

ELECTION WEATHER.

It is Going to Be a Fine Day for the State Election.

WEATHER PROPHET SAYS SO.

It was the storm will clear up this evening or tonight—chance for a heavy vote.

Others are the man who is responsible for this weather?

That was a query addressed to Observer Smith with a determination to find out where this storm is coming from and how long it is going to stay.

At 11:30 today the barometer was slowly falling and indicated a cessation of settling up with a short time.

The storm came from the northwest, the same from which the wind the past few days.

As looking at the hour named, and the velocity was three miles an hour.

At 1:30 p.m. all indications that the storm is clearing up.

At 2:30 p.m. the wind cleared up and the weather prophet.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, Nov. 4, 1896.

First District Court. A short session of the First District court was held this morning and the following cases were decided:

In the case of Phillip H. Beahart vs. David McCann, time to prepare and serve statement on defendant's motion for a new trial was granted and continued to Nov. 23.

Doctor John A. Cooper of American Fork, a son of Dr. England, was admitted to citizenship.

Mrs. Mendenhall, of Springville, this morning filed papers in a case against Register Clancy, of Springville, asking the court to issue an order prohibiting the registrar from striking his name from the registration list.

The case will be argued this afternoon. Mr. McCann came to Springville fifteen months ago from Just county to attend the Hangerford school and thence to the mine in order to make Springville his permanent place of residence. The registrar denied, however, that he was not qualified to register land and provided an intention to strike the name from the registration list.
