THEATRE.—The verdict of all who witness the acting of Mr. J. T. Raymond cannot fail to be otherwise than that it is scarcely surpassed. Last night Mr. Raymond was so absolutely identified with the character of the simple hearted "Caleb Plummer" that he himself was lost sight of. The play itself is a nice little domestic piece, somewhat devoid, however, of those startling denouements for which the generality of theatre-goers nowadays have such a penchant, but it is home-like, simple and pathetic. There is a beauty in Mr. Raymond's playing which is always commendable—the absence of any preceptible effort for effect, his aim being apparently to assume the character in the most natural manner possible. In fact there is a complete absence of staginess about his renditions which is always a mark of superiority, and from his manner and style people would judge, did they not know otherwise, that he was entirely oblivious to the presence of the audience. It was not Mr. J. T. Raymond whom the audience saw and listened to last night, but the ideal "Caleb Plummer" of the author of "Dot," and this is not too great a compliment to this most accomplished actor.

Miss Walter as Tilly Slowboy took immensely, and created great amusement, and we have never seen Miss Kent play to better advantage than she did last night as the good hearted, loving and vivacious "Dot." Messrs. Thorne, Lindsay and Dunne also rendered their parts very effectively. The other characters were tolerably well sustained. Mrs. Bowring did especially well.

The farce, "A Capital Match," created great merriment. Graham was positively "huge" as "Mr. Sunnyside" and Mr. Forster made a good "Captain Tempest," and Mrs. Bowring and Miss Kent played with much spirit.

To-night Mr. Raymond appears as "Major Wellington de Boots," in "Everybody's Friend," and as "Dickory" in the "Spectre Bridegroom." A fine bill. Those who fail to see Mr. Raymond on the boards will miss a great theatrical treat.

WILL PREACH.—Elder Orson Pratt will preach at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms to-morrow afternoon. Services commence at 2 o'clock and 6 o'clock p m.

HOME MISSIONARY MEETINGS —Sunday, Jan. 5th, at Farmington, Elders R. Miller, Milo Andrus, and R. F. Neslen. Meetings commencing at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. REUBEN MILLER, per R. F. N.

A FINE TOY.—One of the most attractive toys we have seen in the Territory is for sale at Z.C.M.I. Grocery Department. It is a baby with a smiling face, which, when wound up, creeps along any level surface and ever and anon turns its little head.

MARRIED at St. Paul's Church, Des Moines, Iowa, Dec 24, 1872, Mr. Warren Hussey, Prest. of the First National Bank of this City, to Miss Libbie Shaw, only surviving daughter of Dr. Alex. Shaw, of Des Moines.

"How near am I to happiness
That earth exceeds not. Not another like it,
The treasures of the deep are not so precious,
As are the conceal'd comforts of a man
Lock'd up in woman's love. I scent the air
Of blessings, when I come but near the house:
What a delicious breath marriage sends forth;
The violet bed's not sweeter. Honest wedlock
Is like a banqueting-house built in a garden,
On which the spring's chaste flowers take delight
To cast their modest odors."

THE next annual meeting of the stockholders of the Utah Southern Railroad, for the election of officers, will be held at President Young's office, January 18th, 1873. See notice to that effect in another column.

OPENED BUSINESS. — Bishop Proctor, Tenth Ward, has been making some additions to his store and has opened business in it. He is having quite a good run of custom. The building is conveniently situated for a large number of the residents in the east part of the city, being near the new meetinghouse.

RAIN and mud and fog last night, mud and fog this morning.

S. S. LIBRARY COMMITTEE.—The Sunday School Library Committee are respectfully requested to meet at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms, to-morrow, Sunday, Dec. 29th, at 4 p. m.

THE LATE CONCERT.—Mr. R. M. Kirby has furnished us, for publication, the following financial statement connected with the late concert for the benefit of St. Mark's Hospital:

Total receipts amounted to	$1,151.00
Expenditures,	499.14
Balance remaining for hospital purposes,	$651.86

RETURNED.—Elder Francis Birch, of Mill Creek, who left this city for England, Sept. 28th last, on a visit to his friends, called to-day, having left Liverpool on his return, Nov. 28, and arrived here on Sunday last. While in England the weather was so rainy and damp that his health was bad and he consequently made a much shorter stay than he intended. He visited Birmingham, Worcester, Herefordshire, Shropshire and London. In many places he found the Saints few, scattered and poor, but anxious to emigrate to this Territory. He saw but 1½ acres of sown wheat that had come up, the land was so wet.

RETIRED.—We understand that Charles L. Dahler, Esq., has retired from the vice-presidency of the First National Bank of this city.

