

April 7, 1892.

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

This is Good Friday. 'Tis cross the snow fall gives the appearance of midwinter.

There is a letter at this office for Mr. L. B. Rogers, of Logan.

Miss E. P. Sheets has lost a diamond ring. See advertisement.

The storm which began on Wednesday night has continued with but little intermission ever since.

The party who lost a hitching post with heavy metal attachment last night, is on calling at the police office.

Yesterday was so moist and muddy that the weather men, who usually are so accurate, today it constantly snows.

Mr. Frank McKee, general agent for the Utah Theatre, who will appear at the theatre on the 17th, is in town.

Yesterday the dispatches said the people of the state at independence would celebrate the day. Today they say that it was postponed.

A small pocket book containing money has been lost. The finder would return it to the owner and be rewarded. See ad.

We publish today the names of the Elders now in England returning with this first coming of the season.

Mr. Armitage, the artist, looks quite pale and worn after the prolonged stage of illness through which he has lately passed.

The irrigation question is being settled by the elements. No fear of any water shortage in this section of the country.

By an oversight, the name of Agnes Lorenz was omitted from the list of Authorities on the stand, in yesterday's Conference meeting.

There was an alarm of fire last night, but it was a false one. Some burning in a chimney at the Hotel Utah was the cause of it.

Mr. Geo. C. Crimmon was the guest of the night.

The present wet weather has a tendency to keep pedestrians in a great deal of trouble with their city shoes.

The McKee, Margolis and Graham dramatic combination play
"The Bushes" to-morrow night.
Mr. Margolis is in the lead, and his characters will be ably played.

Accident war will be inevitable somewhere. Large swarms which swatched in the Minersville canyon in March are working towards the river at a lively rate. - Beaver Lake.

Local and Other Matters.

Stealing a Ring.—Last night, a man giving the name of Thomas O'Connell was arrested on a charge of stealing a ring. His trial was set for this afternoon.

Good Till the Twelfth.—Brother W. Preston has received word from superintendent Geo. W. Thaler, of the U. N. R. R., that all Conference tickets will be good for return till the 12th inclusive.

Death of Mrs. S. L. Latimer.—
The family of the late Mr. Thomas Latimer, of the 18th Ward, have just received information of the death of Mrs. Sarah L. Latimer, which occurred at her residence, 128 Waterloo Road, Burslem, England, on the 14th of March, 1892. She was the wife of the late Mr. S. L.
Latimer.

Our Boarding House.—At the Theatre to-night, the noted American comedy, Our Boarding House, will be performed by the Home Dramatic Club. They are talented actors and present the play in a new artistic style. Those who wish to enjoy a genuine dramatic treat should attend.

The Storm.—Yesterday while the wind was blowing and the snow driving in this valley, at Spanish Fork, and other portions of Utah County the roads were dry and dusty, plowing was in progress, and other farm work. The storm did not stretch as far south as Spanish Fork until six o'clock this morning when it commenced to lightly snow.

Machine Shop.—Train Wrecking.—The following special was released to-day from Ogden:

The Herald has an account of an accident meeting last night.
The Herald has an account of an
accident meeting last night.
The Herald has an account of an
accident meeting last night.

Wool Growers' Convention.—The wool growers of Salt Lake County met with the committee of Salt Lake State Board of Trade, at the Council chambers, at 9 a.m. to-day. A fair representation was present, but owing to the inclemency of the weather it was probably not so large as it would otherwise have been. There was a liberal interchange of views, which will probably result in a definite line of action. There seemed to be a pretty general sentiment in favor of the establishment of a commission through which the growers could dispose of their product and thus deal as directly as practicable with manufacturers. Such an arrangement would probably be satisfactory because while the growers are running the risks consequent upon the fluctuations in the market, they would also have the advantage of all favorable turns in the sale of prices. As the wool dealers here, as elsewhere, always purchase at rates which are not against the grower, the commission method could not fail to be more profitable to the grower than disposing of their wool to middle men. In the commission system the grower who takes good care of his wool, and prepares it in good shape, will have the benefit of the extra price taken therein, in this higher price will be paid, in this higher price will
be paid.

