CHICAGO, 7.

An Inter-Ocean Green Bay special says, the reports of the ravages of the fire at Eaton, Wisconsin, has been overdrawn. Over thirty families have been burned out, and in many instances the entire crop is destroyed. The loss is estimated at $13,000. No lives were lost.

WILKESBARRE, 7.—An attempt to move some trains at Wanamie, last evening, failing, owing to the strikers uncoupling the engine from the cars, the sheriff went out to-day with United States troops, and there was no further interference.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., 7.—Dr. J. B. Armstrong, a leading physician, was shot and killed in the northern suburbs of this city at 9 o'clock to-night. He was returning from a visit to a patient. The cause of the murder is a mystery.

WASHINGTON, 7.

Copp's Landowner for August contains the following list of patents issued for mining claims in Utah: Salt Lake County—Henry M. Henderson et al., Emily Mine; Tooele County—Union Manufacturing Company of Utah, Stephen A. Douglas Mine; Joseph Tilney et al., Wandering Boy Mine; Joseph Tilney et al., Silver Circle Mine.

Returns from all custom districts, in imports and exports during the fiscal year which ended June 30th, 1877, show a total exports (special value) of $602,474.51; total imports, $451,307.54; excess of exports over imports, $151,167.02.

Gen. Kimball, Surveyor General of Utah, who some time ago was suspended by the Secretary of the Interior, will leave for home tomorrow, being satisfied that his case is favorably considered by the President and Cabinet, and that he will be reinstated in his office.

LOUISVILLE, 7.—A special to the Courier-Journal, dated Harrodsburg, Ky., says two serious shooting affairs occurred yesterday in Washington co., one in which John Butterfield shot and killed John Butler. This affair was the result of a previous difficulty over a sack of flour. Gardner's store, near Millersburg, was where the other fight occurred, in which several families took part, and was the renewal of a former fracas. Several of the Royalties, Gardners, Cases and Sheridans were participants. One man, Sheridan, was shot through the head and killed outright. Gardner was shot in the arm and one of the Cases in the wrist. Twenty or thirty shots were fired. Probably others are wounded whose names could not be learned.

GALVESTON, 7.—A San Antonio special says, bullies crossed the Rio Grande on the 4th, recaptured five stolen horses and returned to the Texas side. On the 5th, Major Schofield arrested forty-five Valdez filibusterers at Eagle Pass. Valdez himself was at Laredo, and a warrant was issued for his arrest, but he escaped.

SAN FRANCISCO, 7.—John E. Daily, stockbroker, was shot and killed to-day by Leslie C. Hanks, consul-general for Guatemala, in this city. The trouble grew out of a trifling disagreement last Saturday, between Hanks and Emil Kuranda, Daily's partner. Daily took up the quarrel yesterday and worsted Hanks in a personal encounter. The bystanders state that Hanks approached Daily from behind and shot him without warning. Hanks claims that Daily approached him threateningly with a heavy cane and he fired in self-defense. Hanks is in confinement awaiting examination. Daily was formerly a broker in New York, and has a family in New Haven. Hanks was formerly a member of the shipping firm of J. C. Merrill & Co. Both occupied a high social position and were in easy circumstances.

HELENA, Mont., 8.—W. J. McCormick, of Missoula, writes to Gov. Potts, on the 6th, as follows: A courier arrived from Howard at 6 o'clock this evening. He left Howard on Saturday morning last. He thinks Howard will camp near the summit, between Lolo and Clearwater, to-night. He is distant about fifty miles from the mouth of the Lolo. The courier reports that Joseph, with over one-half of his fighting force, has gone to the head of Bitter Root Valley, by the Elk City trail, and will form a junction with Looking Glass and White Bird, near Ross Hole. He says Howard has 750 men and 450 pack mules, and is moving forward as rapidly as possible.

Advices from Upper Bitter Root, say, the Indians will camp, to-night, in Ross Hole. Gibbon is following rapidly.

Other advices say, the Indians were still at Doolittle's, sixteen miles above Cornwallis, and Gen. Gibbon was expected to strike them on the morning of the 7th, before they broke camp. The couriers say the hostiles have Mrs. Manuel with them, as the property of a petty chief called Cucasenilo. Her sad history is familiar.

