

orations of the table, the hostess was presented with a pair of pretty embroidered aprons. After an impromptu musical by the guests, the society adjourned to meet in two weeks at the home of Miss Annie Parsons.

Mrs. A. G. Glaucus and daughter, Caroline, left for Provo on Thursday afternoon last, where they will spend the next 10 days with Bishop Ralph Poulton of the Sixth ward.

Mrs. A. E. Poulton is visiting her friends at Plain City.

Miss Joan Wood returned from her visit to Park City the early part of this week and is now back to school at the L. D. S. U.

Mrs. Clifford Pearsall and Mrs. Charles S. Post were hostesses at the Country club today.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury entertained at an informal evening party on Monday for her sons James and Walker Salisbury, who leave shortly for the east.

Mrs. W. E. Jacobs was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Thursday given in honor of Mrs. Judge of Tennessee and Mrs. Gage of Belvidere, Ill. The dining room was done in dainty blue and white, asters being the flowers used, and nasturtians and sunflowers were the decorations used in the library and hall. Present besides the guests of honor were Mrs. Harkness, Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. William Nelson, Mrs. Simmons and Mrs. Sevin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. Evans entertained informally last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carpenter, who will leave shortly to make their home in New York. A large number of their old friends were present to say good by, and the evening was one to be long and pleasantly remembered.

A notably pretty event of the week

One of the most elaborate events of the week was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Forbes at their home in honor of Miss Irene Dickson and Mr. Russell Schuler. The table was beautifully decorated in yellow, the centerpiece being a cut glass bowl filled with golden glow, and candelabra with yellow shades, and place cards done in yellow carrying out the idea. The guests were Miss Dickson,

TWO VEILS IN NEW DRAPE.

These are both white veils. The face veil is of sheer net with white spots; the draped veil is of white washable chiffon with black worked dots, and edged with narrow black ribbon; It falls low over the back like a short mourning veil.

Mr. Schuler, Miss Creary, Miss Sappington, Mrs. McCullough, Mr. Officer and Mr. R. R. Schuler, Jr.

Miss Jasmine Young entertained informally in honor of Miss Kirkpatrick on Wednesday evening.

Miss Donnellan entertained at a delightful luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Thompson of Helena, Mont., who is a guest of Mrs. Salisbury. The table was prettily decorated with pink asters, and covers were laid for 18. A putting contest was afterwards enjoyed, the prize being won by Miss Blanche Burke.

Miss Catherine McKarrick entertained at an enjoyable evening party at her home on Thursday, a number of her friends participating in the pleasant event.

Miss Vivian Little and Miss Chetchev Wells were hostesses at a delightful afternoon party on Thursday, about 30 of their friends being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sunflowers, and the sunflower figured in the details throughout. A novel and entertaining feature was a musical guessing game, Mr. Beeley playing a number of popular airs and the prize for naming the most of them being won by Miss Pearl Welser.

Mrs. John T. Donnellan and Mrs. J. S. Meyers gave an enjoyable picnic party on Wednesday for their Sunday class of St. Paul's church. The scene of the affair was Liberty Park, and about 20 guests were present.

Miss Catherine Creary gave a delightful lake party on Thursday evening in honor of her guests, Mrs. Whitman and Miss Orr, of Fort Russell.

Mrs. Le Grand Young entertained informally at luncheon on Tuesday in honor of the visiting railroad officials who were here during the earlier part of the week.

On Monday afternoon Miss Loren Leary entertained at a pleasant Kensington, a novel feature of the affair being the presence of a number of their boy friends who came prepared with work bags, and enjoyed the unique task of watching the needle in superlative degree. The room was decorated with flowers, and refreshments were served.

The M. M. S. O. U. spent a very delightful afternoon at the home of Miss Tillie Thomas on Thursday. After a merry hour with thimbles and embroidery the members of the society and the guests of honor, Miss Maude Zeimer from Ogden, repaired to the dining room, where they partook of a dainty luncheon. The colors of the society, pink and white, were used in the dec-

"Baskets bright of wreathed silver"

—Keats
A subtly harmonious phrase suggesting some creations of though an unfailing beauty of adaptability to purpose is to be found in the simpler articles of household use produced by the Gorham Co. In these the same thoughtful design, the same admirable workmanship is evident as in the most elaborate "baskets of wreathed silver."

Gorham Silver

All responsible jewelers keep Gorham Silverware moved to 237 B street, where they will shortly be at home to their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Steiner have moved to 30 south Third East street, where they are at home to their friends.

Announcement was made during the week of the marriage of Miss Jennie Ryder, daughter of Judge Ryder of Mill Creek, and Chas. H. Townsend of this city, the event having taken place some time ago. Mr. and Mrs. Townsend are at home to their friends at 189 C street.

The wedding of John E. Miller, son of Mrs. Rachel Miller of this city, and Miss Harriet Merchant of Troy, N. Y., will take place at Trail, B. C., early in October, the latter city being the present home of the prospective groom.