Hot Cross Buns.—To-day is Good Friday, and consequently the last day in Lent. The English folks commence Lent on a fast day, marked with a cross on top. Our English people will remember the bakers who go round each morning with fresh hot rolls of bread, and their famous street cry of "Hot cross buns, hot cross buns," but who on this morning carry around, instead, "Hot cross buns, four-a-penny."

Weather Report.—The following was received by Deseret Telegraph at 11:15 this morning:

Corinne.—Cloudy, cold, looks like storming; a very little snow fell last night.

Franklin, Idaho.—Snowing and blowing from north; thermometer 34.

Springville.—Cloudy, cold, snow light, wind blowing.

Sandy.—North wind and snowing.
Frisco.—Snowed all night, clearing up this morning.

Kaysville.—Strong north wind blowing, clouds very heavy, snow falling last night.

Bingham.—Snow 18 inches, still snowing and blowing.

Ogden.—About two inches of snow on ground and snowing a little now.

Paris, Idaho.—Very stormy, froze hard last night, snowed a little last night.

Brigham City.—Cloudy and calm; snowed a little this morning. Thermometer 36.

Provo.—Snowing and blowing, cold and disagreeable.

Monroe.—Cold and cloudy, with south wind blowing; no snow.

Selling.—A heavy snow last night; cloudy to-day.

Manti.—Cloudy and cold; snowed a little last night.

Elphinstone.—Cloudy and cold; two inches snow fell last night; looks like more now.

Mr. Pleasant.—Snowing hard; very cold.

Pillsbury.—About two inches snow on ground; still snowing.

Beaver.—Been snowing for last 24 hours with heavy wind from southwest; snow about two inches deep.

Cedar City.—Storm all day yesterday; rain and snow—cold—snowing
this morning.

Payson.—Cold and damp, snowing some.

Logan.—Cold—snowing.

American Fork.—Stormy, about two inches of snow and drifting hard.

Nephi.—Commenced snowing yesterday evening, but cleared away at noon; all night, still snowing.
Eight inches on the level—packed solid.

Silver Reef.—Snowed last night about two inches, melted now except on foot-hills—cloudy.

St. George.—Cold last night and this morning—cloudy.

Pioche, Nevada.—Snowed about two inches during the night—calm and cold.

The Work in England.—We gladly send information about matters pertaining to the ministry in England from the Millennial Star of March 20th. At a conference held in Leeds, on March 13th, Elders laboring in that section reported as follows:

Elder R. Hillman reported Bradford District as being in good condition with but few exceptions, 16 had been baptized and seven re-baptized and the saints trying to live their religion.

Elder J. L. Rich reported the Waterfield District as in good condition with but few exceptions, the Saints striving to do right; nine had been baptized in that district since Oct. last.

Elder J. R. Howard said it was a difficult task to report the Hull district. He had not been around the district as yet; there were but few Saints. He had given away several hundred tracts, was confident that some would embrace the truth, had baptized one, and two had given in their names for baptism.

Elder William Wood gives details of a case of healing. George Graystone, afflicted with rheumatic fever, appeared to be approaching death.
He was administered to by Elders W. Wood, J. H. White and J. England and restored by the power of God to comparative health.

Elders W. R. Webb and J. A.
McAllister give an interesting account of a trip through the northern part of England and a portion of the south of Scotland. They visited the towns of Alnwick, Aln-mouth, Belford, Berwick and Kelso.
Concluding their communication, they say:

"We walked over 100 miles and distributed over 1,000 tracts, besides the articles of our faith and other larger tracts that we gave to ministers. We held several out-door meetings and bore our testimony both in private and public, and feel that our trips have not been made in vain."

Releases and Appointments.—
From the Millennial Star of March 20th:

The following named Elders are released to return to Utah with the April 12th company: Charles W.
Stagner, John Donaldson, John Evans, Mark Beaser, W. B.
Brighton, David Cook, Robert Kawley and W. G. Perkins.

Appointments.—Bishop O. F.
Whitney is appointed to succeed Elder Stagner in the Presidency of the Liverpool Conference.

