Chief Justice Stranp says that the question is whether the title is market-able. He declares that a lifle to real estate may be good, but not marketable. For this reason, he sets forth in his dissenting opinion that the purchaser ought not to be compelled to buy a inw suit. He says that a purchaser under such a contract, ought to feel that he could hold the land in peace and be reasonably sure that there was no flaw or doubt that would arise to dis-turb the market value.

County Treasurer J. A. Groesbeck filed an answer Tuesday afternoon in the Third district court to the suit of the Sait Lake lodge of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks to recover $21.89 which had been assessed against the property of the lodge as taxes. The Elks claim that the property is used for charftable purposes and not for for charitable purposes and not for private or corporate gain, and that for this reason it is exempt from taxation under the laws of the state.

Sheriff Joseph C. Sharp returned l'uesday from St. Louis with Daniel Dosich, who is wanted here on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. In the warrant issued for his arrest he is charged with having shot Thomas Starkovich at Garfield on July 8, last. Dosich admitted that he was the man wanted for the shooting and Sheriff Sharp gave him no time to change his mind before he left St. Louis on his return trip. From the manner in which Dosich takked, Sheriff Sharp thinks he mill before and the sheriff Sharp thinks he will plead guilty.

CREOSOTE FOR TUBERCULOSIS.

Beverly Robinson of New York says that he has never found any treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis, either curative or preventive, that is superior to the use of creosote internally and by inhalation, properly used and insisted upon. Sanatoria are useful for the well off, but the poor must be treated at home, and for them the creosote treatment is the most practical one. This treatment is very simple and inexpensive and will cure many patients that would otherwise die .- Medical Record, Nov. 20, 1909.

-MRS, ROMANE'S LECTURE.

In her lecture Tuesday evening, at the residence of Rishop Spalding. Mrs. George Romanes spoke on "Ideals in Life," pleading for more intellectual thought, more idealism in all branches of human endeavor. She held there is nothing that can not be made intel-lectual; no line of work into which the ideal in a broad sense can not be car-ried. Mrs. Roomanes held the Christian church was in need of more idealism. She said: "We have allowed our faith to die down under the attraction on the to die down under the attacks frontier by skirmishers sent out great modern army of disbellaf, the worker-and everyone who by the What great modern army of disbellef. What the worker-and everyone who is a Christian should be a worker-most needs is forever to keep before his mind the settiness of mere controversy and the sreatness of the whole. We can carry this idea into all work, whether it be that of a girl's club, a mother's meet-ing, a mission, a betwee of wood, or any human ocupation. We need more seek-ing after the intellectual, which is a seeking after knowledge. Knowledge is intelligence, and he who seks it is intellectual, no matter what branch of learning he takes up."

AFTER LIQUOR MEN.

Chief Special Agent W. E. Johnson of the Indian service has gone back to Minnesota and Wisconsin to "make things warm" for the liquor men who have been running saloons in the terri-tory included within the treaty with the native Indian tribes. Now that the United States court has interpreted the language of the treaty adversely to the liquor interests, Agent Johnson has a clear field. The saloon men were proclear field. The miloon men were pro-posing to subscribe a fund for ap-pealing the case to the U. S. circuit court of appeals: but they seem to have been seized with "cold feet." and nothing is doing in that line. The gov-ernment officers will do their best to close up every saloon within treaty jur-isdiction which takes in most of the isdiction, which takes in most of the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin. During October, Agent Johnson brought 197 complaints against the saloen men there were 186 arrests, 187 indictments and 94 convictions.
