We have our headquarters in this alace at brother G. W. Riggs. He is a mod man, and I pray the Lord to less him and family for all the good they do to the elders that are sent here on missions. We have held shout fourteen meetings during the two months I have been here, of which we held the most in the chool house. We have had a good turnout and no disturbance. We have also visited a good many people in their private houses and talked with them on the principles of the Gospel. I think, in some places the hard feeling that was held they can, and I hope they will some time understand the Gospel and obey | who are in need of medical advice. the same.
