OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

The reception given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. C. E. Coulter, president of the Utah Federation of Women's clubs, at her beautiful home, No. 125 Twenty-fourth street, in honor of the visiting club ladies of the state was one of the most delightful events of the season. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being in the two shades of yellow, which are the Federation colors. Chrysanthemums were used with smilax in artistic effect. There was music during the afternoon and delicious refreshments were served from the prettily decorated dining room. About 150 guests enjoyed the hospitality of the hostess.

Wednesday evening the marriage of Miss Annie Stahl, of this city to Mr. Fred Fox of Salt Lake City took place at the home of the bride's parents, No. 367 Lincoln avenue. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Robert McQuarrie, of the Second ward. After the ceremony and congratulations the wedding party sat down to a sumptuous repast in the dining room. The evening was spent in music and social amusements. There were present at the reception only the relatives and a few intimate friends.

The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers, potted plants and evergreens. Mr. and Mrs. Fox are both well and popularly known in this city. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stahl, and the groom was formerly in business in Ogden, but now resides in Salt Lake, where they will make their future home.
