

THE INFAMY INCUBATED.
But Is Not Yet Brought Into Actual Life.
GOES THROUGH THE SENATE

By the Great Majority of 37 to 13.
FINE SPEECH BY SENATOR CALL.
VEST, BUTLER, HOAR AND BLAIR ALSO TO THE FORE FOR THE RIGHT.

Special Dispatch to the News.
WASHINGTON, D. C., February 18.—Edmunds called up the conference report on the Utah bill this afternoon before 1 o'clock. Vest (Mo.), Call (Fla.), Butler (S. C.), Hoar (Mass.), Blair (N. H.), spoke against, and Edmunds (Vt.) and Ingalls (Ks.) in favor of the bill.
Call's speech was a magnificent defense of Christian methods; he spoke of the bill as brutal and subversive of Christianity, said it betokened the beginning of an era of religious persecution and denounced it as inhuman. He was equally severe on Edmunds.
The consideration lasted over two hours, and when the vote was reached, thirty-seven voted "aye" and thirteen "nay."
Neither Baskin nor Bennett is satisfied with it. It is anything but what they wanted. Their only hope is to "catch on" with the test oath.

DETAILS OF THE BILL.
By Associated Press.
Edmunds presented to the Senate the conference report on the Utah polygamy bill, in the shape of a substitute for both the Senate and House bills, and it was agreed to, 37 to 13. The bill now goes to the President.
The first six sections of the bill apply to the prosecution of bigamy, adultery, etc., and make the wife or husband a competent witness, but they will not be compelled to testify.
The seventh and eighth sections apply to the powers of Court Commissioners and of the Marshal and Deputy Marshals.
The ninth and tenth sections apply to the marriage ceremony. They require to be properly authenticated and to be recorded in the office of the Probate Court.

A CERTIFICATE
The eleventh section disapproves and annuls all Territorial laws recognizing the capacity of illegitimate children to inherit or be entitled to any distributive share in the estate of the father.
The twelfth section disapproves and annuls the Territorial laws conferring jurisdiction upon Probate Courts (with certain exceptions).
The thirteenth section makes it the duty of the Attorney-General of the United States to institute proceedings to escheat to the United States the property of corporations obtained or held in violation of section three of the act of July, 1862, the proceeds of to be applied to the use of the common schools in the Territory.

The fourteenth section regulates the proceedings in such cases.
The fifteenth section disapproves and annuls all laws of the Legislative Assembly creating or continuing the Perpetual Immigration Fund and dissolves that corporation.
The sixteenth section directs proceedings for the disposition of the property and assets of the Immigration Fund Company. All such property in excess of its debts and lawful claims is to be escheated to the United States for the benefit of the common schools in the Territory.
The seventeenth section disapproves and annuls the acts of the Legislative Assembly incorporating or providing for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and dissolves

THAT INCORPORATION.
It makes it the duty of the Attorney-General of the United States to institute legal proceedings to wind up the affairs of the corporation.
The eighteenth section makes provision as to the endowment of widows, who are to have one-third of the income of their husbands' estates as their dower.
Section nineteen gives to the President the appointment of a Probate Judge in each county.
Section twenty makes it unlawful for any woman to vote in any election and annuls the act of the Legislative Assembly which permits female suffrage.
The four next sections make provisions as to elections and require of the voters an

OATH OR AFFIRMATION
to support the Constitution and obey the laws especially the polygamy act of March 22, 1882, and this act.
Section twenty-five abolishes the office of Territorial Superintendent of District Schools and makes it the duty of the Supreme Court of the Territory to appoint a Commissioner of Schools.
Section twenty-six gives to all religious societies, sects and congregations the right to hold, through trustees appointed by the Probate Court, property for houses of worship and parsonages.
Section twenty-seven and last section annuls all Territorial laws for the organization of the military or for the creating of the Nauvoo Legion, and gives the Legislative Assembly of Utah power to pass laws for organizing a militia subject to the approval of Congress. The general officers of the militia are appointed by the Governor of the Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, FEB. 21.
The Crismon Case.—This afternoon George Crismon was called in the Third District Court, and arraigned on the second count of an indictment charging him with unlawful cohabitation. He pleaded guilty, and will be sentenced on Monday, March 7th.

Released.—William Jeffs, of the 16th Ward, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for nineteen months, for cohabitation, under a four-count indictment, was released to-day. William W. Galbraith, sentenced to imprisonment for six months, was also released. Both paid their fines, the former $150 and the latter $300 and costs.

Pleaded Guilty.—To-day the case of Edward Schoenfeldt, indicted for unlawful cohabitation, was called in the Third District Court. He came forward and announced that he desired to change his plea to guilty.

