

BREVITIES.

Shallow waters make most noise.
Bear and forbear is good philosophy.
Truth and roses have thorns about them.

The sting of a reproach is the truth of it.

Was it not for hope the heart would break.

He knows what good is that has endured evil.

That pilgrim is base that speaks ill of his staff.

It is always term time in the court of conscience.

A hypocrite pays tribute to God that he may impose on men.

Within the past ten years nine evening papers have failed in Cincinnati.

Austria is getting breech-loaders from America.

Ireland has but five millions of population.

King Theodore's Christian subjects baptize by immersion.

The Italians are beginning to suspect that King Victor is not quite honest.

Two hundred and fifty oil wells are now being drilled in Pennsylvania.

It costs $5 in silver to curse the Queen in Canada.

London is extending at the rate of two miles of buildings a day.

Clay county (Ill.) added to the attractions of a recent fair a female foot-race. Prize—a handsome dress.

A gallon of strong lye put into a barrel of hard water it is said will make it as soft as rain water.

A good thing for the boot-blacks—the long trails to ladies' dresses in a muddy day.

Tobacco is the solace of 200,000,000 men—and the detestation of as many women.

The N. Y. Times advises those who doubt the personality of the devil to visit that city.

Two thousand cigar makers are on strike in Philadelphia, and the manufacturers will not come down.

Two hundred and thirty-four farms will be sold in Bedford County, Virginia, for arrears of taxes.

A Canada farmer speaks of sowing one barrel of salt to the acre of wheat with decided advantage.

Two thousand men are said to be employed by A. T. Stewart in his New York stores.

Short-hand writers of perfect proficiency are many; while funny, graphic reporters are few.—Com. Adv.

When the ladies at the Court of Sweden got through hugging and kissing Admiral Farragut, they each and all exclaimed—"farry goot!"

Illinois is jubilant at having produced an excellent cotton crop this year. There were 3,000 bales raised in one county.

Don't wait for your fervor to cool before you act. The workmen at a foundry might as well wait for the molten iron to cool before pouring it into the mold.

COUNTERFEITS.—Look out for counterfeit ten dollar bills on the First National Bank, Philadelphia. Six different bills have been offered at one of our banks this week.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

Mr. S. D. Ingham, of Ripley, Ohio, after tormenting his horse to madness with the various prescriptions of horse doctors for the cure of fistula, resorted to cold water, which was poured from a watering-pot upon the sore, and a complete cure was effected in five weeks from two daily applications.

A clergyman was once sent for in the middle of the night by one of the ladies of his congregation. "Well, my good woman," said he, "so you are very ill, and require the consolations of religion? What can I do for you?" "No," replied the old lady, "I am only nervous and can't sleep." "How can I help that?" asked the parson. "Oh! sir, you always put me to sleep so nicely when I go to church, that I thought if you would only preach a little for me!" The parson "made tracks."
