Democratic Demonstration. New York, 1.—Governor Cleveland.

Hendricks merchants this afternoon and the torchlight demonstration this At 3.15 this afternoon two divisions f the business men's Cleveland and lendricks parade started from their espective rendezvous up Broadway to be reviewed by Governor Cleveland. The first division, from Worth Street and Broadway, was in this order: Mounted police, Grand Marshal John II. Woodward, presidents and vicepresidents of various associations, honorary staff of grand marshal, dry goods men's association, hardware men, metal association and west side merchants Cleveland and Hendricks club. The second division started from Church street and Broadway, led by the Stock Exchange Cleveland and Hendricks club, Stock Exchange clerks, Produce and Maritime Exchange, New York Mining Exchange, Cotton Exchange, Insurance Men's Association, Lawyers' Cleveland and Hendricks Club, New York Petroleum and Stock Exchange, and cigar and leaf COTTON CANVASS of all numbers—14 to 150 arches wide, for Deck, Car. The grand stand, on the opposite side of Fifth Avenue, held at least 1,000 ladies with their escorts. A great shout in the dis-tance, which increased to a roar as the read of the procession came into view, announced the approach of a mass of men. Cleveland stood up, and greater cheers broke forth, which were inalong the route.

The streets are jammed again to-night with people out to see the Tammany Hall parade. The police seemed worn out in their struggles with the people, during the week, crowding to see Blaine and Cleveland and the grand processions in honor of the candidates for President.

Hartford, Conn., 1.—Hartford was reached at noon. As the train came to a stop there was a cannon salute and cheering.

Blaine and Fremont, accompanied by Senator Hawley, entered a carriage and were driven to a stand in front of the court house, around which several thousand people were waiting. All along the route were Plumed Knights and other clubs.

Gen. Hawley introduced Blaine, who made a speech on finance.

After concluding his speech, the party returned to the train. As the train moved of, the clubs and people on the street cheered heartily. The most conspicuous body was composed of a company of "Wide Awaies of 1860."

At South Norwalk there was a great gathering, and Blaine spoke briefly. At Standford the demonstration was said to be the largest. After Blaine's remarks, he and a large party were handsomely entertained at the house of Samuel Fessenden, secretary of the republican national committee. The run were not damaged, but the third car to New York was made without any struck a freight engine on a siding, and

About 10 o'clock Blaine, accompanied by Dr. Fordyce Barker, was driven o the Academy of Music, where there was a meeting under the auspices of the Biaine and Logan club of Columbia College, presided over by Prof. Dwight. The building was filled in every part by an audiance who made all kinds of enthusiastic demonstrations when contest involving great principles and touching at every point the fate and fortune of the nation. Fatal Political Fight. NMW ORLEANS, 1 .- A Picayune New Theria special says. At the Kellogg meeting at Lanareville to-day it seems some negroes got into difficulty, and Gilfour stepped in to quiet them, when he was fired upon by the negroes. He returned the fire but without effect. by this time there was a general resort to firearms and a general fusilade commenced. Gilfour was the first to fall, shot dead. He was one of the best citizens and a staunch Democrat, Sher-iff Theo Viaer was brought here wounded, but not dangerously. Those bringing him say Capt. R. Bell, a Dem-ocrat, was also shot dead. Abner Routt, a negro politician, and three other negroes were killed. Jules Mesterer and Judge Fontellin were reported among the wounded. A large numhere is very great. Squads of armed men left for the scene. The town is patrolled to-night. A large number of prisoners were brought by armed with deputies and special police. Cannot give approximate number tonight. They are lodged in jail and guarded. Judge Theo. Fontellin lbert Fontellin, L. A. Fontellin and Alphonse Fontellia are among the pris-oners. The most reliable and impartial reports are that the republicans went over there expecting trouble, and it commenced among the negroes. Judge Fontellin is not wounded, as at first reported. A. F. Dugas and St. Clair Dugas are reported wounded, and many others were wounded, but they got off. Most reports agree that six negroes were killed, but tas they stampeded after the fire, it is impossible to say positively how many were wounded. New Orleans, 1 .- A Times-Democrat New Iberia special says: Judge Fontellin and eight or ten others left here this morning for Lareanville, Fausse Point, in this parish, to hold a political meeting in the interest of Kellogg. After the crowd assembleg a disturbance was created by persons hallooing "Hurrals for Gay." Joe Gullifaux rushed to the scene of the trouble and was fired at, the ball passing through his hat. He returned the fire. At that moment there was a general row, and Captain Bell, a prominent sugar planter and democrat, 1Joe Guilfanx, a leading Gay man, and Oliver Boutte (colored), a Kellogg supporter from New Iberia, were killed outright. The wounded as far as known, are Jules wounded, as far as known, are Jules Messayer, republican candidate for sheriff last spring, thigh broken; Sheriff T. Viator, shot twice in the Sheriff T. Others ran, and some fell down on the way and died. One negro was found near by in his cabin dead, without a bruise. No further trouble expected.

