Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Miss Ethel Quinn and Charles F. Neesen will be married in St. Mark's cathedral on Wednesday next.

General Supt. F. C. Gentsch of the Pacific Express company, is in the city visiting with his son Theodore Gentsch. Supt. Gentsch was formerly a local official and resident of Salt Lake. He has many friends here.

James W. Inday of New Harmony, Washington county, has filed application with the state engineer for one-third second foot of water from Mountain Meadow creek, Washington county, for purposes of irrigation.

The state hatchery has been cleaned out of fry, and fish commission hatchery is restocking the hatchery with eggs from local ponds, and has also ordered half a million from the Plymouth Rock fish agency at Plymouth, Mass.

Contractor William Showell is completing the wreckage of the premises at the southeast corner of Floral avenue and Second South street, where a Colorado investor named Aaron is intending to build a $30,000 structure for business purposes.

Manager G. A. Quigley of the Studebaker company is just back from an Idaho business trip. He is more enthusiastic than ever as to the future of that state, and thinks it is destined to become one of the greatest commonwealths in the Union.

Charles S. Wilkes, formerly manager of a Salt Lake automobile company, who has been in Tonopah for several months running a line of autos from that place, and thinks it is destined to become one of the greatest commonwealths in the Union.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Fenton have returned from their trip through the northwest, which extended to Victoria. Mr. Fenton expresses himself as much pleased with the trip, and was gratified to see the state, and that they had evidence of so much prosperity. Mrs. Fenton returns with her health much improved.

President J. E. Cosgriff of the Commercial National bank returned home yesterday from a Chicago trip. He confirms the report that the busy time prevailing down east, and says the only drawback visible there is the tightness in the foreign money market caused by the placing of Russian and Japanese loans.

Deputy Marshal H. S. Page and Charles Snell, a guard, returned yesterday from Portland, where they went with Savage, the colored convict, who is to answer charges there of having robbed the mails. Savage has just served a term in the Utah state prison for a similar offense, and is finding that wrong doing in general, and mail robbery in particular, do not pay. It was feared that Savage would give the officers trouble, but after they had put on Oregon boots on him, weighing 30 pounds, Savage made up his mind it was no use, and gave no trouble.

E. B. Wicks, the real estate man, has returned to Salt Lake after a pleasant trip as far east as New York. He says the rush of business is so great down east that the railroads are very hard put to it, and rolling stock that ought to be sent to the scrap heap and crushed in the eastern commercial world.

LAST BODY RECOVERED.

Remains of C. L. Johnson Taken From Highland Bay Cave-in.

The fifth of the five miners who were crushed on Oct. 21 last by a cave-in at the Highland Bay mine, was recovered Saturday night, by the rescuers. It was C. L. Johnson, a single man aged 45. The body was in a fair state of preservation, with the features but little disfigured; but the thoracic cavity was entirely crushed in by the weight of the rock and soil resting on the body. The internment occurred Monday morning at Bingham. Two of the five are buried at Highland Bay in this city.

TITLE NOT CLEAR.

Unsatisfied Judgments Block County's Recent Real Estate Deal.

Two important discoveries were made yesterday in connection with the title to the 320 rods of ground west of the county jail which was recently sold by the county to S. C. Wing. When the latter secured an abstract of title to the lot he found that there were two judgments against the county in connection with the city and county building furniture, neither of which has been cancelled. One is for $24,500 in favor of the National Bank of Hartford and assigned to the Deseret National bank, and the other is for $14,018.88 in favor of D. D. Erwin and assigned to the Zion's Savings Bank and Trust company. Both appear on the records of the Federal court unsatisfied. Chairman Wilson of the board of county commissioners, states that there must have been an oversight somewhere as the judgments should have been cancelled. He will investigate the matter at once.

Croup. A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears. There is no danger in giving it, and it is safe for infants. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. For sale by all druggists.

HANDSOME GIFT.

Daughters of Revolution to Present Granite Fountain to the City.

The $650 granite fountain designed by W. M. Allen of Park City, to be presented to the city of Salt Lake by the Daughters of the American Revolution, was received yesterday afternoon, from Vermont. It is to be placed between the curb and sidewalk in front of the new public library. The design is colonial, with columns and capitals, and stands 6 1/2 feet high. The side of the fountain facing the library bears a large emblem of the Daughters of the American Revolution, a spinning wheel and distaff. On either side, north and south, is a drinking fountain for the public, while on the side facing the street is a fountain close to the street where dogs may quench their thirst. The matter of formal presentation and program accompanying will be discussed next Thursday by the D. A. R. at the residence of Mrs. Lee Charles Mills.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm. There is no danger from blood poisoning resulting from a cut or wound of any kind, when Chamberlain's Pain Balm is used. It is an antiseptic dressing and should be in every household. For sale by all druggists.

This Day In History.

Nov. 7th.

1811—Battle of Tippecanoe; Joseph Hamilton Davis a noted Kentuckian, killed in the action.

1861—Battle of Belmont, Mo. Grant's first important engagement with Confederates. Belmont was severely criticised as a useless battle. Grant defended it as necessary in order to protect a force of 3,000 Federals, under Col. Oglesby, who had penetrated the interior of Missouri and were threatened by Confederates at Columbus, opposite Belmont.

1873—The Virginian massacre; 53 of the crew of Albatross captured on Oct. 11, shot by the Spanish authorities at Santiago.

1861—Earl Li Hung Chang, the former statesman in China, died at Peking, born 1823.

A DISCUSSION.

"Blood Atonement and the Original of Plural Marriages."

A pamphlet containing over a hundred pages, has just been issued. This brochure contains a discussion on the questions quoted, between Elder Joseph F. Smith, Jr., and Mr. Richard C. Evans, the latter gentleman being second counselor to the president of the "Reorganizers." The questions are entered into exhaustively by both sides, and a great deal of valuable information is given. Elder Joseph F. Smith, Jr., shows by historical data and incontrovertible facts, that the position of his opponent is untenable. Post paid to any address, 25c. DESERET NEWS BOOK STORE, 6 Main St.