NEW YORK, 8.

A dastardly outrage was committed, yesterday, at the New York aquarium. Many of the most valuable and rare fishes were poisoned by persons unknown. It is impossible to replace some of the varieties.

Advices from Hayti state that a revolution has again broken out in that republic. The insurgents are in force about ten miles from Port-au-Prince. Port-au-Prince is declared in a state of siege. A large portion of the city was fired and the conflagration continued for two days. President Casat was unpopular with the native element from his known feeling of cordiality with foreign merchants and foreigners in general. He is suspected, accordingly, on that account. He is a good soldier, and however strong the foreign element may be, it cannot protect him from the designs of those who seek to gain the object of their ambition by assassination. General Salomon, a black man, formerly minister to England under the imperial rule of Solouque, is the present aspirant to office, and says when he gets into power the colored men and white men may both look as black as the republic. He will make the streets of Port-au-Prince rivers with the blood of both of them. A long and important dispatch from the United States minister has been sent to the State Department on the subject of American interests in the present crisis.

SAN FRANCISCO, 8.—About one o'clock this morning, Hanks, who killed Daily, yesterday, was found dead in his cell in the city prison. By some unknown means he had obtained possession of a Springfield rifle, some of which are stored in that part of the prison, and placing the muzzle to his breast, drew the trigger with his foot. He left a note saying the suicide was the coolest act of his life.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., 8.

Miss E. T. Burke, a wealthy lady of Cleveland, Ohio, was missed from her room in the Oakland Beach Hotel. This morning, at seven o'clock, her body was found in the water. She probably jumped from the second story window of the hotel and drowned herself. She was in poor health.

FOREIGN

BELFAST, 6.—The Nationalists, to-day, held a demonstration, celebrating the birth of O'Connell. Disturbances occurred in several parts of the town. Some houses were wrecked and a number of persons wounded. Up to a late hour the military, infantry and cavalry were patrolling the streets.

LONDON, 6.—An official dispatch, published in St. Petersburg, admits the loss of upwards of 5,000 men at Plevna, including one colonel killed, and a major general and two colonels wounded. The dispatch admits that General Gourko has been obliged to retreat.

A Zara special says, after seven hours engagement, on August 4th, the insurgents, under General Despotovich, were defeated with great loss. Despotovich with 300 followers crossed the frontier, into Austrian territory, where he was interned and disarmed.

Russian reinforcements numbering 15,000, have crossed the frontier and occupied a strong position to the north of Ani, thus threatening the right flank of the centre of the Ottoman army. The Russian centre is divided into three columns at Ani, Golveran and Kurukdara. It numbers in all sixty eight battalions of infantry, sixteen batteries, and 8,500 cavalry.

A telegram from Bucharest announces that Mehemet Ali and Osman Pasha have defeated the Russians at Tirnova, with a loss of 15,000 killed and wounded. The Czar has gone back to Frateshti.

It is officially announced that it has been decided to form a camp of 70,000 men, near the capital in consequence of the recent appearance of the Russian steamer Constantine off Kilia, near the mouth of the Bosphorus. A corps of observation has been sent thither. Admiral Hornby, commanding the British fleet at Besika Bay, has visited the fortifications of Gallipoli.

In consequence of the Turks showing no disposition to pursue, the orders first given to Prince Schackosky and Gen. Krudener to retire on the Osma river, have been countermanded. They have taken up their positions occupied before the battle.

Prince Milan, when at Ploiesti, received permission from the Czar to participate in the campaign.

LONDON, 7.

It is reported there is much sickness in the Russian army at Dobrudzha.

A dispatch from Constantinople says, in a naval engagement in the Sulind River the Turkish ironclads attacked seven Russian gunboats and destroyed two of them.

The first instalment of reinforcements for Cuba, 1,000 men, will leave Spain on August 15.

BUCHAREST, 7.—There is some want of provisions among the troops between sistova and Tirnova on account of the difficulty in procuring wagons to transport supplies along the Roumanian side of the river.

