the Dinwoodey Furniture company, Ogden Furniture and Carpet company, A large and enthusiastic audience was B. A. McMillen & Co., and Sears, Roe-buck & Co. A combination of bldders, in attendance at the Orpheum last evening on the occasion of the presentation of order to keep up prices, had been a cantata by 150 children, under the direchinted at in some quarters, but Clerk Judd states that no such thing had oction of Miss Nora Gleason. The event curred. The goods offered were well up to the standard, while the prices was in honor of Rt. Rev. Bishop Scanlan, and that gentleman, with most of asked were as low as in any preced-ing year. The bids were on 2,110 school desks, 600 opera chairs, 600 combined seats and 75 rears. Bartender Badly Beaten-A bartendian, and that gentleman, with most of the Catholic elergy of the eity, was pres-ent to onloy an evening of unalloyed pleasure. Same of the performers were only two of three years of age, but the eleverness with which all performed their parts was decidedly surprising. The program was opened with a rendi-tion of the "Moon Children" by a chorus of 30 hitle girls, and later the boys had an insings in the presentation of "The Little Chinamen." The full chorus of 159 little folks appeared in soing and ha-bleas more than once during the evening, and the effect of color and of the united veices was indeed pleasing. Statistician Gets Busy-County Atty. Christensen has issued complaints against the Keith-O'Brien company and the Consolidated Wagon & Machine company charging them with failing to comply with the law in re-gard to furnishing certain statistics to the state statistician. The law re-quires industrial, mining and agricultural concerns to furnish statistics under penalty of a fine from $19 to State Statistician Fred Price swore to the complaints against the two companies and says that he will carry the prosecution of them through to the end. It is more than likely that the cases will be made a test of the constitutionality of the law, Alfred Bell Arrested-Alfred Bell and W. M. McConaughy have been arrested, the former on a complaint charging him with having committed forgery and the latter for the alleged obtaining of money under false pretenses. Bell was formerly in the em-ploy of McConaughy, and is accused of selling to him a certain note and chattel mortgage belonging to Bell's sister-in-law, Miss B. S. Clark. Bell proceeded, it is charged, to duplicate the note and mortgage, and then have the original recorded. The copy he sold to McConaughy, who in turn posed of it to Mrs. Edith Mason. The note proved to be worthless, hence the arrest of the two men on the charges mentioned
