Amusements

The charm of "The Bonnie Brier Bush" lies in its simplicity and purity of story, which has seemingly made it the favorite of many of our citizens whose faces are seldom seen at the theater. The natural acting of Mr. Stoddard and Mr. F. C. Kelsey, in conjunction with the beautiful singing of R. C. Easton and his able assistants, have captivated all lovers of good pure plays. A special word, too, should be said for Mr. McVicker's play, which is decidedly the best exponent of the part we have had, and his handsome face and manly style are sure to make him heard of yet. He was last seen here at the Florence Roberts company. Tonight will be the farewell appearance of this splendid organization, and bumper house is looked for.

At the Grand last night only a light house saw "Over Niagara Falls," but everyone was pleased, and the verdict carried away will no doubt tend to improve business this evening. The play is cast in Buffalo during the Pan-American exposition, and has some strong scenic effects, especially that of the Niagara water. The story is told by Robert Bruce, Messrs. Bartlett, Davis and Wainwright. The leading woman was Miss Goodwin, but Mrs. Clifford, who was of the house, the Indian maid, also won favor.

The same bill goes tonight and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Don't fail to see the elegant PRESENTS given away at THE UNIQUE THEATRE, 167 Main St.

Ward Entertainments.

An immense throng attended the opening of the Seventh ward fair. The room was brilliantly lighted and presented a pretty display of red, white, blue, yellow and green. Mingled with these colors at the farther end hung an electric star with the number 45 in the center. While the people were crowding into the room, the many attractions, the following program was rendered: Piano solo, Miss Eva Richardson; solo, Miss Rose Heath; recitation, Miss Lulu Thompson; solo, Miss L. Carter. Between each Mr. Carter rendered selections on the graphophone.

Latie, the queen of fortune tellers, occupied the southeast corner. There she stood in the doorway, her eyes ready to tell the fortune of anyone who desired. Next to this, hot and cold drinks were dispensed to the thirsty. Then came the fancy work booth, with its excellent display of useful articles; and on the stand you were served with ice cream, sherbet and cake. The toy counter below contained dolls, ranging from four inches to one and one-half feet tall, very attractively dressed and mingled with trinkets of every kind. Then there is the art booth and the colonial kitchen, where you are served with lunch by neat, smiling, Puritan maidens. The center of the room served as a dining place for the car counter. Sweets of every kind, size and color were arranged in attractive rows. South of the candy booth popcorn and peanut bags covered a small counter. Chances and games, on a chair, on of coal, rug, picture, and many other articles were sold at different place in the room. There was also voting for queen, who is to reign at her ball Saturday night. The fair will continue this afternoon and tonight.

The vote for queen of the Fourth ward contest and fair is as follows: Hilda Burton, 72; May Lewis, 51; Melio Williams, 56; Nellie Worthen, 53; Emily Foster, 46; Maud Wheeler, 53; Millie Bond, 42; Mrs. Lulu Jenkins, 60; Mary Martin, 41; Mamie Silver, 52; Edna Barker, 58; Louie Morris, 51; Mimmie Shepherd, 62; Pearl Tomlinson, 53; Virginia Elmer, 61; Annie Sorenson, 58; Mrs. Olive B. New Home Finding Association Now on a Separate Basis.

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamberlain's Home Finding Association yesterday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. V. Anna Stuckey, it was decided to take the new institution, which was consolidated with the old one about a year ago, to withdraw from the common fund of the association and to separate and individual institutions.

The old Home Finding association was founded in this city about four years ago, and under the supervision of Mrs. Stuckey, has done some noble work. Mrs. Stuckey, however, has been unable to continue the supervision of the work, which has been carried on by Mrs. Stuckey.

The present year, however, Rev. Richard Wake, Dr. E. V. Silver, H. W. Lawrence, Frank E. E. Sherrill, and Mrs. Stuckey, Mrs. Stuckey, Mrs. Park and Mrs. McMahon were present in behalf of the younger association.

He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician, but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1903."

"The Christmas Poem."

The Deseret News staff, to whom were assigned the task of passing on the merits of a large number of poems, submitted for the Christmas News competition, have decided in awarding the prize of $25 to the poem by "Blank," entitled "Picture Sonnets of the Christ." On opening the envelope inscribed "Blank," it will be recalled that Mrs. Kelsey was also the winner of the "News" Christmas poem contest three years ago, when she was awarded $25 for the production of the "Tale of the Christmas Bell."

The staff units in commending other poems submitted in the competition are as follows: "A Spirit Story," by "Helen," and an unnamed poem by "Ethel Burt."

The Christmas competition stories, of which there are many, are now in the hands of the judges. They are being passed upon as speedily as possible and the name of the winner will be announced in the Saturday "News."

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

One of the surprises to which Salt Lake is becoming accustomed occurred yesterday in the announcement of the marriage on July 27, at Farmington, of Miss Jeanne Ladd and Charles Norman Needham of this city, the young couple having been secretly married at that place on the mentioned date. It has been known since that they have been engaged for some time, and on the occasion of a pleasure trip to Lagoon in July, they decided that it would be a good joke to be secretly married. Going to Farmington they engaged the services of Justice of the Peace J. E. Robinson who performed the ceremony. Returning home, they said nothing of the affair, and it was only yesterday on the date set for their public marriage, that the certificate of the previous one was produced, and the announcement made. The bride has been in the employ of the Paris Millinery store for some time, and the groom is a fireman on the Rio Grande railway. Both have many friends who wish them happiness.

A brilliant event of yesterday was the ball and banquet given by the Congregation Monitors at the Christiana Hotel. The hall and side rooms were handsomely decorated, evergreens, palms and cut flowers being used in profusion, while shaded lights added in pretty effect. The affair was given for the benefit of the new synagogue, and a large sum was realized. The committees who had the ball in charge were as follows: Arrangements—M. Levy, E. Salmanson, L. Morris, G. M. Lewis, B. Salmanson, J. Shapiro, L. B. Miskind. Reception—Mrs. E. Kahn, Miss Annie Levy, Miss Minnie Ierman, S. Salmanson, Mrs. H. Eklund, Miss L. Petrovitsky, G. M. Lewis, L. Morris. Floor—M. Levy, H. A. Baron, L. Shapiro, D. Kranetz.

At the Ladies' Literary club this afternoon, "Aunt Hannah's Quilting Party," recently given at the Congregational church, was repeated, and greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. and Mrs. Breeden have visiting them Mrs. Reynolds of Ogden.

The tea given by Mrs. Dickert yesterday in honor of Mrs. Berkhof was an elaborate and delightful affair. The rooms were beautifully decorated, and about 100 guests enjoyed the event.

FOR SALE-REAL ESTATE.

UNQUESTIONED RELIABILITY. LOW PRICES AND FAIR TERMS. RECOMMEND REAVIS.
If my method of building homes was not feasible, practical and satisfying, I would not be building more homes in Salt Lake City and than all the others combined. I buy more material and build faster than others. My business is thoroughly organized, and every piece of work is carefully and painstakingly inspected. I certainly give them their money's worth, and these are two important reasons why it will pay you to let me build some very nice homes for you.
If you are a renter, let me show you how to get a nice, cozy, well built home on very easy terms.
If you own a piece of land, let me improve it and thus develop its natural income earning power. You know how hard it goes to pay taxes and interest on vacant land, and what's the use, when I'll build for you without a cent, if you own the lot.
Wouldn't a new home make a nice Xmas present for your wife? Think it over.
Remember, I have already convinced the people that his methods are straightforward and legitimate.