W. R. Jones is appointed to succeed Elder Donaldson in the Presidency of the Liverpool Conference.

Mr. J. Thomas is appointed to succeed Elder Jones in the Presidency of the Liverpool Conference.

Alfred Alder is appointed to succeed Elder Beaser in the Presidency of the Liverpool Conference.

The Conference President released for the April 12th company are expected to give their successors all requisite instructions, and to be prepared to turn over to them the books, properties, etc., in a mutually well understood, correct and satisfactory manner, and will retain their positions till time for leaving to join their company, except in any case otherwise arranged by permission from this Office.

Theatre.—Yesterday evening was presented at the Salt Lake Theatre the well known and eminently popular play denominated "Our American Cousin." This being the first appearance during the present season of our local Dramatic Company, it would be almost superfluous to state that notwithstanding the storm the house was well filled. The popular favorites, Messrs. McKee, Margolis, Graham and Miss Nellie (who played the leading parts as usual) the conspicuously ridiculous and quaint sayings of "Lord Dunsinore" created a world of merriment.

Look out for Green Buns tomorrow night.

Friday, and consequently the last day in Lent. The English folks com-
with a cross on top. Our English
famous street cry of "Hot cross
carry around, instead, "Hot cross
buns, four-a-penny."

Buried Alive.—A gentleman from the Arizona country informs us of a peculiar incident that recently occurred in the Arizona Indian. There was a very bad Indian named Lightning, who at one time attempted to commit an outrage upon a little white girl. The Indian was excited to a great extent by this. He took her and hid her in a hole, and then he went to the people thought there was some probability of his not dying, so they dug his grave, and a man got on each side of him, walked him up to the hole, put him in and buried him.

One of the Indians who took part in this affair related the details to interpreter, L. C.
Christensen, who said: "And did you actually bury him before he was dead?" "Well, he cried a little when we put him in, but he was soon dead anyway."

Heard in a street car: "My dear why don't you get your life insured?"
"Can't. They won't take me. I've promised to umpire a baseball game between the Indians and the company all right."

RENEFACTORS.

What a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical, but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispersed all doubts, and to-day the discovery of this great medicine, Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure, is honored and blessed by all as benefactors.

ORGANS
WITH
MEDALS AND TESTIMONIALS VERSUS
Organs Without Them.

THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN COMPANY HAVE entered into Competition with American and European makers of Organs at all the World's Great Exhibitions with their various styles of Organs, from one stop to the most elaborate, and at each one of them they obtained the First Prize and Highest Distinction of Demonstrated Superiority over all of the Most Celebrated Makers of Organs in Europe and in America. The most eminent Musicians, Organists, Artists and Musical Critics in all countries have declared, in written communications, that these organs are unequalled by any others in the world. The principal musicians in the Territory, recognizing these facts, have purchased the Mason & Hamlin Organs for their own use in preference to all others. These are makers, and they are in the great majority, who never presumed to compete with first-class manufacturers at any of these exhibitions, some of whom now advertise that they "Never exhibited their instruments to compete for premiums" for the reason that "Awards are made the subject of the Greatest Misrepresentation and are but a source of jealousy, corruption and dishonesty." These charges cannot apply to the Mason & Hamlin Organ Company, because a fact of all the medals and diplomas awarded to them, and the certificates of the jurors, are published in the official documents of the directors of each of the World's Expositions, and are boarded throughout Europe and America, copies of which are out on my office. It is not probable that European jurors would have permitted an American firm to carry away evidences of so many victories over their own countrymen, if they could have honestly prevented it. "Management" one firm has the effrontery to ever in its own case, the same competition for awards is to be regarded as good evidence of greater honesty and a higher standard of uprightness in business, and superiority of instruments, than the vast majority of manufacturers are to be congratulated. But for the energy and success of the Mason & Hamlin Organ Company, resulting in the winning of an immense number of medals, awards to the markets of Europe, their own competition and self-proclaimed makers of a superior class of Organs would not have an agency in England. They asked to make the colors of the Mason & Hamlin Organ Company.
