KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

Dr. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experisons with 'Kendall's' Spawin Cure' has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a home or lameness caused by a spawin. Last season my home became very more and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him out the road he grow worse, when I decovered that a ringbone was forming I procured a bottle of Kandall's Spawin Cure also with less than a bottle oursel him so that he is not also, neither can the bunch be found.

Respectfully yours.—P. M. GRANGER.

KREDALL's Spawin Opts in sum in its effects, mild in the abstracts is done not blater, set it is pensistating and powerful in reach every deep mental pain or to marrive any bony powth or other collegement, such as approach, splints, curtis, salints, surther, swellings, on, lameness and all splangements of the oline or limits, or reasonations in man and or many purpose for which a limited in mental or man or beast. In regard to the work of the demo-cratic Congressional Committee, it is impossible to ascertain what, if anything, is being done, except the sending of a good many speeches. A correspondent who met Gen. Rosecrans, chairman of the executive committee, at the Capitol to-das, asked him where the head-quarters of the committee would be. "They will be in Washington," was the reply. "We are sending out a good many democrats from this building, but we have not yet really established ourselves." "How soon will the committee be ready to begin an active canvass?"

"I think we shall have our work rounded up and in good condition by Sepeember 1st," was the reply.
