

Y. M. C. A. DEFEATS L. D. S. U. TEAM

Four Basketball Aggregations Now Tied for the State Championship.

WON BY SCORE OF 27 TO 17.

University Boys Failed to Play Their Usually Brilliant Game and Therefore Lost.

Last night's basketball game between the Y. M. C. A. and L. D. S. U. teams, resulted in victory for the association boys by a score of 27 to 17. The victory places the men in line for the state championship and they stand an excellent chance of carrying off the honors. They are now tied with the L. D. S. U. and B. Y. U. aggregations and they will put up a hard fight before giving up the struggle for the championship.

In last evening's game the association team played the L. D. S. U. boys. The latter did not play their usually brilliant game and the result was defeat. In the first half their work was decidedly poor but they did better in the second. The association team excelled in basket work from the field and were good at passing the ball. The guarding of Holmstrom was perfect. Not once did Taylor, the star thrower for the victory score a basket. Hammond proved to be the star of the game in throwing, making ten points for his team by his overhand work while going back from his guard.

The game was witnessed by a large crowd of basketball enthusiasts. The box up was as follows:

Y. M. C. A.	L. D. S. U.
Hammond..... 17	Miller..... 1
Ketelf..... 10	Taylor..... 1
Hofman..... 10	Horsfall..... 1
Holmstrom..... 10	Anderson..... 1
Bloomer..... 10	R.G..... 1

Field goals—Miller, 3; Horsfall, 1; Anderson, 1; Hammond, 5; Metcalf, 1; Hofman, 2; Holmstrom, 2. Goals from free throw—Metcalf, 1; missed Taylor, 6; missed Miller, 1; missed R. G. 1. Referee and umpire—Brown and Milne.

THREE FINGERED BROWN'S FUNNY EXPERIENCE

"I've had many peculiar inquiries concerning that missing finger on my pitcher's hand," Brown, the star thrower of the Chicago, said the other morning, "but the strangest of all occurred in the south during our training this spring."

"One of the many recruits that President Murphy took on the trip was a twirler by the name of Purdie. He was rather an enigma to the majority of the players, who did not know whether to take his funny little twirling and as jokes or whether Purdie really was serious about them."

"One day, while we were gathered in the hotel lobby discussing things in general and nothing in particular, Purdie came over to me and said: 'Brown, let me see what's left of that pitching mitt of yours.'"

"I pushed out the mitt and he said: 'And after he had examined it closely he said: 'And you mean to tell me it is in that shape?'"

"I confessed that I did."

"Well, I swear," he replied, "and how did you lose the finger?"

"I told him that I had chopped it off in a feed cutter and that the remaining three fingers were broken at the same time."

"He deliberately reached down into his pocket, pulled out an indelible pencil and marked a line across his pitcher's hand that corresponded to the cuts on mine."

"When I got home I'm going to put in a feed cutter and cut it off," he said, solemnly, "and maybe I'll get to be a star twirler."

"And when we left him in Nashville the marks were still on his hand."

SPORTING ANNUAL OUT.

W. D. Rishel, a Salt Lake sporting writer, has just issued a sporting annual for 1908. The work shows careful preparation and the little book is of great value to those who follow sporting events in Utah. The annual gives the time and place of all the sporting events and a great deal of other valuable and accurate information. The book is a overlooked and records are correctly given.

EVER WATCHFUL

A Little Care Will Save many Salt Lake City Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health. The discharge not excessive or infrequent. Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick. John W. West, living at 100 43, Twelfth East St., Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at the F. J. Hill Drug Co., proved to be a remedy of great merit in removing kidney complaint. I have suffered a great deal from pains in my loins and back accompanied by a disordered condition of my kidneys. This was especially noticeable at night when I would have to arise many times. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I have not had any pains or aches since. I can conscientiously recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others suffering from kidney trouble."

on the possibility of a fight with Tommy Burns.

"We offer Burns 75 per cent of the purse if Johnson fails to stop him in twenty rounds, and will cut the money in two with him if he goes that far. Of course, if he beats Johnson, he gets the 75 per cent. These terms, I think, are very liberal and I fail to see how Tommy can refuse to meet Jack without admitting that he is afraid of the negro."

"A purse of $25,000 is waiting for the men any time they will get together. Matchmaker Jim Coffroth, of the Colman fight club, being behind this offer. If Burns comes back in March, we ought to be able to get the men into the ring in July, maybe on the Fourth, the anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg."

"I believe that I have a good man in Johnson, and I feel certain that he will beat Burns. I do not mean that it will be a hard man to whip, but I think that Johnson has the goods."

"In addition to the $25,000 standing as a forfeit go as a side bet."

"Johnson is a big man, a very strong and in addition he is as quick as a light-weight. As far as weight is concerned, Johnson will have about two pounds on the present champion will have the advantage in reach."

"If we can't get a match with Burns, I am willing to match Johnson against any one in the world, including Jeffries. I have a chance, in case Tommy imposes conditions that make it impossible for my man to have any fair chance. I will leave it to the public to say whether we are entitled to claim the championship or not."

"Johnson is fully as confident of beating Burns as is his manager in his ability to turn the fight into a draw or a win for him in about twelve rounds," said he yesterday afternoon, "but of course, I have to be a little more cautious in saying it out than what I make it so."

FIGHT POSTPONED.

London, Jan. 29.—The fight between Tommy Burns and Jack Palmer of Newcastle, which was scheduled for February 10, has been postponed until February 10.

