City Attorney E. M. Allison, Jr., presented a lengthy report of the labors of the attorney's office for the year 1899, giving a detailed history of fourteen cases pending or settled in the courts in which Ogden city is interested. A long and interesting exhibit of the stat-us of the case of Ogden city vs the Bear River Irrigation and Ogden Water Works company was read. The report was accepted and ordered filed.

Poll Tax Collector Moroni Poulter reported 168 labor taxes paid and 94 cush poll taxes collected during the months if November and December, and submitted a list of 392 names of delinquents uncollected, with 69 names which were uncollectable. His bill, amounting to $78.60, for services was ordered paid. Street Foreman Jos. Sanders submitted a report showing the total appro-priations for streets for 1899 to be $9,-73.41, which was $405.03 less than the amount expended in 1898. The court discharged the receiver again on October 9, 1899, and Williams resumed pocsession of the business; he now alleges that the business has been materially damaged by the appointment of the said Craig as receiver, and that through the allegations of Craig against him his good name and credit has been damaged in the sum of $10,000, and that it cost him $250 to get the said Craig discharged as receiver, therefore he demands damages in the sum of $10,250. Richards and Allison are at-torneys for the plaintiff.

KANOSH. Ideal Christmas-Marriage Festivities-Return of the Long Lost A. J. W. Gardner.

Special Correspondence. Kanosh, Millard Co., Dec. 29 .- An ideal Christmas morning dawned upon the people of Kanosh, every branch and thread of foliage was silvered o'er with frost, and the atmosphere was filled with glittering diamond-like specks, which appeared as a divine benison upon the natal day of the Redeemer. Peace, plenty and pleasure prevail everywhere in our little town.

Marrying and giving in marriage is becoming a frequent occurrence here. Kanosh has always been noted for the attractions of her fair daughters, but this Christmas they have drawn aspir-ants from the east, the west and the far north. One accomplished gentleman even sacrificed Paradise (in Cache county) to the demand of the little archer Cupid. Alfred, the son of Oscar Anderson, was a few days since married by Justice Jukes to Miss Annie Mills. On Friday last our respected choir leader, Professor W. J. Pugh, visited the county seat in company with

Miss Miranda Roberts, and they were married by Bishop Callister. John Morrey, another of our good citizens, has realized the truth of the old adage, "There's many a slip 'twixed the cup and the lip." John is about 30 years old, and armed with the necessary recommends he quietly left town for Manti, meeting Miss Laura Rawlinson of Sevier county there, intending to be of Sevier county there, intending to be married in the Temple. After about a week's absence, John and the young lady returned here. To our shake and congratulations, John 'made a very roundabout smile, as he informed us that he was not married. The lady's recommend miscarried, the Temple closed during the holidays, and John is still a bachelor, but resolute, and will return to Manti at an early date. Tues. day, the 26th Henry Paxton, son of Anthony Paxton and Miss Mattle L Turner, were married by Elder George Crane at the residence of the bride's
