss Ethel Armstrong and Isaac H. Barton were married on Wednesday in the temple, and in the evening a large reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emily Armstrong, on East First South street. The house was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and a stringed orchestra played. The bride wore a beautiful chiffon gown over taffeta made up in princess. Mrs. Armstrong was assisted in dressing by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Barton, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bunnell, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Armstrong and Mrs. William Bean. About 150 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Barton left Wednesday morning for the east, where they will visit all the principal cities, after which they will be at home at 31 Seventh East street. The bride wore an elegant going away gown of grey silk voile, with velvet hat to match.

Clyde Squires was honored guest at a delightful musical given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sadler, by Walter Smith, on Tuesday evening. About 20 were present.

Carols have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. McFie announcing the birth of their daughter, La Verne, to the Rev. George S. A. Hanson of St. Mark's performing the ceremony. Only the immediate family were present. The house was prettily decorated in green and white and the bride and groom left on the evening train for Ely, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Dwyer, Jr., entertained at dinner followed by a musical, on Wednesday evening, for Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Dwyer, who were soon for Ocean Park, where they will reside for some years.

The Art section of the Ladies' Literary club held the first meeting of the year at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at pink and white sweet peas. The house was beautifully decorated in pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Turk will live in Pocatello, where the groom is in business.

A pretty party for Miss Ethel Rogers who was married last Thursday, was given on Monday by Miss Vida Fox. Sweet peas were used for decorating a low two-story bow of the flowers containing 100 doves forming a picture. Other emblem typical of Labor day were on the hand painted cards. Pink and white satin ribbons stretched from the chandelier to the four corners of the tables. Sixteen were present.

Tuesday evening a fine musical was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McCrea for Miss Blanche Kimball and Karl Schiedt. The house was brilliantly decorated in reds and yellows with shaded lights and pleasant musical program was rendered by several well-known local artists, including Mr. Schiedt.

Wednesday morning for Miss Sarah Cameron, one of the September suites, last Thursday evening at the home of the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dickinson announced the engagement of their daughter, Eliza, to A. M. Fadill, the wedding to take place soon.

Mer. William Reid entertained the Sewing Club Friday at a quiting party.

Mr. John C. Curtis, Jr., will entertain for sewing club next Tuesday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Miss Ethel Lambourn entertained at a small dinner Thursday evening for Mrs. Fred Lambourn. The room was decorated in pink and white roses and sweet pea. Fourteen guests were present.

Miss Eddie Thomas entertained the Cup and Saucer club at her home on B street yesterday.

Mrs. J. J. Dwyer, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at 62