London special says, Tilden is spending his time here at present. Arriving in London at the close of the season, opportunities to pay his attentions are extremely limited. He is avoiding social displays, however, as much as possible. This morning he took breakfast at the Buckingham Palace Hotel. Among the guests were Bigelow, Corland, Parker, Sir Charles Dik, Tom Hughes, Frank H. Hill, and others. In the evening he dined at the American embassy. The Lord Chancellor and other distinguished guests were present. Tilden proposes to visit Ireland, and afterward go to Paris, returning to the United States in October. He is in remarkably good health and spirits.

Hendricks is now in Paris. He proposes to return to London in a few days.

LONDON, 7.—The Porte has issued a circular, recounting the horrible massacres perpetrated by Cossacks and Bulgarians. These include the burning alive of seventy Musulman of the village of Ayukelim, and the cold blooded murder of forty others, as well as women and children. The circular declares that an English military attaché has ascertained the truth of the allegations.

The Bosnian insurrection is ended. The insurgents are crossing into Dalmatia and being interned on one of the islands in the Adriatic.

Russians are concentrating in great force on Lom river. An attack on Rasgrad is thought imminent.

It has been officially reported that the Russians are no longer this side of the Balkans.

According to official news from Constantinople, Mehemet Ali intends to convert Rasgrad into a fortified camp. The forces concentrated in the neighborhood consist of forty-eight battalions of infantry, fifteen batteries and eighty-two squadrons of cavalry—altogether 40,000 men.

There is appalling misery among Bulgarians and Turkish fugitives from Eski-Saghra and the neighborhood. There are from 10,000 to 15,000, of whom 500 are wounded. Many are dying on the road from exhaustion and starvation. All are destitute of every necessary of life.

PARIS, 7.—An American named Biggar has been arrested by a police spy in the south of France for having called President MacMahon an ass at the table d'hôte. The United States charge d'affaires has sent counsel to see fair play, and to send a report if the charge is untrue.

ATHENS, 7.—Many of the villages in the district of Volo having refused to pay taxes, the Turks have placed six guns before the gates of the city and threatened to bombard the town on the first sign of insurrection. Great uneasiness prevails in Thessaly and Epirus.

LONDON, 8.—A special from Alexandria says, it is rumored that the Abyssinians are massing troops on the Egyptian frontier, and threaten a descent on Egyptian territory, unless the traitor Waddamikal is delivered up immediately.

India Council bills were allotted, to-day, at 10 per rupee advance.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 1.—Some horrible disclosures have been made as to the treatment of boys in the government reformatory, who were so ill fed, only getting bread on Sunday, and one salt herring to eight youths, according to the testimony of Dr. Campbell, the medical officer. Whenever they got their liberty they rushed to the pig's trough, and ravenously ate the putrid offal and food that had been thrown there for the swine.

Visit from President R. Young—Crops—Fire—the Election.

OGDEN CITY, Utah,
August 6th, 1877.

Editors Deseret News:

On the 3rd inst. we had a very pleasant visit from Prests. Brigham Young, D. H. Wells, Elders W. H. Hooper and E. Eldredge, Bishop John Sharp, and others from Salt Lake City. While here the Presidents transacted some business and gave much valuable instruction in relation to the material interest—present and future—of the people of this city and county, which I believe those who heard will remember and profit by.

We have in this county day and Sabbath Schools in session in every Ward, all of which are well attended and the scholars are making very good and satisfactory progress in their studies. The teachers are faithful, vigilant and persevering in the delightful task of teaching the young and rising generation.

The returns received from the various settlements in this county in regard to crops are very cheering—cereals of all kinds are abundant. The prospect for fruit is excellent—apples have already flooded the market in this place—the finest quality at this time fetch but two cents per pound. With the exception of one or two settlements the grasshoppers have done little or no damage in Weber county this year.

The election to-day passed off very quietly. The voting was peaceably and pleasantly done. No rowdiness or drunkenness during the day. The polls opened at the hour designated in the morning and closed at sun-down in the evening. The "Liberals" worked faithfully and with a zeal worthy of a better cause, especially toward the close of the day. The entire vote polled in the city is one of the lightest we have known for a long time, amounting altogether to only six hundred and seven (607) votes, the large majority were cast for the People's Ticket. Up to this time I have heard no definite returns from the other election precincts, but as far as I have heard the People's Ticket is far in advance of the other.

