THEATRICAL.—We expect there will be a good house this evening to see the tragedy of "Ion," with Miss Ince in the title role, and her sister as Cleopatra. All who love the poetical, the classical and the beautiful in language, will find much to excite their admiration in this great play. Give the fair benefactress a bumper house.

THE MISSIONARIES.—We have been favored with the perusal of a letter to Elder George A. Smith, from Elder George Teasdale, en route to England on a mission, dated New York, August 5th, from which we glean the following: The missionaries with whom he traveled reached Platte City on the 8th of July, in Captain Mumford's train, and after resting a day were sent down to the railroad with a couple of teams. From the end of the track they rode to Laramie by rail in empty trucks for ten cents a mile! There they met brother A. C. Pyper. They also met Elders Winslow Farr, Ferrin, Farnsworth, Glossop, Shaw, Lewis and Bell of the missionaries going east. At Omaha they remained a day, having met Bishop John Brown. Elders H. B. Clemons, F. Farnsworth, J. Glossop and O. B. Shaw went by steamer to St. Louis, on the way to see their friends, thence on to New York. Elders Haden W. Church, T. B. Lewis and Bell left for their fields of labor in the States; and Elders Teasdale, Edmund Eldredge, W. Farr, J. W. Ferrin, L. M. Grant and Hans Peterson took the cars for New York, by way of Chicago and Suspension Bridge. They reached New York after a ride of three days and nights, and found the heat very intense and enervating. Here they met Elders H. B. Clawson, W. C. Staines, D. O. Calder and Heber J. Richards. Elders Grant, Eldredge, Ferrin, Farr and Peterson sailed for Liverpool in the steamship France, on Saturday, July 18th; and on Saturday, the 24th, Elders H. Clemons, Farnsworth, Shaw and Glossop, who had arrived the previous day, took passage on the Virginia, Elder Teasdale having been detained by Elder Clawson to assist in the emigration business in New York.

WELCOME HOME.—We received a call to-day from our old friend, Hon. W. H. Hooper, who is among us once more, radiant with good humor, and well satisfied with the results of his labors as Delegate to Congress from the Territory of Utah. The Captain's health has not been the best, but he is looking much better than we expected to see him, from accounts which we had received. His health is much improved of late, and he is looking very well. A respite from the cares which have pressed upon him, and an opportunity of enjoying the society of his family and friends, breathing our pure mountain air, will enable him to recuperate rapidly. His numerous friends will be glad to hear of his safe arrival and to see him.

STARTING OF TRAINS.—The following trains started from Laramie City at the dates named, with immigrants: Captains Rawlins' and Loveland's trains left July 25th; Captain Murdock's on the 27th, and Captain Haight's on the 28th, with the passengers that came by the Minnesota and John Bright, 1,250 in number. Captain Seeley's train left August 1st, with the Williamsburg passengers, and freight. The first of the trains may reach this city by Saturday or Sunday, though it is difficult to say exactly, since no information has reached yet of their striking the road where a telegraph station is; and the first they would come to, on the road they will most likely travel, would be at Bear River.

Since writing the above, the following telegram has been received from Captain Murdock: Fort Bridger, Aug. 13, 1898. President B. Young—My train is on the way in good condition. Be at Salt Lake the 25th.

SEND IT BACK.—One of our compositors hands us the following: "The person who took away the Dinner bucket, this morning, containing a tolerably good Dinner, will oblige me by leaving his address at this office, and I will send for the bucket."

THE IMMIGRATION.—We have been favored with the following telegram to President Young, which announces the arrival of the Emerald Isle, the last ship of the season. We are relieved to note the mortality among the passengers:

New York, Aug. 12. The last ship, Emerald Isle, has arrived. There have been thirty-seven deaths during the passage, and forty have been sent to hospital; mostly Danish children, with measles.

H. B. CLAWSON.

FUNERAL OBSEQUES.—Through the kindness of Bro. B. Lang, of the 10th Ward, we are placed in possession of the following: Yesterday afternoon the obsequies of Bro. David Fisher, who was accidentally killed in the cañon, were conducted in the 10th Ward School-house, by Bishop J. Proctor and Counselor A. Spiers. After singing by the choir and prayer, Bishop Proctor spoke of the upright character of deceased, during the six years of his residence in the Ward he had lived the life of a Saint. Of a mild and gentle disposition, he was an affectionate husband, a kind parent and a good neighbor. The Bishop's remarks were full of sympathy and condolence to the bereaved. Counselor Spiers followed, corroborating the Bishop's remarks with regard to Bro. Fisher's character, and gave utterance to some timely reflections, on the uncertainty of human life, and the importance of being prepared for such a change, expressing his confidence that Bro. Fisher has passed from death to life, and that he will inherit the promises made to the faithful.

Elders Joseph Taylor and B. Lang, close neighbors to deceased, also spoke of his many good qualities, and expressed their condolence with the bereaved family.

The School-house was filled with many friends who came to pay the last tribute of respect to the remains of deceased. Bro. Fisher was born August 10th, 1839, in Johnston, Renfrewshire, Scotland. He was baptized November 14th, 1852; and emigrated in 1860, crossing the plains in a hand-cart company. During the forenoon yesterday, Bro. Joseph A. Young visited the family, and after expressing his sorrow at the loss and condolence, gave the widow a hundred dollars, with the assurance that she and her family should not want while it was in his power to assist them.