Court.—Is it the first count?
Mr. Schoenfeldt.—Just as you say, your honor.
The first count was then settled on, and judgment will be passed on March 1st.
Joseph Hogan, of Bountiful, changed his plea to guilty on the first count of the indictment charging unlawful cohabitation, and 2 p. m. was named as the hour for sentence.

Sad Bereavement.—In another part of this issue will be found a notice of the death of the baby boy of Thos. Allen and Susan Winder Williams, at the age of three weeks. The bereavement is rendered the more pathetic on account of the absence of the father of the little one, who is on a mission to the Southern States and laboring in West Virginia. But a few days since he received the glad news that a fine healthy boy had been born unto him, and now the intelligence has been dispatched that death has claimed it as a victim. The bereaved parents and other relatives have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

Suspended Sentence.—Orrin Skelton and Frank Linberg, young boys who reside in Tooele, were arraigned on a charge of disturbing a Methodist meeting by noisy and boisterous conduct. Mr. Moyle, in behalf of the defendants, explained the circumstances of the case. It appears that the accused joined a crowd of boys as they were passing. When the offense was committed, those who made the disturbance ran away while the accused remained and was caught and placed under arrest. District Attorney Dickson joined with Mr. Moyle in requesting the Court to suspend sentence pending good behavior. The Court so ordered.

On Two Charges.—Ludvig S. Hansen and Andrew Jensen were arraigned before Judge Zane this morning on an indictment charging them with having committed on Feb. 13, 1887, an assault upon Mary Stevens, in Salt Lake County. Mr. Laurens was sworn as interpreter, and explained the accusation to the defendants. Mr. Maloney were appointed by the court to defend the accused and the statutory time was taken in which to plead.

These same defendants were then arraigned on an indictment charging assault upon Wm. Stevens, at the same time and place.

The defendants both asserted their innocence, and were allowed until Thursday morning to enter their plea.
Accident.—On Friday morning Mrs. Karen Marie Jensen, a native of Aarhus, Denmark, who was nursing a lady in the Twenty-first Ward, came out of the house and stepped upon a piece of board near the door. She slipped and fell heavily on her left side severely injuring her hip. There being no one around except the sick lady, Mrs. Jensen started for the nearest house, and had to crawl over half a block in the snow before she could get help. A man who was riding by with a boy in a wagon was called to stop and looked at her and then went on. At last a lady neighbor, hearing her call, obtained assistance, and she was carried into a house. From there she was taken to Mrs. Nicolina Larsen's residence in the Eleventh Ward. Dr. Pratt was immediately sent for and attended to the injured woman. It is not yet known whether the hip bone was broken or not. The patient, however, has not been able to move her limb since, but the pain has greatly subsided. The lady is now in her sixty-sixth year.

Report Denied.—Our correspondent at Peoa, Summit County, writes as follows under date of Feb. 16th:

"I notice in a correspondence sent you from Wanship, in this county, and published in your issue of the 14th inst., that the writer asserts that there are still other cases of diphtheria in this place, and that no precautions were taken against the disease. This statement is incorrect. There have been no cases here since January 25th, when the last of three deaths from the disease took place in a family about a mile out of town. People in this neighborhood who have been afflicted have thoroughly cleansed and disinfected their houses. There have been altogether 75 cases in this section of country, and out of this number there have been but 11 deaths—a smaller proportion than usual in districts where the infection takes hold."

Manti Election.—The Manti municipal election was held on Monday last, and resulted in the election of the following with but little opposition. The total vote cast was 264, certainly not one-half of the town's full strength:

Mayor—John H. Hougard.
Alderman—F. R. Kenner, Peter P. Dyrenk.
Councilors—Ezra Shomaker, Albert Tuttle, Lewis C. Klar.
Recorder—A. E. Merriam, Sen.
Treasurer—William B. Lowry.
Assessor and Collector—George E. Bench.
Marshal—John Lowry, Jr.
Ole Nielson, John Patten and J. H. Hougard were judges of election.

To Cattlemen.—There will be a meeting of the Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Association at the secretary's office, 110 Main Street, on Monday, April 4th, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of discussing the best means of securing a more thorough organization of the stock interests of the Territory, the transportation and marketing of stock, the subject of co-operating with the International Range Association, and carrying out the plans agreed upon at the recent important convention held in Denver. All stock men of Utah, whether members of any association or not, will best secure their interests by attending this meeting, and are cordially invited to do so, as also the sheep men of the Territory. The presence of the latter is desired, with a view of harmonizing range interests.

Mr. Mercer, editor of the North-western Live Stock Journal, is expected to be in attendance, and present his views on stock and range interests.

