HARRIMAN LINES ARE PURCHASERS

Report That Union Pacific Interests Have Secured Ogden Rapid Transit.

ENGINEERS HAVE BEEN ACTIVE

Judge Rolapp Denies That Sale Has Been Made to Hill Crowd—Round Up of Local News.

OGDEN, Nov. 5.—The sale of the Ogden Rapid Transit company's property to the James J. Hill interests, which was denied by Judge H. H. Rolapp, a business associate of David Rolapp, is now believed in Ogden to be in process of negotiation, and the Harriman, and not the Hill, interests, as the purchasers.

It is well known here that engineers closely allied with the Harriman interests have been engaged in making investigations of the Rapid Transit affairs, and the fact that any sale was consummated at all, and later denied by Judge Rolapp as to the parties making the purchase, gives rise to the opinion that while the sale may be consummated it will be in favor of the Harriman system, and not the Hill.

The reported deal, now believed in Ogden to be in process of negotiation, is for the street car property, for not only of the Hot Springs 10 miles north of this place. The Hot Springs property consists of a hotel, dance pavilion, and 240 acres of land, only a very small portion of the land, however, being fertile. A race track was formerly conducted near the Hot Springs hotel.

W. M. Newberry, auditor of the Ogden Rapid Transit company, Judge Rolapp of Ogden and a personal representative of David Rolapp, have been in New York for some time, and it is believed that the transaction is being consummated there.

When Judge Rolapp was shown the account of the reported sale of the Hill interests, he said: "There is no truth in the report in any particular. The Hill interests have not been given an option on the street car system, and neither Mr. Rolapp nor any other person is purchasing the Ogden Rapid Transit company in New York, nor at any other place regarding the sale of the system. The story has been told by some one who knows nothing of the affairs of the company."

"It is true that President Eccles and myself a short time ago, went to St. Paul to confer with the J. J. Hill people regarding freight rates over the Great Northern railroad into Harlingen, Arizona, where the Annapolis Rapid Transit company has in view the erection of a new factory, but the visit had nothing whatever to do with a deal for the sale of the Ogden Rapid Transit company."

John Olson, who is said to represent eastern capital, has been operating in Ogden some time, but it is denied that he has secured options on the Eccles interests here.

COOPER CONVERTS IN SALT LAKE CITY

Boston Banker Tells of Benefit Obtained at His Home.

DYSPEPTIC TWENTY YEARS.

Many Old Friends Visit "Stomach Man" to Shake His Hand.

Carleton F. Hutchinson, a well known banker and broker of Boston, doing business at 33 Congress street in that city, who has been traveling in the west, made a strong statement yesterday in favor of the theories of the Cooper "stomach man" which are causing an enormous interest in Salt Lake.

"I first met this 'stomach man' in Boston some months ago," Hutchinson said. "He came to me for medical help. I have suffered with nervous dyspepsia. It has been so bad that it forced me to quit my business interests entirely for long periods of time."

"One day in Boston on my way down town I read this man Cooper's statement about what his medicine after ten years chronic dyspepsia. I was feeling wretched that morning and I decided it wouldn't hurt me to try the medicine at least, as I went to the store, saw the 'stomach man' and got some of his preparation."

"I have seen leading physicians without number both in the west and in the east. They have been unable to help me in the least, and I have been told that Cooper medicine could help me. I thought it was like a drowning man clutching at a straw."

"To make a long story short it has been so astonishingly successful in my case that I can't believe it myself. Today I am enjoying a sound stomach and perfect health for the first time in twenty years. I can eat heartily without the slightest inconvenience and sleep well. I am no longer nervous and depressed and my nervousness has gone entirely."

"Any man who has chronic dyspepsia owes it to himself and family to try this medicine."

When seen at Smith's "Bugsy Corner" drug store, Main and Second streets, the Cooper "stomach man" said: "I think I remember Mr. Hutchinson. He was one of the most skeptical men who called on me during my visit to Boston. He told me it would be worth thousands of dollars to me if my medicine helped him. I am very glad he is so enthusiastic."

"Owing to the fact that a number of persons have telephoned me that they could not call during my daily office hours at this store, from 10 in the morning to 6 at night, I have decided to remain here to meet all who call until 9 o'clock Saturday night."

Ing. Joseph Scott, who was arrested Tuesday, the charge of impersonating an officer was dismissed on that charge and arraigned on the charge of drunkenness. He pleaded guilty to the latter and was given a suspended sentence of 5 days in jail.

M. C. Foley was arraigned on the charge of mendacity and sentenced to 5 days in jail or a fine of $5.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HUSS.
OGDEN, Nov. 5.—Katie B. Jost Huss, wife of George Huss, died Thursday morning at 1:15 o'clock at the family residence, 561 Twenty-second street, of a complication of diseases, of which she had been suffering for more than a year. For more than a year past Mrs. Huss was helpless, but was a patient sufferer. She was born in Ogden, Aug. 27, 1874. She leaves a husband and six children, a father, five sisters and three brothers, as well as a host of friends, to mourn her death. Miss Lila Jost, a sister, is in Berlin, Germany, studying music. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence. The remains may be viewed between the hours of 10 and 2 on the day of the funeral.

RELIEVED OF "ROLL."
OGDEN, Nov. 5.—A man giving his name as Charles A. Howard, claiming to reside in Waukegan, Wisconsin, was arrested late Wednesday night on lower Twenty-fifth street for drunkenness. At the station he told the officers that he had a roll of $100 in a secret pocket but a search showed the pocket to be empty. It is thought that he was "rolled" by some other stranger in his rounds of the saloons on Twenty-fifth street.

SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC FEARED AT SPRINGVILLE
(Special Correspondence.)
SPRINGVILLE, Nov. 4.—Smallpox cases are still increasing, more houses being quarantined every day and when it will stop no one knows. The streets of an evening are very quiet; there are no public gatherings and no groups of children heard playing about, and a feeling of dread, of fear, exists among the people. The disease is of a very fatal form, however.

Dr. T. Dunn, the quarantine physician, has been very busy administering calls and vaccinating throngs of people, mostly children, who gather at his office, and it puts one in mind of a marking sheep days.

BLACKSMITH SHOP BURNS.

On Tuesday evening while the Democrats were making the air ring with their shouts and laughter, because of their victory, a bon fire was started in the street, which was perfectly proper, but some unthoughtful person, set a torch to the old blacksmith shop on Main street. Being of logs it soon took fire and endangered the residence of A. Beckstead. The fire department was brought out and soon extinguished the flames. The old building was the first schoolhouse in Mt. Pleasant and has been used for different purposes, lately that of a blacksmith shop.

Mrs. C. W. Shummen entertained a large crowd of ladies at her home Wednesday evening, in honor of Mr. and Dr. Rose Anderson. A sumptuous luncheon was served and a number of games played. Dr. Anderson took the crowd automobiling.
