With-in the last few days, however, this corporation has acquired the real estate and brokerage business that has been carried on by Cannon Brothers who are members of the association. They have also bought the live stock and ranching interests that have been successfully operated by this firm. Hugh J. Cannon president and manager of the asso-ciation will be directly in charge of the real estate department, and Preston J. Cannon will represent the company on the Salt Lake Stock and Mining Exchange. The association is at present one of the largest owners of real estate in the city and state, their holdings amounting to about 40,000 acres. Their city property is situated on Main and other prominent streets. The associa-tion is also the owner of large interests in mining and other corporations. It seems natural, therefore, that the man-agement should be very successful in looking after the interests of the pub-

In connection with the association, In connection with the association, three of its members have organized an architectural and engineering firm, who will do buriness under the name of Can-non Brothers. This firm consists of Lewis Telle Cannon, architect, Sylvester Q. Cannon, mining and hydraulic engin-eer, and Willard T. BRIGHTON REUNION.

Annual Banquet Held Under Auspices Of Relief Society.

Last evening the annual banquet and reunion of the people of Brighton was held in the ward house, under the auspices of the Relief Society, of which Mrs. H. J. Walk is president. The event was also made the occasion of a surprise and presentation of a gold headed walking stick, appropriately engraved, to Elder E. Schoenfeld, who re-tires as a counselor in the Bishopric. after serving in that capacity for a period of 26 years. The presentation speech was made by H. J. Walk, and the recipient responded in a feeling manner, being almost overcome with emotion at the love and thoughtfulness of his diamate of his friends. The banquet was followed by a program of songs, recitations, readings and vocal selections, and a most interesting evening's entertainment was provided for all who attended.

THOUGHT HE WAS ROBBED.

Complained to Police But Valuables Had Never Been Taken.

dows. "Tot" Bigham, a carpenter, from Eureka, reported at the police station this morning that he had been robbed this morning that he had been robbed of drafts and grees backs amounting to several hundred dollars. Detective Chase went with the man to the banks to have payment stopped and then to Bigham's room. Here the purse and letters with all the money he thought had been stolen from him, and several additional pieces of sliver and gold were found. Chase then took the man to the station, where he was booked as a drunk. Bigham came from the south-ern mining camp yesterday and imme-diately proceeded to get on a spree. woven into its body, they having de-voted their lifetimes to it, but this does not cause the thrill. It is the unconscious influence which it exer-cises over one who beholds it for the first time. Devotees say it is because of the wonderful design; the quivering mass of colors, blending so harmoniously as to smoulder with life the ever changing hues that come and go like the colors of a rainbow in a fourtain's spray, or like the scintillations of the Kohinoor. The peculiar blue and red in the design are lost colors in art, and no longer capable of reprodouction. The rug is of pure silk to the last thread. A monument to Persian art it seems to be nothing less than a paint-ing from one of the old masters, and in the blend of colors which are to be

CANNON FIRM CHANGE.

Brothers Sell to Family Association Which Will Conduct Business.

The late President George Q. Cannon shortly before his death placed the greater part of his large estate into a corporation which he named the George Q. Cannon association, providing also in his will that his heirs must leave their inheritance under the care of this corporation until the youngest child became 40 years of age. It was his belief and constant teaching to his family that by unity they would be able to accomplish very much more than the sum total of their efforts if they were divided. He wished to have such a condition exist that the stronger members of the family would be helpful to the weaker ones, and had a horror of any of his descendants being without productive employment. Since the death of President Cannon the efforts of the association have been