G. H. SNELL, Sec'y.
W. H. Tovey convicted.—To-day the trial of Wm. H. Tovey, of the Twentieth Ward, on one count of the indictment charging him with unlawful cohabitation, was held in the Third District Court.

A jury from the odd numbers on the list was called and accepted without examination.

Mrs. Harriet S. Tovey was the first witness. She testified—I am married to the defendant; my youngest child was born Nov. 8, 1886; I live in the Twentieth Ward; my husband lives with me a portion of the time; we were married about eleven years ago; Annie Maria Tovey was married to him before I was; she also lives in the Twentieth Ward.

Miss Eliza Tovey testified—The defendant is my father; Anna M. Tovey is my mother; my father lives with her a portion of the time.
The case was submitted to the jury on the Court's charge, and a verdict of guilty given.

Sentence on March 1st at 2 p. m.

HE COULD PROMISE.
JUDGE ZANE WANTS IT UNDERSTOOD THAT HE WILL NOT ALWAYS SUSPEND SENTENCE.

To-day Albert Dewey, who was formerly a "Mormon," was called in the Third District Court to plead to an indictment charging him with unlawful cohabitation with Mary L. Dewey, Elizabeth Woolcott and Sarah Shearer, from Dec. 2, 1883, to Nov. 30, 1886. The defendant entered a plea of guilty.

The Court asked—Do you wish sentence pronounced now?

Mr. Dewey (surprised)—No; Oh no! I don't want sentence pronounced now.

Mr. Dickson—I think he wants to promise obedience to the law in future. So I understood him.

Court—Is that your intention?

Mr. Dewey—Yes, sir.

Court—You understand there is a law against polygamy and unlawful cohabitation. Do you intend to obey that law?

Mr. Dewey—I propose to obey the law.

Court—Your intention is to obey the law?

Mr. Dewey—Yes, sir.

Court—You understand what the law is, and intend to obey it in good faith?

Mr. Dewey—Yes, sir.

Court—Well, if people understand the law, and continue to violate it, I don't want it understood that the court will continue to hold out the inducement that sentence will be suspended in all cases where promise is made. Let the judgment be suspended.

The Court then repeated its remark that it should not be understood that parties who continue to violate the law until arrested, could have sentence suspended on them by promising obedience to the law, and Mr. Dewey departed from the court room.

SQUARELY MET.
NINE "MORMONS" WHO DECLINE TO VIOLATE THEIR CONSCIENCES.

This afternoon was the time set for the sentence of nine Latter-day Saints, who were convicted under the Edmunds law of living with their wives. The Third District Court room was crowded at 2 p. m., a large number of excursionists, who had stopped over in Salt Lake on their way to California, being among the spectators. The first one called to receive sentence was Brother of the Seventh Ward, of this city. The Court asked him, "Have you anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced on you?"

WM. H. FOSTER,

Mr. Foster—No, sir.

Court—Have you no assurance to give that you will obey the law in the future?

Mr. Foster—No, sir.

The Court then sentenced him to the full penalty of the law, six months' imprisonment and a fine of $300 and costs.

BEDSON FARDLEY, also a resident of the Seventh Ward, came next. The same questions were asked by the Court as in the case of Mr. Foster, the same answers given, and a similar penalty imposed.

WM. H. WATSON, of Farmington, was the next in order. Same questions, same answers and same penalty.

EZRA T. CLARK, of Farmington, was then called. He replied to the interrogations of the Court, "I have no promises to make." The full penalty was inflicted on him.

PETER BARKDALE, of Farmington, came next and informed the Court that he had no assurance to give as to his future conduct, and the full penalty was imposed.

HERMANN GROETTER, of the Tenth Ward, was next called. The same questions were put as in the preceding case, same answers given, and same penalty.

JOHN ADAMS, of Centreville, received similar treatment.

JOSEPH HOGAN, of Bountiful, followed in the same path.

JOSEPH BLUNT, of the Twenty-first Ward, was not in when his name was first called, but arrived shortly after, and having no promises to make, he received the extreme sentence.

All of these brethren were placed in the penitentiary this afternoon, to suffer imprisonment for conscience sake.

OGDEN OCCURRENCES.

Delayed Mails Through Storm-bound Trains—The "Liberals" Accept the Situation—Inaugures by Death—General Notes.

News' Special Correspondence.]

OGDEN, Feb. 18, 1887.

The weather we have had for a week past has been variegated. We have had hail, snow, rain, sleet, frost, thaw, clouds and sunshine. These atmospheric changes have made the roads in the settlements almost impassable for teams with even empty vehicles. As a consequence very few of our cousins come to town. There are, however, thought to be indications of an early spring.

