

LOOTING THE CITY OF TIEN TSIN.

Chinese Did Most of the Robbing, then Foreigners Held Them Up.

CITY IS PLACED IN RUINS.

Graphic Account of Scenes in the Chinese City During and After the Fighting.

Tien Tsin, China, July 17.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—The ancient stone walls of the Chinese city of Tien Tsin surrounded, on the days of its occupation by the allied troops, a square mile of such filth, ruin and death, such turmoil and pillage as history could hardly duplicate. Under normal conditions the place was no better than a huge cesspool, festering with the accumulated rubbish and filth from a population of nearly a million, packed into a labyrinth of hovels, around the palaces of viceroys and petty Tao Tsai, who absorbed their wealth and gave them not even sewers in return. Now the incineration of all the suffering, horror and waste of war.

The European soldiers, when they fought their way up to the wall, saw nothing but the canals and ditches outside the city. The Chinese, however, had been so busy looting the city that they had no time to clear the streets. The bodies were everywhere. The Chinese, however, had been so busy looting the city that they had no time to clear the streets. The bodies were everywhere. The Chinese, however, had been so busy looting the city that they had no time to clear the streets. The bodies were everywhere.

Five flags were flying from the high pagoda on the city walls when the newspaper correspondents entered. The French, Japanese, American, Russian and British. "It was hard enough to get these flags up there," remarked a foreign officer, "but the real trouble was to get them down." The soldiers of the city, however, had been so busy looting the city that they had no time to clear the streets. The bodies were everywhere. The Chinese, however, had been so busy looting the city that they had no time to clear the streets. The bodies were everywhere.

The sights inside compelled respect for the fighting qualities of the Chinese. Their dead were everywhere. Dressed in the coarse blue cloth, the Chinese, however, had been so busy looting the city that they had no time to clear the streets. The bodies were everywhere. The Chinese, however, had been so busy looting the city that they had no time to clear the streets. The bodies were everywhere.

Throughout the city the demolished houses and hundreds of killed gave evidence of how utterly more effective had been the foreign shell fire within the walls of the city than the Chinese bombardment of the foreign settlement. The Chinese, however, had been so busy looting the city that they had no time to clear the streets. The bodies were everywhere. The Chinese, however, had been so busy looting the city that they had no time to clear the streets. The bodies were everywhere.

Most remarkable of all the sights was the looting of the city. The middle of the place was like an ant hill kicked open. Chinese swarmed everywhere, thousands and thousands of their dirty, filthy faces, their bodies smeared with mud, their clothes dripping with blood. They were piled upon one another. CHICAGO'S NEW COLISEUM.

This is Grand Army week in Chicago. The annual national encampment of the veterans is now under way, the inaugural feature being a monster military and war song concert Saturday night in the new Chicago Coliseum, one of the largest buildings in the country. Monday night there is to be held in the Coliseum a reunion of ex-prisoners of war and every night during the rest of the week there will be monster military concerts. The new Coliseum is 300 feet long, 180 feet wide and has a seating capacity of 10,000 people. Colonel A. D. Shaw is the retiring commander in chief of the Grand Army.

from the report and whistle, the soldiers in the night judged to be one-pounders. Mentions of war were not the only contents of the arsenal. High officers had lived there and in flight had left stacks of clothing and other articles of great value. All this stuff is to be sold or shipped to Washington as spoils of war.

On the third day of the occupation a different method was followed by compelling looters to give up their loads at the city gate. Even this measure did not prevent the loss of much gold and silver. Civilians from the concession made a general raid on the salt commission's treasure and many succeeded in smuggling loads of silver bars through to the settlement. The Americans seized millions of taels' worth of precious metals, which is piled up in the marine barracks.

Today the walled city looks as though a tornado had stricken it. Enough valuable property has been destroyed to stock a big city, and enough has been seized to give every soldier a considerable sum if the distribution is honestly administered.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The census of Boston, Mass., as just announced by the census bureau, is 590,192, against 458,471 in 1890. This is an increase of 12,451, or 2.7 per cent.

Kentucky's Extra Session. Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 28.—An extra session of the legislature, called by Governor Becham, convened at noon. The governor's message was brief and in general terms recommended the passage of an election law which will be satisfactory to the people of the State, a large portion of whom, he conceded, are displeased with the present law.

CZAR IS COMING FOR CASH. Reason Given for Russian Ruler's Visit to Paris. New York, Aug. 28.—A dispatch to the Times from Paris says:

With regard to the rumored visit of the czar, the French press on the whole seems firmly persuaded that it is undertaken with a view of raising another Russian loan in Paris. As evidence of this, the preliminary visit of M. de Witte, the Russian finance minister, who has been recently in Paris, is cited. La Libre Parole declares that it knows for certain that an attempt was recently made by Russia to raise a large loan in America and failed, and as money is absolutely necessary to the Russian government at this moment a determined attempt will be made to raise it in France.

This decision is altogether changing the popular attitude with regard to the Franco-Russian alliance, and many papers, representing the most diverse opinions, declare that France is paying far too high a price for the friendship of her northern neighbor.

At the present juncture this attitude of France is important, as, if the Franco-Russian alliance breaks down, the whole fabric of European politics is changed.

