

barracks of the Brest regiment officers of the regiment threatened to fire on the mutineers, but Gen. Nepineff, a colonel and five other officers sur-rendered and were sent under escort to the marine prison. Being reinforced by the rank and file of the entire regiment, the mutineers and workmen formed a procession, comand workmen formed a procession, com-posed of 10,000 men, and marched through the city. At Novissilsteff place the procession encountered sev-eral companies of the Bielostok regiment with a machine-gun battery. The mutineers approached their bands play-ing the national anthem, and the sol-dlers received the procession with full military honors, presenting arms and mining phones, presenting arms and exchanging cheers. But the Blelostok, men resisted the appeals of the mult-neers to join them and, obeying the or-ders of Commander Schulman, marched off toward the road leading to Bala-klava. The battery, however, remained with the multinears and northelasted in with the mutineers and participated in

In the afternoon the sailors from the barracks signaled their comrader In the afternoon the sailors from the harracks signaled their comrades aboard the warships to join them, and also sent a deputation to Vice Admiral Crouknin, requesting him to come to the sailors' barracks and hear their grievances. But the admiral, in a short speech in which he pointed out the madness and criminality of their actions and the dreadful penalties to which they had subjected themselves, declined to accede to the request. The sailors thus for have comported themselves well. The city is panle-stricken and the inhabitants are dec-ing. This evening the mutineers step-

MONSTER PETITION AGAINST SENATOR REED SMOOT.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25 .- A meeting of The executive committee of the National League of Women's Organizations, formed two years ago to oppose the continuance in the United States senate of Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, was held here today. Women from all secof Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, was held here today. Women from all sec-tions of the country were present. It was announced that a petition will be presented to the senate asking for the exclusion of Mr. Smoot on the ground that "he is a member of a hierarchy whose president and a majority of the members practice and teach polygamy." The memorial will state that "Mr. Smoot has never raised his volce against these detrines, and the Mor-mon hierarchy has broken its cove-nants which it gave to the United States when statehood was granted." The petition has been signed by near-by a senator from each state. A letter was read at today's meeting from the Women's Association club of Salt Lake City, thanking the league and the National Congress of Mothers for their anti-"Mormon" campaign.