For five days past, until to-day, there has been no regular arrival of PASSENGER TRAINS from the west. A snow blockade has been the cause. Indeed, the eastern and northern trails have all been snow bound and the arrivals have all been very irregular. Two of the back trains were expected in from the west to-day.

To-day freight for the north was refused at the depots, as the railroad officials could not tell when it would reach its destination. The season, however, has so far advanced that it will be but a short time, in all probability, before there will be a general break up. Should it be sudden, accompanied by warm weather, which is not improbable, we may look for high waters in our rivers, freshets from the mountains, and floods and wash-outs along the lines of the railroads and in the cañons.

This evening the newly elected city officers expect to receive their commissions. A telephone message was received from Secretary Thomas that the documents had been mailed to-day.

THE OPPOSITION

seem now to have become as far as possible reconciled to the situation, although an absurd rumor was circulated to-day that it had been discovered that Mr. David Eccles was not a citizen of the United States and that in consequence Mr. Kiesel, the Liberal candidate, was the Mayor of the city. But the statement was officially contradicted and the rumor died up.

This afternoon the members of the "old" City Council met, as is supposed, for the last time. The usual routine of business was gone through. The Mayor delivered his valedictory speech, and the unfinished business was laid over to be completed by the new incumbents. The Council adjourned to meet at the call of the Mayor.

To-day the First District Court in Ogden adjourned to meet in Provo, on Monday, the 21st inst. One of the assistant district attorneys told me that there are over a dozen murder cases to be tried at Provo, besides a large number of felonies, larcenies, etc. The term, it is thought, will be a PROTRACTED ONE.

On the 14th inst. Robt. P. Harris, a respected citizen of Ogden, died after a brief but severe illness, of softening of the brain. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place from the Second Ward meeting house, on the 17th. Consoling remarks, suitable to the occasion were made by Elders T. B.

Lewis, D. M. Stuart and C. H. Greenwell. Deceased was forty-four years of age. He came to this country in 1871 and has filled several positions of honor and trust in this city. On the same day another death occurred at Staterville. Serrine Bartholomew died of dropsy. He was a little over 30 years of age. He was born at Lynue, in this county, and was much respected by all who knew him. The funeral took place on the 16th. The services were held in the meeting house. The attendance was very large. After singing by the choir, prayer was offered by Elder John R. Manning. Appropriate discourses were then delivered by Elders Joseph Hall, Ephraim Tillotson, Richard Slater, Sr., and Bishop John A. Allred. A very large cortege then followed the remains to the Ogden cemetery, where they were laid away to rest.

THE HISTORY

of Ogden City is progressing favorably. The citizens are contributing to help the historian to bring out the record. The committee and the writer held a meeting last night, at which a large section of the history was read and approved. The matter is not only interesting but important and concerns deeply the future as well as the present generation of those who inhabit the junction city. About one half of the history proper is written and ready for the type setters. The remainder will be completed with a little delay as possible.

On Thursday James Frances and Albert Staler, of Hoytsville, Summit County, were brought to Ogden, having been arrested by the deputies, charged with unlawful cohabitation. They were taken before the U. S. Commissioner, T. J. Black, when, waiving preliminaries, they were placed under the usual bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

Everything is quiet at present. All are looking for and expecting news of the passage of the Tucker-Edmunds bill. There are a great number of opinions as to whether the President will sign or veto it, if it passes the Senate in its present form. Those who will be the most affected by it seem to be the least concerned about it just now.

We have another of your young townsmen and patrons located here, T. C. Morris, the artistic painter. He is doing excellent work, giving good satisfaction and is building up a solid business.

Among other changes that have taken place here, Mr. Thomas Burt, who has been with Driver & Son for many years, has ceased his connection with the establishment. He was a popular, safe prescriptionist. He has now formed a partnership with his brother in the mercantile business. His successor is Mr. W. B. Clark, who is also an expert at his profession.

MARRIAGES.

EVANS-TEW.—At Logan Temple, February 9th, Charles D. Evans, Jr., son of Bishop Charles D. Evans of Salem, to Miss Anna Bell Tew, daughter of Thomas and Rebecca Tew, of Springville.

On the return of the bride and bridegroom the guests spent a most enjoyable time at the residence of the bride's parents. Songs, recitations and music lent their aid to render the occasion one long to be remembered. Heartly wishes for the happiness and prosperity of the bridal pair were expressed by all present.

DEATHS.

POWELL.—At his home, Payson, Utah, on the evening of February 16th, 1887, of heart disease, David Thomas, son of Wm. and Christina Powell, aged 11 years, 5 months and 1 day.

POULTON.—At Wombourne Common, England, Jan. 2, 1887, of old age, Jane Poulton; born Jan. 30, 1808. She was a faithful member of the Church for twenty years, and departed full of faith in the work.—Millennial Star.