NOT SO.—Brother Lorenzo Pettit, who lives on the Jordan, called to-day and asked us to correct a statement, which appeared in the News of Tuesday last, to the effect that himself and wife were both down with smallpox. Both Brother Pettit and his wife are in good health, and are taking care to keep free from danger of contagion. There is but one case, and the patient is at a house a considerable distance from Brother Pettit's residence. The case alluded to is progressing favorably.

WATER WANTED. — We hear of complaints from residents of the 19th Ward that there has been no water in the ditch in that part of the city since the commencement of the present thaw, and that there was but very little in it for some time previous. We do not doubt that as soon as this fact comes to the knowledge of Watermaster Groo he will see that the Nineteenth Warders do not long suffer inconvenience from this source, but have a sufficiency of water turned down from the main stream.

RECEIVED.—"Harpers' Monthly" for January. This magazine still maintains its accorded position at the head of the illustrated monthlies. The present starts with a very interesting illustrated paper on "Locomotion—Past and Present." Among other articles are "The Old Romans at Home, the "Sailors' Snug Harbor, the British Museum and its Reading-room," "Old Kensington," "Christmas Carol," "Where is the Child?" "Christmas Throughout Christendom," all illustrated, with many other articles and the usual literary, scientific, historical and anecdotal melange.

In "Littell's Living Age," for the past few weeks the following articles, among others, have appeared—"On Mind and Will in Nature," by Dr. Carpenter, F. R. S., "The Chasm between Theology and Physical Studies," "Origin and Growth of Romanesque Architecture," by Edward A. Freeman; "On the Origin of Shakespeare's 'Tempest'," "New England Puritan Literature;" "Immortality;" "The Consciousness of Dogs;" "Sketches of Fritz Reuter, Baron Stockmar, Saalburg and Saarbrucken;" "The Last Eruption of Vesuvius;" "Of Growing Old;" "A Memorable Pope;" "Dutch Art;" "Montalembert;" "A Remarkable Man;" "Prussia and Germany;" "Off the Skelligs;" etc.

"The Galaxy for January" has an attractive array of contents; among which are "Earl Russell;" "The Wetterell Affair;" "French Sooner, Customs and Characters;" "Grant Pope;" "Language According to Sample."

"Scribner's Monthly," noticed elsewhere.

"Lippincott's Monthly" for January, contains an excellent illustrated article on "Iron Bridges and Their Construction;" "Searching for the Quinine Plant in Peru," also illustrated; "The Irish Capital;" "Monsieur Fournier's Experience;" "Reminiscences of Florence;" "The Southern Planter;" "My Charge on the Life-Guard," and a number of other interesting articles. Good things are promised for the coming year, among them serial stories by Jean Ingelow and George Macdonald.

"The Cottager" for December. A small cheap monthly.

"To-day," Dio Lewi's new monthly. Christmas number. Illuminated cover. The number is freely illustrated and contains much useful and interesting reading.

"The Busy West" for January. Mrs. Bella French's monthly. Milwaukee, Wis. Illustrated. Full of entertaining matter, with two pages of music, besides a phrenological and physiological description of the editor.

The engineer, who did not know of the connection between this valve, turned on the steam from the latter, instantly filling the empty boilers through the connection pipe. TESTIMONIALS

IN FAVOR OF THE

PRINCE ORGAN!

GREAT EXPOSITION, Kansas City.

The Prince Organ, which took the Premium, met in strong competition the Mason & Hamlin and the Estey Organs, but vanquished them easily. When the Prince is placed by side other instruments its superiority in Volume and Power become so apparent, that even those prejudiced in favor of the others, were obliged to concede the point.—Kansas City Journal, Sept. 27th, 1872.

From J. H. Ridges, Esq.
Salt Lake City, Nov. 20th, 1872.

Messrs. Degnan & Son:

I have examined the Prince Organ and cheerfully record it my approbation as a Good Organ, approved alike for its Durability and Sweetness of Tone.

J. H. RIDGES,
Organ Builder.

Salt Lake City, Dec. 2, 1872.

I have examined the Prince Organ, and can recommend it as a first-class instrument.

C. J. THOMAS,
Conductor of Theatre Orchestra

Dec. 2, 1872.

I have inspected the Prince Organ and I can recommend it as an instrument worthy of patronage, both in the variety of stops and the easy construction in taking out the reeds and in keeping dust from the reeds, which is a desirable requisite.

JOHN TULLIDGE,
Prof. of Singing and Harmony.

The Prince Organ is the best I have ever played on for variety of effects and sweetness of tone.

NOTICE.

A RUMOR HAS GAINED CREDENCE that Hoge's Co-Operative Mercantile Institution discounts the Wholesale Merchandise Orders issued from its Office. Any statement to that effect is totally false and can only benefit those dealers who are willing to speculate on the necessities of our laboring class.

We accept our orders at one hundred cents on the dollar and trust the holders of them will, in justice to themselves, demand their valuation whenever disposing of them.
