Admission free. The public are respectfully invited to attend. The lecture commences at 7 o'clock. d50

Utah Northern.—We are informed that a train for the north, on the Utah Northern Railroad, will leave Ogden at 8.20 a.m. to-morrow, Sunday, for the benefit of those persons attending Conference from Northern Utah and Southern Idaho, whose business may require them to return home on that day. Conference tickets, however, will remain good until and for Monday next, April 12. d50

More Missionaries.—The following names of missionaries were called this afternoon in conference, to go to the countries named: d50

Peter J. Lammer, Ogden, instead of August Tietzen, Santaquin, released. d50

UNITED STATES AND CANADA. Riley Judd, Grantsville. d50

BRITISH ISLES. Thomas James Bellowston, Sen., Nephi. d50

Not Recovered.—It will be remembered that Brother Joseph Robinson was terribly injured last Fall, on North Temple Street, caused by his team running away. He was so severely hurt in the back as to paralyze his body from the loins downward. We regret to learn that he has not recovered yet, but hopes are entertained that he will yet regain the use of his limbs, as sensation is gradually, though very slowly, returning to them. d50

Theatre.—There was an able and satisfactory performance of "A Wonderful Woman" and "Bowled Out," at the Theatre last night. d50

This evening the programme is the thrilling drama of "The Hidden Hand" and the popular farce of "Betsey Baker." In the drama Miss Cogswell appears as "Clara Day," Miss Clawson as "Capitola Black," Mrs. Douglas as "Dorcas Knight," Mrs. Napper as "Pit-a-Pat," Mr. Marden as "Major Warfield," Mr. Lindsay as "Donald Donaldbain," Mr. Forster as "Col. Le Noir," Mr. Wilton as "Hubert Grayson." In the farce Mr. Margels appears as "Marmaduke Mouser," Mr. Marden as "Mr. Crummy," Miss Walters as "Betsey Baker," and Mrs. Douglas as "Mrs. Mouser." d50

George Reynolds Sentenced.—Mr. George Reynolds, convicted of polygamy a short time since, appeared in the Third District Court this morning, with his attorneys, for the purpose of receiving the judgment of the court. In sentencing the respondent his honor, Judge Emerson, remarked in substance that it was not the severity of the law that tended to deter people from perpetrating criminal acts, and he did not wish, as a representative of the government, to appear vindictive; he therefore sentenced the respondent to be imprisoned in the Territorial penitentiary, at hard labor, for one year, and to pay a fine of three hundred dollars. d50

Mr. Reynolds entered into a bond of $5,000, to abide the decision of the Supreme Court of the Territory, John Sharp, Esq., and Hon. W. Jennings being sureties. d50

There was some discussion between the U. S. District attorney and the attorneys of the defendant relative to the mode of taking an appeal as prescribed by law. d50

Special Meeting Z. C. M. I.—At a special meeting this afternoon of the Z. C. M. I. stockholders, in the New Tabernacle, it was resolved that the Institution should build a store and warehouses in which to conduct its business; that the selling part of the business should be conducted at both wholesale and retail; and that a committee of seven stockholders be appointed to consider the kind of building to be erected, and the site therefor. The following gentlemen were appointed said committee: d50

G. Q. Cannon, D. O. Calder, N. Grosbeck, John Sharp, E. Woolley, G. Romney, A. Miner, H. Grow, A. O. Smoot, A. M. Cannon, A. Rockwood, H. S. Eldredge, J. P. Freeze, Anson Call, J. Winder, W. Woodruff, W. Price. d50

The committee were requested to meet at President Young's office at 7 o'clock this evening. d50

At a meeting of the Directors held subsequent to the stockholders' meeting, H. B. Clawson and Theodore McKean, Esqs., were appointed to superintend the business of the Institution, to succeed Hon. W. H. Hooper, whose resignation took effect on the 6th inst. d50

The Odding Moth.—The adjourned meeting at the Old Tabernacle, last evening, convened for the purpose of adopting efficient measures for the destruction of the odding moth, was: numerous attended, W. Woodruff in the chair. d50

Thomas H. Woodbury, John Reading and James McKnight, the committee appointed on the previous evening, presented the following resolutions, which were adopted: d50

"Resolved, That we adopt, for the destruction of the odding moth, the plan suggested in the article published in the DESERET NEWS of February 11th, 1875, as affording the best method at present in our possession. d50

"Resolved, That united, intelligent and unremitting efforts be indispensable to stop the further ravages of the moth. d50

"Resolved, That the bishop of each ward or settlement appoint a man to take the oversight of the work, and that he appoint one or more persons on each block, as he may deem necessary, to assist him; whose business it shall be to give the people all needed information and see that the work is prosecuted with earnestness and vigor. d50

"Resolved, That the Horticultural Society of Salt Lake City are requested to publish, from time to time, all information they may derive from any source, which will in any degree aid in the promotion of the fruit-growing and fruit-producing interest of the Territory." d50

On Thursday evening a resolution was adopted by the meeting, that persons writing articles on the destruction of the moth, designed for publication, should first send their communications to the Horticultural Society of this City, for approval or disapproval. d50

The Other Case.—Mr. Sutherland, one of the defendant's counsel in the case of the People &c., vs. George Q. Cannon, indicted for lasc. cohab., made an attempt to dispose of that case this afternoon. The U. S. District Attorney stated that he was not ready, and it was agreed by the attorneys on each side and by the Court that the matter should be submitted on briefs, which the Court will examine at leisure and give his decision, probably at an early day. d50

The Reynolds Appeal.—The appeal to the Supreme Court of the Territory of the defendant in the case of the People, &c., vs. George Reynolds, convicted of polygamy, was perfected this afternoon, the U. S. District Attorney reserving the privilege of throwing any additional light on the mode of perfecting that may happen, to strike him in future. d50

Lost.—A poor man, from a country settlement, accidentally dropped his pocket book yesterday, on Main street, containing about fourteen dollars in currency. The finder will do an act of kindness and receive the grateful thanks of the owner if he will hand it in to this office. d50

Probate Court.—In the Probate Court of this county, to-day, a decree of divorce was granted in the matter of the application of Mary Anderson vs. William Anderson. The applicant is daughter to Mr. C. H. Bassett, of this City. d50

Firemen, Attention!—The members of the Wasatch Fire Company are requested to meet at Fireman's Hall, to-night, at half past seven o'clock, to elect a board of directors for the Wasatch Firemen's Relief Fund. d50

W. D. STANTON, Sec'y. d50

Spring at Last.—The Winter seems to have broken again, and Spring to have re-appeared this beautiful day. d50

This afternoon 10 4/2 75 d50
