REIGN OF HOLDUPS IN JUNCTION CITY.

Coroner's Verdict on the Slaying
Of Roy Mills—Murdered
For Money.

DISTRICT COURT HEARINGS.

Mrs. Bernards Convicted and Will be Sentenced Thursday—Watts-
Robinson Nuptials.

The coroner's inquest over the remains of Roy Mills, who was murdered Monday, was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Larkin & Son's undertaking parlors before Judge J. A. Howell and the following jury: B. H. Goddard, J. C. Patterson and Jerome Brown. County Attorney Hulaniski was present to examine the witnesses, so that all the facts possibly obtainable pertaining to the case might be brought out.

Officers Hutchins and Hadlock testified to finding the body about 11 o'clock Monday morning, lying on his back where he had evidently felt when the fatal shot was fired. Dr. H. M. Forbes and Underwood, who testified to the wounds on deceased's body.

A. H. Elam, formerly detective on the police force, was the only witness who gave testimony of any new facts in the case. He testified that about midnight Saturday night, Mills accompanied by two other men, came to the Diamond saloon, where the former of them was drunk together, that the men told him to stay with them until the third holdup appeared, that he was to be cautious and if possible to have the holdups come to the Silver Club saloon where Elam would wait for him and make the arrest. Mr. Elam waited at the saloon until nearly 5 o'clock Sunday morning, but young Mills did not return, as he was very tired after the holdup. Shorty afterwards Mills came to Elam, but on learning that he had gone he became angry and left the saloon, and that was the last time he was seen alive. The officer believes that the holdups learned that young Mills was aware of their crime and destroyed him to the lonely brush place, where his body was found, and coldly murdered and robbed him.

Bartender Thomas Spalding testified to Mills coming to the saloon after Elam left, and stated that he now had the men located and wanted the officer to come to make the arrest.

This completed the taking of testimony and the jury brought in the following verdict: "That Roy Mills, sometime between the hours of 4 o'clock and 5 o'clock of the 18th day of October, 1903, and 10 o'clock a. m. of the 19th day of October, 1903, came to his death by a gun shot wound, caused by a man unknown to us, on the north bank of Ogden river about 100 yards east of the Oregon Short Line railroad bridge in Ogden City, Utah. That robbery was evidently the object of his murders."

B. H. GODDARD,
JEROME BROWN,
J. C. PATTERSON,
JURY.

MILLS HAD MONEY.

This morning William Dean, a friend of Mills on the cut-off, came to Ogden to see about his interment. Mr. Dean stated that on Friday night when Mills left the camp, he did so in company with another man and had over $200 in his possession, money he had saved while working on the cut-off. At the time of leaving Mills was warned of his danger, but he seemed to think there would be no harm done. The common belief is that this man, assisted by others, committed the foul crime for the purpose of robbery.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Rolapp and a jury heard the case of the state of Utah against Mary Lindsay Bernards, which occupied all yesterday. The state was represented by District Attorney Halverson, and the defendant by Attorney Skeen. Numerous witnesses were examined the testimony being practically the same as that given and published at the preliminary hearing, viz., that the defendant induced Lizzie Peterson, a girl 15 years of age to go to the China den at 22nd St., where her downfall was accomplished.

The jury was out but a short time when they returned with a verdict of guilty. The court set Thursday morning, Oct. 22, at 10 o'clock, as time of sentence. Mrs. Bernards has given the police no end of trouble for a number of years past.

WATTS-ROBINSON NUPTIALS.

A marriage license was granted to James A. Robinson, 22, of Mountain Green, Morgan county, and Miss Mary

Watts, 21, of Blaine, Davis county. Ogden, Oct. 21.—The Zang saloon on Grant avenue near the postoffice, was the scene of a desperate hold-up about 11:30 last night. There was no one in the place except Mike Bello, the bartender. Two men entered from the back door at the same time two men entered from the front door. Each pair had guns and were masked with handkerchiefs. They forced Bello to hold up his hands and they then relieved him of his money and watch, afterward taking him back and locking him up in a small room. They then went behind the bar and got about $10 from the till. They left by the front door and were observed by Officer Joe Bott and E. A. Larkin. The officer followed the men as soon as he learned from Bello what they had been up to, and Mr. Larkin summoned another officer.

A while afterward Officer Barlow Wilson, learning that there were four suspicious characters in rooms 10 and 11 of the Ogden house, went up to the door, accompanied by the clerk, and knocked. The door was opened and as soon as the men observed the officer they put out the light and immediately thrust a gun out of the door. Wilson fired a couple of shots and the men fled to prevent the men from emerging from either room 10 or 11. In the meantime, however, three men ripped the screen from the window and dropped down from the second story to the top of the kitchen, where they easily leaped to the ground and made their escape. Officer Bott took a shot at them as they ran. One fellow remained in the room and was arrested by Officer Wilson. The fellow gave his name as James Riley. He had $11.15 in his possession, which was about one-fourth of the amount stolen from the Zang.

