

LUBRICATING OIL FOR RAILROADS

Bought from Standard at Prices Higher Than Those Offered By Competitors.

SUCH IS TESTIMONY ADDUCED.

Manager Harrison of N. Y. Co. Found It Impossible to Get His Oil-Engine Rejected.

New York, Oct. 7.—Testimony that the Standard Oil Company's oil is the best in the world, and that it is the only oil that will run in the Standard Oil Company's engines, was the substance of the testimony of Mr. Philip Harrison, manager of the New York Lubricating Oil Company, which has engaged in a long fight with the Standard Oil Company in the lubricating oil industry, on the witness stand all day and testified that though the products of his company and proven satisfactory to the Standard Oil Company, the Standard Oil Company had refused to renew their contracts with the New York Lubricating Oil Company. Mr. Harrison said he was never openly told by the railroad officials why the contracts were not entered into again, but he had a well defined idea of the cause.

Mr. Harrison said that the Standard Oil Company, previous to 1894, manufactured lubricating oil, but that it made an agreement with the Standard Oil Company whereby it turned all of its lubricating business over to the Standard Oil Company. The witness said that his company made a contract with the Louisville & Nashville railroad in 1902 to supply the most with lubricating oil. On the expiration of the contract, President Milton Smith of the Louisville & Nashville refused to renew it, but would give no reason. Mr. Harrison then placed in evidence the statement of the Standard Oil Company, showing that the Louisville & Nashville at the expiration of the contract with the New York Lubricating Oil Company, made a contract with the Standard Oil Company at a higher rate than that paid the New York company.

Mr. Harrison said President Smith had stated in a letter that the Standard Oil Company's products were entirely satisfactory. He added that the Standard Oil Company had refused to renew the contract with the Standard Oil Company, and that the Standard Oil Company was shipping a large amount of oil on the Louisville & Nashville, and that the road should give the contract to the Standard Oil Company.

President Smith told the Standard Oil Company that he was not paying rebates in that way, said Mr. Harrison. Mr. Harrison testified that the Standard Oil Company had refused to renew the contract with the Standard Oil Company, and that the Standard Oil Company was shipping a large amount of oil on the Louisville & Nashville, and that the road should give the contract to the Standard Oil Company.

REDUCED RY. FARES.

Whether Shall Continue in Georgia to Be Determined by Court.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—Whether reduced passenger fares shall continue in Georgia in the present season, and in the fall, is the question before the Central of Georgia railroad commission, which is now sitting in the state court before Judge Newman. The Central of Georgia, which at present is operating its trains at a loss of $2,000 a mile, alleges that the reduction amounts to a confiscation of property. The state court has ruled that the railroad commission and the governor cannot make parties to the suit, and upon this point the case will be decided. The case will be decided in the state court, and the case will be decided in the state court.

Gives a Recipe To Cure Catarrh

Eminent Authority Gives Advice How to Prevent and Relieve All Catarrh.

SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY.

Make Some Up Yourself and Try It as It Don't Cost Much and is Said To Do the Work Promptly.

The coming months will be a harvest for the doctors and patent medicine manufacturers unless great care is taken to keep the feet dry, and dress warmly. It is the advice of a well-known authority, and should be heeded by all who are subject to rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, and especially catarrh. While the latter is considered by most sufferers as an incurable ailment, there are few men or women who will fail to experience great relief from the following simple prescription, and if taken in time it will prevent an attack of catarrh during the entire season.

Here is the prescription which any one can make. Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Sarsaparilla three ounces, Shake well in a bottle and use in tea or water after each meal and again at bedtime.

These are mostly vegetable ingredients and can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost. The Compound Sarsaparilla in this prescription acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, and makes them filter any strain from the blood, the poison that produces all forms of catarrhal affections. Relief is often felt even after the first few doses, and the sufferer ever expects a return attack within the year.

This prescription makes a splendid remedy for all forms of blood disorders and such symptoms as lame back, rheumatism, and rheumatism pains are entirely dispelled. As this valuable, though simple remedy, is a result of a thoroughly reliable source, it should be heeded by every afflicted reader.

MAY REOPEN HARTJE CASE

Complainant Claims to Have Found Package of Letters by Wife's Sisters to Madine.

CONCERN DIVORCE ACTION.