Another Version of the Story.

NEW ORLEANS, 22.—Information rom republican sources gives quite a different coloring to the affair which occurred at Lareauville yesterday. A Blaine-Logan and Kellogg meeting was being held there, which it is alleged was broken up by armed democrats, who fired upon the meeting. Eight men were killed and wounded. All the republican speakers were arrested by the local militia and committed to 1211 without authority of law. Intense excitement prevails.

ing saloons are closed by order of the mayor. Fifty or seventy-five men from here left, under orders from the sheriff, for the scene of the trouble, all armed with double-barrelled shot guns and rifles. They arrested Fontellin and Adolph Bienvenu, two white men, who are now in the parish jail under a heavy guard. The first ball came from the republican ranks; after this, it is said, one thousand shots were fired simultaneously. On the battle field, it is said, a dozen horses are lying dead. It is impossible to learn how many were wounded, but it is reliably reported that a great many of the woundwent to the scene and, with the police, tried their utmost to allay the panic and rescue the dead and dying, but they were too late to be of much effective service. The police and citizens finally succeeded in forcing their way into the building, and then aided all they could to escape to the street, but the mass was so wedged that they were sadly interfered with in their humane labors. The city ambulance corps conveyed the victims—the wounded and dead—to the infirmary. The wounded were so overcome that they were as helpless as the dead. It was learned that the author of the cry of "fire" was a fo. mer employee of the theatre, who had been dismissed. The audience numbered about 2,000. The performance was chiefly music-hall business. Another account says the alarm arose while a trapeze performer was taking a dive from the ceiling of the theatre to a net hanging in mid-air. One of the audience shouted "fire," meaning the performer had gone too near the footlights.

the beginning of September, hearing of the advance of British forces, made a supreme effort to reduce Khartoum, which place at the end of September was surrounded by 150,000 rebeis. Sup-plies failing the garrison began to waver. A deputation of officers complained bitterly to General Gordon that they had been deceived by a promise of British assistance, and they accused him of alding in the deception. The deputation also demanded that a re-treat be made to Dongola and threatened, if this action was not taken, they would join El Mahdi General Gordon thereupon consented to the plan proposed. Meanwhile a panic arose and 8,000 soldiers and civilians deserted in a body. Two thousand men remained faithful and embarked with Gordon. The rebels were advised of what had occurred and harrassed the retreat to Shendy, where masses of rebels provided with artillery, disabled the flo tilla. Only Col. Stewart's vessel suc ceeded in passing Berber and shortly afterward it was wrecked. The remainder of the flotilla was obliged to return southward and on reaching Shendy the entire force was captured About the 5th of October Gen. ret Blaine and Jas. G. Blaine, Jr. are also of the party.

At several points along the route, where the train made its regular stops, groups gathered around and cheered when, looking through the window, they discovered Blaine; but he did not appear in public until the train had reached Hartford. On the way a number of Hartford gentlemen who had come to meet him were presented.

Gen. Hawley boarded the train at Bridgeport.

He explained that he had unexpectedly received a telegram which required his immediate presence in New York. He said: "I can give you but a short time, but in those few minutes I can give you the platform of the People's party. It is, equal powers, equal privileges and equal burdens. You undoubtedly have heard a hundred times that this party is no party, and that it will die out; but such is not the case. No great reform was ever made unless by a third party rising out of other parties. Slavery, the greatest stain upon the country, was put down by a third party." The General then gave a short sketch of the origin and growth of the Republican party. Continuing, he said: "Bothsparties are governed by monopolists and monopolies. The Democratic yarty, with a flourish of trumpets, came in last December and proclaimed free trade, and stagnated business. To make a showing for their candidate this year, they want to reduce the tariff. Why, my friends," said Butler, "the tariff is the plainest thing in the world. It means no more than clothes to the workingman." The speaker then gave a short illustration of the effects of the tariff and its result to all classes.