TALK OF VIGILANCE COMMITTEE.

Mayor Glasmann this morning issued an order for 20 more policemen and states that if a holdup or burglary occurs tonight he will call a special meeting of the city council for tomorrow night and form a vigilance committee of 500, whose special business it will be to rid the town of this undesirable element.

Indications point clearly to James Riley, the man arrested last night, as being one of those who participated in the holdup at the Zang saloon. The money found on his person and $5 found in his room this morning is coin of the denomination stolen from the scene of the robbery.

WOMAN BEATEN OVER HEAD.

About 7 o'clock in the evening Mrs. Rollo, wife of a barber, was laid up and struck on the head with some blunt instrument. The woman was on her way uptown to meet her husband, and when near the corner of Twenty-third and Washington a masked man seized her and pulled her off the sidewalk behind her. He struck her on the head with some blunt instrument, inflicting a bad bruise. He was endeavoring to get a ring off her finger when he was frightened away by the approach of a passerby. Mrs. Rollo was hysterical and had to be taken into a neighbor's house. Dr. Ford attended her, but her injuries were not serious except for the nervous shock.

A little later in the evening a man whose name was not given reported that he had been held up by a couple of masked men near the People's restaurant on Grant avenue, and relieved of $25. The man was taken to the hospital and is now recovering.

About 11:45 o'clock T. C. Morris took a Gurney cab to go home from lodge. Near the intersection of Adams avenue and Twenty-sixth street three hold-ups appeared and ordered the driver, Del Dalton, to halt. The driver slashed his whip upon his horses, and disregarding the leveled guns, broke away from the holdups. The matter was reported.

A veritable reign of terror is on amongst the citizens, and there is all kind of wild talk of the formation of a vigilance committee.

HOFFMAN HOUSE BURGLARIZED.

A. C. Hingle, who rooms at the Hoffman house, was robbed last evening of clothing and other valuables to the amount of about $175. Robbers broke into his room about 8 o'clock in the evening and made away with his entire wardrobe, including two suits of clothing, undershirts, and the like, leaving only his shoes, which had been taken out and examined, but returned as unsuitable. Hingle did not become aware of his loss until about 9:30, when he stepped up to his room to dress for a ball. He did not attend the ball.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

On Sunday morning, "Fighting Tiger," a small boat used on the cut-off, was destroyed by fire, the blaze occurring through lighting a candle close to a can of gas which exploded. The boat was operated by all.

It is estimated that the thrifty work on the cut-off will be completed in two weeks, as there remains but 1,200 feet to finish.

Twice Pronounced Dead— Heart Trouble.

Doctor Finally Told Me to Take
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure—It
Cured Me.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cures heart disease by removing the cause. It strengthens the weakened heart nerves; it regulates the circulation and replaces sickness with health, weakness with strength, misery with happiness. Don't delay treatment. If your heart flutters, palpitates, skips beats, pains, or is short of breath, or if you feel that your heart is weak and you should at once begin the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has been of inestimable value to me and I don't think I should have tried it at all but for others statements of its beneficial results. I suffered from valvular heart trouble for a number of years, was given up to die on several occasions, and twice pronounced 'gone' and September, 1902, the date of my last severe attack, my physician advised me that there was no hope. The valves did not close at all, there was constant regurgitation, and the circulation was so weak that the slightest effort caused fainting, followed by muscular contractions, each one seeming the very throbs of death. I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure under my doctor's advice, and when the first bottle was gone I was ordered by a half-dozen more. The effect of the seven bottles was something remarkable. I am now restored to a condition of good health and bid fair to enjoy many years of life."—Mrs. A. A. STONE, Los Angeles, Cal.

PROVO.

BOOK OF MORMON LECTURE

By B. H. Roberts—Fourth District Court—Wedding.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., Oct. 21.—Elder B. H. Roberts delivered a lecture, last evening, in the Tabernacle before a large and deeply interested audience on "The Testimony of the Special Witnesses to the Truth of the Book of Mormon." He spoke for nearly two hours and gave a synopsis of his earnest and eloquent presentation of the subject would fall to convey a fair idea of its instructive and entertaining nature. As an introduction the speaker read the opening of the 27th chapter of Second Nephi, as the greatest testimony to the truth of the work. He then portrayed the circumstances attending the testimony given by the three witnesses—this testimony being of a miraculous character. He also maintained the truth of the testimony although some of them separated from the Church, was then referred to, and the argument presented that the miraculous evidence given to the three witnesses, and the natural evidence given by the eight witnesses, taken together, precluded skeptics from saying that there was no evidence of the truth of the book of Mormon.