Defendant Refuses to Disclose Question—Further Sensations Are Looked For Soon.

Pittsburg, Oct. 7.—Interest in the sensational Hartje divorce case was revived today by the announcement that a petition had been filed by the complainant, Augustus Hartje, with the justices of the superior court sitting in Philadelphia, asking that the case be reopened, in order that additional evidence alleged to be damaging to the defendant, Mary Scott Hartje, could be heard.

The millionaire paper manufacturer has, it is said, discovered a package of letters alleged to have been written by the two sisters of Mrs. Hartje and Thomas Madine, the coachman co-respondent, and desires to show that the respondent was guilty of the charges brought against her by her husband.

The letters said to have been written by Mrs. Hartje's sisters, are alleged to contain admissions with reference to the divorce case. Madine is also alleged to have made a confession to the attorneys of Mr. Hartje, and to have turned over to them masses of documentary evidence.

D. T. Watson, attorney for Mrs. Hartje, stated today that the alleged letters have no bearing on the case. Augustus Hartje said the new evidence would vindicate him. He would spend his last dollar to secure vindication, he said, and asserted that before he was through he would go after every one mixed up in the case, for conspiracy. Mrs. Hartje is out of the city.

It was learned that Madine was married recently and is now in Belfast with his wife. It is said that Madine intended to make that place his permanent home. Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, who is visiting at Ligonier Springs, Pa., in telephonic conversation with this city today related to discuss the new phases of the case as alleged by her husband. Further sensations in the case are expected.

In the petition presented to the court for Mr. Hartje to reopen the divorce case, the petition states that the coachman, while Madine was in Ireland, to Mrs. Hartje, while she was at the hotel in London, and others which she wrote to the coachman from there. He relates that he is in a position to prove that the letters of the hotel to the coachman, and she delivered privately to her and that she supplied Madine with envelopes addressed to himself. He further avers that Mrs. Hartje arranged with a hair dresser, Ambrosia, of 274 Rue St. Honoré, Paris, to mail letters through him to Madine, and that she received letters from the coachman and sent money to him through the same avenue.

He relates that the receipt of the letters by Madine was established through Madine's mother at Downpatrick, Ireland, and by the testimony of the coachman's sister. The petitioner sets forth that the letters were in the possession of Madine's mother until July of last year, when she wrote for them, and that on August they were delivered by Madine to a representative of Mr. Hartje in Toronto, Canada.

Other letters which the petitioner says he found since the case was heard were written, he alleges, by Helen Scott and Ida Scott to Howard A. Lappe of Pittsburg, in which the letters indicate that unless their parents paid them a certain sum of money each month they would "turn in" for the petitioner.

These letters were written, according to the petitioner, on April 27 and April 29, 1907. As a sidelight on the already involved Hartje case argument will be had before the superior court tomorrow when the petitioner will seek the verdict in the case of William E. De Costa, who was convicted of perjury on testimony given in the divorce suit.

Concerning the letters alleged to have been written by Ida Scott, sister of Mrs. Hartje, it is said that they were addressed to Howard Lappe of this city, who was Lappe's company to Youngstown, O., with Ida Scott last spring, but parental objections prevented the marriage. Referring to the letters today Augustus Hartje said:

LOSES HIS MUSTACHE.

Black Driver Seeks Legal Revenge for Injuries Resulting from "Loadin' Cigar."

William Powers, a black driver, who lives at No. 311 and Fourth street, appeared before Prosecuting Attorney Alexander, yesterday and asked for a warrant. He charged one of his black driving friends with having given him a "loadin' cigar."

Powers at first wanted a complaint charging assault with intent to murder. Later he said he would be satisfied with a felony warrant. When informed that there was no ordinance covering "loadin' cigars," he went away in disgust.

Powers was engaged for a funeral on Jay street several days ago. While waiting until the service was over, he engaged in conversation with some of his friends, and was sitting in the house, it is alleged, gave Powers a cigar in the form of a cigar.

As Powers drew out the cigar in his mouth, some of the men came out of the house and called for a party. Powers drove out quickly and while the people were getting into the vehicle, he lit a match and applied it to the cigar.

The driver, half-blinded, as he alleged, was lifted from the box seat by his driving partner, who was sitting in a shocking manner.

Powers announced yesterday that he would employ an attorney and would have revenge.—Los Angeles Daily Times.