One of the brilliant weddings of the autumn will be that of Miss Irene Dickson and Russell G. Schuler on Sept. 23. The ceremony will be performed at St. Mark's cathedral and will be followed by a large reception at the Knutsford, about 400 guests being invited.

On Wednesday Miss Lucy A. Fisher and J. Lewis Brenne of Mill Creek were married in the Temple, and a reception followed in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Brenne, and is a popular teacher in the schools at Murray.

On Sept. 12 Miss Margaret Swift and Mr. S. A. McCurdy will be married at St. Paul's church, the wedding to take place at 5 o'clock p. m., and the young couple to leave afterward for a trip to California.

NEW DOUBLE-BREADED COAT.

This costume is made of black medium-weight cloth. The skirt is in nine breadths, each set on with a fold and trimmed with black mohair braid; three rows of this are set on the hem. The coat is fitted with double-breasted front, deep cape, and fitted three-quarter skirt. The V-shaped throat is trimmed in round effect, the deep cape has seven points, the cuffs have two points. All these are trimmed with flat bands of embroidery and braid. Hat of silk braid and velvet.

The wedding of Miss Minnie James and Lafayette H. Whitney will take place on Sept. 17, the ceremony to be solemnized in the Temple during the day, and a reception to be given in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will James.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Squires announce the engagement of their daughter Irene to Royal Williams, the wedding to take place on Tuesday, Sept. 15.

Mrs. C. A. Tripp and her two sons left yesterday for California to spend the winter.

Dr. E. W. Whitney has returned from a three weeks' visit in San Francisco.

Mrs. E. W. Wilson and son, Russell, have returned from a pleasant visit in Mercur, where they were the guests of Mrs. Wilson's brother, Charles Joy.

Rev. John Hyslop left yesterday for his home in Tiffin, O., after a month's visit with Salt Lake relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. J. Judson and son, Lyman, returned yesterday from the Thousand Lakes and points of interest in New York, where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Carrie Harrison has returned from Chicago, where she has been attending the art institute during the summer.

Mrs. Walter Jennings and children have returned from Wasatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lynn are expected shortly from Fairhaven, Wash., where they have been visiting Mrs. Lynn's parents Mr. and Mrs. Culmer.

Miss Elizabeth Fitzgerald, who has spent the summer at Kimberly will return Saturday and will be at home with Mrs. W. R. Warren at 174 L street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Gates left the early part of this week to make their home at Long Beach, Cal. They have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Marshall during the past week.

Miss Beadie Officer has gone to California to resume her studies at Leland Stanford university.

Mrs. William M. O'Brien and children are enjoying a two weeks' visit at Colorado Springs.

Miss Laura Sherman has returned from Seattle, where she has been visiting for the past month.

Mrs. Joel L. Priest and the children are home from Nebraska, where they have been visiting with Mrs. Priest's parents during the summer.

Mrs. George K. Smith and children will return this week from Montreal, where they have been visiting for several weeks.

Miss Mary Olive Gray has returned from her summer vacation in Colorado, and will resume her pianoforte work at Gordon academy.

Mrs. Ellen Elliott has returned from a two weeks' outing at Castilla Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Neill have returned from their eastern visit. Miss Neill is still in Colorado, where she will remain for several weeks.

Mrs. Walter Lewis of Butte is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. S. Walker at Walker's farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McDonald, who

It cures babies and grown folks of all skin eruptions.
It cures dandruff.
It stops the hair from falling out.
It makes the hair grow.
It is the best shampoo made.
It is ideal for shaving.
It gives the glow of youth to sallow and dull complexions.
It is more soothing than cold cream; more beautiful than any lotion or cosmetic.
It is the best toilet soap made.

have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Andrews, left this week for the east.

Miss Florence Kimball leaves shortly for the east to enter school.

Miss May Fisher of Pocatello is in the city, the guest for the week of Capt. and Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood.

Dr. Neil C. Brown and Miss Miriam Hardy left yesterday on a short business trip to Denver.

Miss Barbara Kinnersly expects to leave shortly for an eastern trip.

Miss Maude E. Eastwood is expected home tomorrow from Chautauqua lake, where she has been studying during the summer.

Miss Annie E. Spencer returned this week from Lake Chautauqua, where she has been spending the summer.

Mrs. William Nelson and daughters, the Misses Mary, Esther and Grace, have returned from a very enjoyable camping trip at Brighton.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Maclean are entertaining Mrs. Fullerton of Minneapolis.

Miss Helen Gillespie has returned from Walker's farm, where she was a guest for ten days of Miss Beatrice Cheeseman.

Miss Rachel Baldwin of Burlington, Ia., and Miss Drabel of St. Louis are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Shelp returned this week from an eastern trip of several weeks.

Mr. Will Hall and his sisters will shortly be at home at the corner of Second and K streets.

Mrs. Morris Sommer and son, Armando, are home from a stay of three months in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wetzel have returned from New York, where they spent the summer.