A little later in the evening a man whose name was not given reported that he had been held up by a couple of masked men near the People's restaurant on Grant avenue, and relieved of $25. The man was taken to the hospital and is now recovering.

The skeleton was found in a place where it was found some six inches under water, but was without doubt dry land when the grave was made, as an Indian burial and the bones of an animal believed to be an elk, and the bones of other animals were found in the same place, and it is thought they were buried with the Indian. FRUIT FOR WORLD'S FAIR.

What Graham County Can Do in Growing Fine Fruit.

Thatcher, Graham Co., Ariz., Oct. 17.—The following from the Arizona Star of Oct. 14 gives a fair idea of the fruit industry of the Gila valley.

FRUIT FOR WORLD'S FAIR.

Commissioner R. N. Leatherwood of the St. Louis World's fair exposition, returned yesterday from Graham county, where he has been arranging for a collection of horticultural products from the Graham county orchards for the exposition.

Commissioner Leatherwood brought with him some beautiful specimens of apples and peaches of several varieties, which cannot be beaten anywhere in size, firmness or beauty. He says there are hundreds of tons of this choice fruit for many miles from Solomonville down the valley. The farmers are shipping them out by the carload to market. A ton was sent to Tucson for the people to sample, which can be seen at Myers street.

Commissioner Leatherwood has arranged to have several tons of this fruit sent to St. Louis, where they will be kept on ice until the opening of the exposition.

He will also have some fine samples of wheat, barley, corn and alfalfa from Graham county on exhibition. President Andrew Kimball is taking much interest in making the collection. He says that Gila Valley in Graham county is the finest agricultural region in Arizona, or even on the coast. The people are all very prosperous and are taking much interest in the world's fair, and propose to have Graham county products well represented.

UINTAH RESERVE.

PREPARATION FOR OPENING.

Nearly 6,000 Square Miles of Well Watered Country.

Special Correspondence.

Camp in Uintah Mountains, Uintah Co., Utah, Oct. 15.—We are now enjoying pleasant weather after a long spell of severe storms of rain and snow, which for a time caused a suspension of land surveys on the northern part of the Uintah Indian reservation, but now the weather is clearing and the work must be understood that this is an immense tract of land, the part to be now surveyed and opened to the public being about 85 miles in length east and west by 29 miles in width, so that storms might visit one part sunshine might gladden another. A party surveying the boundary line along the summit of the Uintah range were forced to suspend survey for a time, the snow being two or three feet deep. All, or nearly all, the water flowing into this immense tract comes from the west and the mountains on the north, and the northern half of the valley is exceptionally well watered. The Uintah and the White Rock rivers each furnish more water than the Logan river, while the Duchesne river supplies nearly as much as all the rivers of northern Utah.

There is much good land and much that is very good as is usually the case in all large tracts. Many of the Indians have good farms and good houses, and some own good carriages. Quite a number of Indians are engaged in hauling lumber from the sawmill, 18 or 20 miles distant, and squaws sometimes are seen bringing one load while their husbands bring another.

A living miracle may be seen near the home of an Indian family about three miles from the agency—an Indian who for more than 20 years has lain stark naked upon the bare ground—not shod under or over him, and to cooling of any kind to protect him from summer's heat or the sleet or snow of winter. He has been seen calmly smoking on the ground while the thermometer upon his naked body, seemingly unconscious of cold. The Indians say that many years ago he killed his mother, and is living this life as a penance, and that when he is self-imposed penance is accomplished he expects to become a "big chief." But how any human being can survive through the severe exposure of this high altitude where the mercury must at times be far below zero, is a mystery to all.

A troop of cavalry came some time ago, not to coerce the Indians, but to teach white men and teach them from prospecting for minerals and from hunting.

The other day "Bob Ridley," an Indian, and chief of the Gila police, saying, "Don't pick up any stones, or you may be arrested and taken to Washington."

The Indians, as a matter of course, do not like their reservation opened. One of them said not long ago, "You survey land; white men come; many, very many, and run poor Indian from his home where his fathers lived long time." If we were in their situation we would like it no better than they; but the fact seems to be that the Indians are sufficient for thousands of families now living comparatively well, but which, under the intelligence and vigor of the white man will be filled in a few years with thriving farms, villages and cities, and manufactures of many kinds. The onward march of the Anglo-Saxon seems irresistible. But there will be no trouble with the Indians.