WORLD'S RECORD BROKEN.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 29.—At the tournament of the indoor 22-caliber rifle league today, Harry G. Harrison of Rochester lowered the world's record in the rapid firing contest, scoring 514 in 17 shots, landing in 90 seconds.

COULON BEATS MURPHY.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 29.—Johnny Coulon of Chicago won the decision in a ten-round fight tonight over Ed Murphy of New York, before the Peoria Athletic club.

CHILE'S MONEY TROUBLE.

Chile is also having a financial crisis, and that is a country, too, in which much capital was destroyed by earthquake following the San Francisco disaster. There is no doubt a moderate degree of relationship between these two phenomena in both countries. The destruction of large amounts of property through war, fire, earthquake, or other cause should be spoken of, however, as an occasion rather than a cause of financial crisis. It brings expanding industry with greater vigor up against a repressive scarcity in the supply of new capital which has been diverted to restore the old capital destroyed.—Springfield Republican.

WILLMAN AFTER SECY. CORTLEYOU

Says That He is Putting on the Airs of a President Before He is Elected.

SENT IN A PRINTED REPORT.

Should First Have Been Sent to Senate And Let That Body Decide As to Printing It.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The reply of Secy. Cortleyou to the senate resolution, calling for information concerning the operations of the treasury department in connection with the recent financial crisis, was laid before the senate today by the vice president. The document was not read, but a printed copy of it was on the desk of each senator. Mr. Culberson inquired of the vice president whether the pamphlet contained all the secretary's communication. The vice president said he had not examined the report, and did not know whether the pamphlet contained all of the message.

"I don't recall an instance," said Mr. Culberson, "in which a head of a department of the government has answered a senate resolution in printed form."

"I ask the senator from Massachusetts," broke in Senator Tillman, turning to Senator Lodge, "who is such a stickler for senatorial dignity and senatorial rights to reply to this inquiry."

"I don't know," responded Mr. Lodge, "whether a cabinet officer ever sent in a printed report of this kind as a convenience, and I don't think it is a matter of importance. The entire reply will be printed tomorrow."

"Is it legal?" asked Mr. Tillman. "It is certainly legal, because the secretary can communicate to Congress either in typewriting or in print."

Mr. Aldrich remarked that in all the printed reports of the secretary of the treasury are made to the senate in printed form.

Mr. Tillman retorted to this suggestion by declaring:

"The secretary of the treasury is assuming the airs of a president before he is elected to that office. The president sends his message in this printed form, but I have never known a cabinet officer to assume to do this before."

Mr. Aldrich said that there was a great deal of statistical matter in the reply of the secretary. That part was being printed, while the body of the report had been laid before the senate.

Mr. Culberson said that the fact of which he complained was that the secretary of the treasury had printed his argument and had it laid on the desk of senators, and had left the statement of facts which accompanied it to be printed after the session.

Senator Carter of Montana referred to "constant importunities" that had been heard in the senate for an immediate answer to the senate resolution by the secretary of the treasury.

"Had the secretary of the treasury delayed in making this reply," he added, "he would have been criticized. This expeditious method of laying his reply before the senate, and printing it before the session, is a subject for criticism. How in the world could the secretary of the treasury have pleased the senators from South Carolina and from Texas?"

During Senator Carter's remarks Senator Beveridge interrupted, saying:

"I wish to call attention to the fact that the criticism of the senator from South Carolina was directed at the 'airs' that the secretary has assumed."

"I want the secretary to reply in a more moderate manner," replied Mr. Tillman, "and in the same manner that has characterized his predecessors in office. He should send his report here, and let us print it if we think fit. The senator cannot point to a solitary case in which the printing has been done before."

Mr. Carter said he recalled an instance in the senate several years ago in which a cabinet officer had been criticized for sending a document to the senate in typewritten form, instead of having it written with a pen.

Mr. Tillman said there never had been such unaccountable delay in replying to a senate resolution.

"The secretary," he said, "has been in New York making speeches, and now he sends this labored report to us."

Mr. Carter inquired whether Mr. Tillman had read the report, and, being told that he had not, declared that the senator could not tell whether the "airs" were in fact "labored" or whether the report was sent in an efficient manner and with special skill. "I may be," he added, "that before the sun goes down the senator may agree with all the secretary of the treasury has said about this bond issue."

"I ask him," interrupted Mr. Tillman, waving his hand toward Mr. Carter, "whether he undertakes to vindicate the issue of the Panama bond."

Mr. Carter retorted promptly that the secretary had just sent the information concerning that matter to the senate and he did not propose to determine that matter until he had an opportunity to consider the facts.

Mr. Tillman declared that the senator from Montana was partisan in behalf of the secretary.

"I have not been in any case partisan," retorted Mr. Carter, when he added, amid general laughter, "that all presidential candidates would acquit him of being partisan."

thorities here in a long time was committed Thursday last near Planchas de Plata, 20 miles southwest of Nogales, Francisco Lopez, a Mexican rancher, 18 years old, was shot from ambush by a Yaqui Indian, who claims the victim had stolen sheep from him. After the victim had fallen his skull was crushed in with a rock, then the body was dragged to a fire for cremation. Evidently the murderer was frightened away, as the body was not partly burned when discovered Friday afternoon. Suspicion pointed to a Yaqui, who was arrested and brought under strong guard to Nogales yesterday and lodged in the district jail. The Yaqui admits his guilt and undoubtedly will be shot.