To Purchase California Oil. Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 28.—It is said the Standard Oil company will soon be purchasing the product of California wells, having obtained in the East a large amount of land for this purpose. These wells are at Bakersfield, where ground has been secured for them. Representatives of the Standard Oil company will go to Bakersfield to consult with the officials of the Producers' association, and the entrance of the Standard Oil company into California may be in conformity with the wishes of the producing company.

BOERS REVIVING IN THE CAMPAIGN

Gen. Dewet Resumes Operations in the Free State.

ROBERTS AND BOTHA FIGHT.

Boers Crowded Back Two Miles—
British Advance Slow—Roberts
May Come Home in October.

New York, Aug. 28.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says:

There is much inclination to believe that the operations in which Lord Roberts is now engaged against General Botha are destined to form the final stage of the South African war, from a Pretoria report cabled to the effect that the Boers at the capital believe that Botha will abandon the contest if beaten on this occasion, and that President Kruger and Steyn will then flee to Delagoa Bay.

But these rumors have been repeated and proved fallacious frequently enough before, and it is impossible to pronounce definitely that the Boer leaders believe the limit of resistance to have been reached.

The reappearance of Dewet in the Orange Free State and the activity of the Boers on Bulwer's communications in Natal, would rather point the other way. If it had been determined to stake everything on the result of Botha's stand in eastern Transvaal, it would hardly seem probable that he would have so far from the front as to leave the campaign into other quarters.

So far the conflicts between the Boer and the British main armies have been somewhat uneventful. Lord Roberts was in his dispatch on Monday evening, operations are now temporarily slow on account of the difficult nature of the country which forms the scene of the battles. He, however, considers his advance going on satisfactorily, and expects a general Buller's engagement of the 27th inst. to be an important success. The result of the day's fighting was that the Boers withdrew their line by some two miles, allowing Buller to capture a strong position within their outer semi-circle of defenses east of the Delmarutha railway station.

The question now arises whether the British will be able to force the fighting so as to keep the enemy in position and compel him to accept the defeat which he has so far managed to avoid. It seems certain that the perfect artillery should be a great asset, or is the nature of the country such that General Botha can go back from one advantageous position to another, and possibly be able to retreat in time to save his army from annihilation? If previous experience is a guide, the Boers will delay the British advance as long as they can do so safely, but will then retire at leisure before the invaders can secure a decisive victory.

Charles Willoughby, the well known military expert, believes Lord Roberts has the present intention of returning to England in the course of October, so as to be ready to relieve Lord Wolseley on November 1, as commander-in-chief of the British army in South Africa. General Buller may be asked to resume command of the forces in South Africa.

The Pinkham Record

Is a proud and peerless record. It is a record of cure, of constant conquest over obstinate ills of women; ills that deal out despair; suffering that many women think is woman's natural heritage; disorders and displacements that drive out hope.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

cures these troubles of women, and robs menstruation of its terrors.

No woman need be without the safest and surest advice, for Mrs. Pinkham counsels women free of charge. Her address is Lynn, Mass.

Can any woman afford to ignore the medicine and the advice that has cured a million women?

we left Guaymas," said a passenger on the Curacao, "and they were on the war-path when we left. They were on the Yaku river and within a few miles of Guaymas. It is understood that an able Mexican general is on his way from Mexico City to take command of the Mexican forces and wipe out the Indians."

Arrested an Anarchist.

Paris, Aug. 28.—A dispatch to the Petit Bleu from Rome says an anarchist has been arrested at Carrara on suspicion of having conspired to assassinate King Victor Emmanuel III.

Distinguished Actress Ill.

New York, Aug. 28.—Virginia Harned (Mrs. E. H. Sothern) has been prostrated by the heat and her condition has been an anxiety to her friends. She recently arrived from Europe, and the contrast from the snows of the Swiss Alps to the tropical humidity of New York made her ill and a physical collapse followed. She is cast for the part of Cleopatra in "Antony and Cleopatra," which Mr. Sothern presents next month, but she has been unable to attend any of the rehearsals.

Supposed Assassin Arrested.

Buda Pest, Aug. 28.—Giuseppe Tamaio, a Venetian who is believed to have been an accomplice of Luigi Cadorna in the assassination of Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria, has been arrested here. He was seen with Luchini shortly before the assassination, but disappeared. He has been living here under the name of Josef Gier.

Help the Kindergarten.

Be sure and go to Saitair Beach tomorrow and help the ladies' club to establish a kindergarten in Salt Lake.

We're All Going.

When the Best-Growers of Utah go to Saitair Beach next Saturday we will all go with them and have a good time.

The Health Problem.

It is much simpler than is sometimes supposed. Health depends chiefly upon perfect digestion and pure blood, and the problem is solved very readily by Hood's Sarsaparilla. You may keep well by taking it promptly for any stomach or blood disorder. Its cures of scrofula, salt rheum, starry dyspepsia, pneumonia and other diseases are numbered by the thousands.

The favorite family cathartic is Hood's Pills.

School for Children.

The ladies' club of this city will give an excursion to Saitair Beach tomorrow for the benefit of a free kindergarten to be established for the use of the children living in the vicinity of Plum alley.

The Best-Growers.

Will have a big time at Saitair Beach on Saturday and their friends of the entire State will celebrate with them.
