SUGAR COMPANY'S ANNUAL MEETING.

The Utah Corporations' Stockholders Listen to Favorable Reports.

VERY PROSPEROUS OUTLOOK.

Farmers Receive Over $700,000 for Beets - Acreage at Garland Will More Than Double This Year.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Utah Sugar company was held at the office of the company in the Deseret News Annex at 5 o'clock last evening. There was a strong representation of stockholders present from all part of the state. The vice president of the company, Thos. R. Cutier, was chosen chairman of the meeting, and H. G. Whitney was elected secretary. The only business of the meeting was the reading of the reports of the officers for the fiscal year ending March 31st, and these showed the company to be in a most prosperous condition. The figures submitted showed the result of the 14th season's rur at the Lehi factory, the second sea-son at Garland, the second year of the power plant at Bear river, and the third year of the canal system in Bear River valley. The figures, giving a comparison with the number of days worked, number of seres planted, number of tons of beets produced, amount of wages paid, etc., in 1903 and 1904 were read and substantial increases were noted in favor of the last year's operations. The amount paid the farmers for beets exceeded $700,000 for the year. The product of the two factories exceeded $2,000,000 lbs of sugar, valued at $1,700,000. The plant at Lehi was in operation 101 days; that at Gar-land 59 days. The report showed that during the first year the company had during the first year the company had paid 7 per cent dividends on its preferred stock, and the first quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on its commen stock, and these dividends will be continued quarterly hereafter. The treasurer's report stated that sugar collections during the year had amounted to over $1,400,600, in the course of which not one dollar had been lost through bad accounts. through bad accounts.

CHIN DISTURBS CHINATOWN LIFE

The Return of Former Mayor to Plum Alley Makes Some Trouble.

DR. CHEUNG FINDS NEW RIVAL

Fears for His Safety and Declares That Chin Has Made Threats Against Him.

There is a new power in Chinatown, and the readjustment of civic privileges in the Plum alley district consequent to it is not being brought about without friction. Ten days ago Chin Quan Chan was released from the custody of the United States to live in his dd Plum alley haunts a free man. For 25 years or more he had held undisputed authority over affairs of the alley, but he know finds that in the months that have elapsed since he began his long fight with the government to return from a brief visit to China, other powers have acquired the first place, and received Chinese patronage. Chin did not find this condition to his liking, with the result that there is an active feud in progress between the tive feud in progress between the time mayor and a new usurper, Dr. Chin Cheung, Chin Quan Chan de-clares that Chin Cheung must appear before a council of Chinamen and anwer certain charges which he is ready o place against him. Dr. Chin Cheung and his whole family are in mortal dread of Chin Quan Chan and declare that two Sundays back he pulled a gun on Mrs. Chin Cheung and threat-ened to kill her and all the people who had anything to do with the proceed-ings at Port Townsend that resulted in the refusal to let him land in October, the refusal to let him land in October, 1993. The Chin Cheang children, who are bright little girls and speak English excellently, say that they never put their faces out of their back door, which is near the front of Chin Quan Chan's front door, without him or some of his family coming out to swear at them. They have even gone so far as to hunt up Deputy United States Marshal Page and ask his advice as to what they had better do to protect themselves. Neille Cheung says that she was with her mother on the Sunday morning when Chan came out of his house with a gun, and made the threat, "Mother had gone out to pick up a

"When Cheung senior heard the talk that evening from the excited members of the household, he, too, became alarmed as to his safety, and went to see an attorney about it. To the law-yer he explained that if he should happen to disappear suddenly and without any apparent knowledge available as to what became of him, the lawyer would conclude that Chan had done the deed because Chan was holding him responsible for his detention at Port Townsond, and had threatened to kill him with all his friends and family.

An Amusiug Incident in a Civil Suit For Recovery of Rent.

An amusing incident occurred in the ivil division of the city court yesterday afternoon during the trial of the case of the Zion's Savings Bank & Trust company against Fred Schellenberger and wife. The case was being heard by Judge Whitaker, and Mrs. Schellenberger was being examined through an interpreter, she being unable to speak English. The action was brought to recover possession of a certain house in which defendants live and also certin rent money.

The woman claimed that she had a receipt for the rent up to and including the month of December, 1905. In ans-wer to a question by her attorney she laughingly said that Lewis M. Cannon had given her the receipt for a year's rent under condition that she should be sealed to him. When asked if she was ever sealed to him she replied that she was not because she had one man and that was enough. Her testimony and that was enough. Her testimony caused a general outburst of laughter

It developed during the trial that the receipt was for the month of Dec. 1905, but that it was intended for Dec. 1904, and the other date was simply a clerical error. It also developed that the tent to remain at home.

Nebuchadnezzar and Daniel's interpretation of it, as an evidence that the ancient phophets knew much concernancient phophets knew much concerning the days in which we live. Part of Daniel's words to the king declared that in the days of the kings, which he enumerated the God of heaven would set up a kingdom. In like manner Isalah could not have described more accurately the condition of the Saints if he had lived and written these words in our day: "And it shall come to n our day: "And it shall come to bass in the last days that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the tops of the mountains; and all people shall flow unto it." Other passages of the ancient prophets were quoted in support of the same great truth. These marvelous prophecies have received a literal fulfilment in our day. The speaker bore testimony that this is the work of God, and that these prophets were true; and declared that any man who sought to destroy the work of God was measuring arms with the great Jehovah.

Elder Clawson rejoiced in the fruits hich the work of the Lord had borne 75 years. He concluded by bearing strong testimony to the truth.

OBJECT TO AGREEMENT.

Judge and District Attorney Interfere In Bounty Frauds Cases.

There was evidently a misunderstanding somewhere in regard to the entence which Charles W. Jones, Ed Hanna and Henry Martin were to receive in consideration of their turning state's evidence in the bounty fraud cases and their arraignment, together with those of David B. Davies and Will E. Phillips, was delayed somewhat in Judge Ritchie's court this afternoon. It is understood that the first three men were to plead guilty in the district court to the charge of conspiracy, and were to testify for the state against Davies and Phillips. It was also agreed that in consideration of their testimony they were to be given a six nonths' term in the county jail. Judge Ritchie and Distirct Attorney Loofbouow objected to any such arrangement s that made at the preliminary hearas that made at the premininary nearing. They both contended that the maximum penalty for the offense, nameity, one year in the county jail, was littie enough for the crime and would not consent to a lighter sentence.

The Deseret News,

Only Sailing Vessels

Are bothered by "calms." The steamship does not have to wait for a breeze. And in the business world only the store that does not advertise (or that does not advertise enough) is bothered by "dull days."

Money used to buy advertising space in the "News" is money wisely spent-it always comes back with Interest.