Mrs. J. E. Calne and her sons returned this week from Brighton.

Mrs. Heber M. Wells and her mother, Mrs. Katz, will be home tomorrow from Santa Cruz.

Miss Beth Dunbar expects to leave in about a week for Chicago where she will enter school.

Mrs. Harold Russell will arrive in the city on Wednesday and will spend some time with her sisters and her little daughter. She will be at home with Miss Dwyer at 166 west North Temple street.

The Misses Hattie and Claire Young who have spent the summer in the city visiting relatives and friends, left this week for their home in New York.

Miss Mary C. May and her mother, Mrs. Mulligan, have returned from California and are at home for the present at the Fifth East hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tripp and daughters of Yankton, S. D., who have been visiting friends in the city, have gone to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Babcock have returned from Santa Cruz, where they have spent the summer.

Mrs. Le Verne Kenner and Miss Maud Kenner of Salt Lake are spending a couple of weeks with their sister, Mrs. J. L. Knight of Eureka.

Miss Selby of Pocatello is the guest of Miss Gertrude Kelly.

Miss Rebecca Morris will spend the next two weeks in Logan visiting with friends.

Miss Laura Foster has returned from a pleasant stay in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Snow have gone to Denver, where they will be the guests for the next two weeks of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Yard.

Miss Ivan Sessions of Reno, Nev., is visiting friends in Salt Lake for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hartenstein have returned from an eight week's visit in California.

Miss Elsie Schield is home from Brighton, where she has spent several weeks visiting friends.

Mrs. Jennie T. Pierce has returned from a pleasant visit with Montana friends.

Miss Abba Ruml is home from a six weeks' visit to New York.

After a pleasant visit with relatives and friends on the coast, Miss Margaret Ligan has returned to the city.

Miss R. Edmund Rogers is home from a two weeks' visit in the Pacific northwest.

Mrs. Fred T. McGurkin and Miss Sullivan left this week for a month's visit in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis have returned from their trip to New York city.

Mrs. H. A. Nelson and children are home from a pleasant eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Parsons and Miss Kirkpatrick left today for a brief visit at Glenwood Springs.

Mrs. Gage of Belvidere, Ill., is a guest of Mrs. William E. Jacobs.

Fabian Seckel of Chicago and Eugene Pittmann of St. Louis, who have spent much of the summer as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fabian, have returned to their homes.

Mrs. Haverkamp has returned to her home in Provo after a very pleasant visit with Mrs. David Evans of this city.

Dr. and Mrs. H. R. McGraw of Denver are the guests of Atty. F. A. McGraw of this city for the week.

Mrs. Howard Russell and family of New York, who have been guests of Mrs. David E. Hemphill for several days, have returned to their home. Mr. Russell is a member of the National

DEFIES MARRIAGE BROKERS.

Count Francis Joseph Maria Larisch von Moench, a grandson of the Emperor of Austria, who married Miss Marie Satterfield, of Titusville, Pa., has refused to pay $50,000, claimed by a clique of usurers and marriage brokers, and will sue them on charges of blackmail.

Anti-Saloon league, and spends much of his time in Washington, where the family is prominent in social circles.

Mrs. Frank C. Kelsey and children are home from Pharaoh's Glen, where they have spent the summer.

Lieut. Hardman is enjoying a leave of absence at his old home in Missouri.

Mrs. R. E. Daynes and Mr. and Mrs. Royal W. Daynes have returned from Wasatch.

Ed C. Raymond is home from a visit at Marysville, and is stopping at the New Wilson.

Mrs. Thomas Homer and daughter, Kathleen, will return shortly from their summer's visit on the coast.

Miss Blanche Vincent has returned from a two month's visit at Vernal. Miss Vincent also enjoyed several camping trips along the Duchesne river and in Strawberry valley.

Miss Emma Rosenberg left this week for California. In San Francisco she will be the guest of Miss Canon, and in Los Angeles of her sister, Mrs. Allie Hilton.

Mrs. W. C. Greene of this city is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Beebe of New York.

Miss Annie Youngberg and Miss Althea Wheeler have returned from Brighton.

Mrs. H. A. Joplin and son have returned from the country, where they have spent the summer.

Mrs. Austin and her little granddaughter, Dorothy Bailey, are home from Castilla Springs.

Paul Truman Bois is down from Park City and will be the guest for a short time of his aunt, Mrs. V. Mont Ferry.

Miss Mabel Carson is home from a visit of a few months with Mrs. Edgingfield in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Clarence Warnock has returned from California.

Mrs. Solomon and Mrs. Kuhn of Albion, Ida., are in the city for a few days, visiting friends.

Mrs. Oscar L. Cox has returned from

TEETS' BARGAIN STORE.

I will open an entirely New Stock of Goods at 122 S. Main Street on Saturday, September 12th, and will sell you some of the GREATEST BARGAINS ever sold in the West.

Wait for us! Write for Price List.
F. M. TEETS,

122 Main St.