About half past seven to-night the town was again thrown into excitement by the alarm of fire. I am thankful, however, to say the conflagration, though very bright, was also very slight and of brief duration. The cause of the alarm was a mosquito-bar, from some accident, took fire in the room of Mr. Greenwell, over the Bank in Main Street. The alarm spread quicker than the flames, which were speedily extinguished. The fire brigade were soon out in force and ready for action, but their services were not needed, and they returned to their quarters.

The weather here during the day is still very warm, but the nights are cool and pleasant, thus rendering sleep and rest more refreshing than it was a short time since. The health of the people here is tolerably good, still some are afflicted with summer complaints.

Yours truly,

SEMPER.

P. S. The vote for this city is counted, and stands thus—

For the People	- 459
For the "Liberals"	148
Total	- 607

Tooele Election.

TOOELE CITY,
August 6th, 1877.

Editors Deseret News:

Our elections for territorial, county, and municipal officers has come and gone. The day was ushered in by hoisting of the stars and stripes, but there was not enough breeze to cause it to float gracefully, at 6 o'clock a. m. Prof.

Thomas Croft's band furnished music for all. Everything passed off quietly, no drunkenness, no boisterous language. All seemed to vie with each other to see who could conduct himself the most manly.

The precinct of Tooele City polled 276 votes, a small gain for the People's ticket.

The vote for municipal officers stood as follows—

For Mayor	Robt. Skelton	197
"	John Rowberry	54
"	John McLaws	2
For Alderman	W. H. Lee	245
"	Jas. Dunn	247
"	John Tate	2
"	C. A. Haman	1
"	Wm. Dunn	3
For Councilor	Geo. Craner	249
"	Thos. Atkin, Jr.	252
"	Mathias Nelson	251
"	C. A. Herman	1
"	S. F. Lee	1

The most interest was on the question of fence or no fence. By an order of the County Court this was to be voted for at this General Election, each precinct voting for or against as for precinct officers. It is supposed that this and Bates Ranch Precinct have gained the no fence by a small majority, which shows that the inhabitants of those places mean to establish a new era for the raising of grain, the improvement of all kinds of stock, and build up industries that will cause our population to increase 100 per cent. in five years.

We are ever regretting what we do, and ever doing what we regret.—E. J.

A boy in Corning, N. Y., was playing with an old horse the other day, a sort of friend of the family animal, when it playfully seized him by the left ear, bit off the lower half of it, and swallowed the morsel.

Several county clerks in Indiana announce that they will grant no marriage licenses to minors, without the written consent of parents or guardians. This action is due to a great number of elopements in that region lately.

The American after-dinner orator in Egan will soon be able to say: "Speaking the same language, glorying in the same literature, of the same blood, and subject to the same potato bug," etc.—Cincinnati Commercial.

A bill of indictment recently found against a Chautauque (Teon.) councilman for bribe-taking was quashed the other day, because "it is not a crime against a state for an alderman of the city to accept a bribe for his vote."

An "Amusement"—"Madam, has your piano an attachment?" asked Sam the other night, of the wife of a man who appeared to have fully up to, if not beyond his means.

"Hu h!" whispered Seth in his ear, "it has a short attachment."

A rich manufacturer placed over the entrance to his factory the motto "Ora et Labora." A jour cynic who was in search of work approached the head bookkeeper as he was crossing the yard and asked: "Are you Mr. Ora?" "No," replied the latter, pointing to a window where his empty rat sat smoking a Havana, "there is Ora. I am Labora."

Not long since a preacher of our acquaintance decored a pond in which he had seen many fine fish, and brought it into an illustration in one of his discourses. On the following Sunday morning six deacons were missing from their pews, but when the pastor took a stroll after service he saw the absentees sitting on the verdant bank of that identical pond, and half a dozen corks were bobbing on the surface of that stream.—New York Dispatch.

THE certain, speedy and harmless remedy for children, is Pitcher's Castoria. It is as pleasant to take as honey and as certain in its effects as Castor Oil. For Wind, Colic, Worms, Sour Stomach, and Disordered Bowels, there is nothing like Castoria.
