IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is central in location, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kanabakee Line and Pan Handle routes, at all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets at the Old Pioneer Route.

The Chicago and North-Western train will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to E. L. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d54

CHEAPER THAN EVER!—In order that we may be enabled to dispose of our stock of Summer Goods before the season is over, we have made a great reduction in prices. Parties desiring to purchase will consult their interest and save 25 per cent. by calling on

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, July 26, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 90 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. today. Fine.

Lots of Business.—The street car lines did a heavy business on Saturday.

Unavoidable.—An account of the celebration of the Twenty Fourth in the 10th Ward is crowded out of our columns today.

City Taxes.—Assessor and Collector Winder has a notice in today's News, that is interesting to delinquent taxpayers. He has been instructed by the City Council to enforce collection.

Captured Again.—Philip Shafer, who escaped from the penitentiary the other night, with C. L. Williamson, was captured on Friday night, at the mouth of Brigham, and taken back to his old quarters. Williamson is still at large.

The Victors Again.—The match game of croquet, for the Lindsey champion medal, played on Friday afternoon, at Lindsey's gardens, between the Daynes Club and the M. H. Lowe Club, was won by the former, and they therefore still retain the trophy.

Second District Court.—The following was received on Saturday, from our special telegraph reporter:

BEAVER, 21. On cross-examination by Bishop P. Klingens Smith testified that he took part in the massacre by order of military officers. The cross-examination proves that many of the statements made by the witness in his examination in chief were based on hearsay.

Teachers' Normal Institute.—The Teachers' Normal Institute will commence at the Deseret University in this city, next Monday, August 24, and will afford an excellent chance for school-teachers to improve in their profession, and every teacher in the Territory should use his best efforts to avail himself thereof.

Theatre.—An audience moderate in size assembled in the Theatre on Saturday evening. The plays announced were presented with the well-known ability of the gentlemen and ladies of the company, and were well received. Mr. McKenzie, though evidently nervous, acquitted himself in a superior manner in his songs and in the duet with Madame Stevenson.

Accident.—On Saturday afternoon a young woman, named Parker, resident of the 15th Ward, fell from a swing in Lindsey's gardens, alighting upon the ground upon her shoulders and the back of her head with such violence that she was stunned and remained for some time insensible. She was conveyed to her home soon after the accident. Her injuries were not considered dangerous. It is probable that the fall was caused by the young woman becoming giddy, as the swing did not break.

Cricket Match.—As previously announced in the NEWS, the match game of cricket between the Salt Lake and the Coalville clubs was played on Saturday, at Walker's pasture. The Coalvilles played the first innings, in which they scored 23 runs. The Salt Lakers scored 33 in the first innings, and in their second innings the Coalvilles scored 25, leaving the Salt Lakers the victors by seven runs and one inning.

The game commenced at ten o'clock, and was finished at fifteen minutes past four. The bowling of Brigham Robinson, a lad about fifteen years old, was greatly admired by all who witnessed the game.

After the playing the Coalville club, by their president, expressed their thanks to the Salt Lakers for their fair and courteous treatment, and intimated that a return game between the two clubs, to be played at Coalville, the coming Fall, was probable.

The Coalville club has been playing at Sandy today, a match game with the club of the latter place. More Piping.—Three carloads of piping for the waterworks arrived this morning, making six in all that have been received. The pipes are being unloaded along the selected route, from the corner of this office along South Temple Street and up City Creek.

Destructive.—We are reliably informed that the crops in some portions of the Territory on the Weber River have been seriously injured by squirrels, which are very numerous in that locality. Brother Jesse Haven, of Enterprise, has lost half his grain crop by this means, and a number of other grangers have fared as badly from the same cause. These pests have been very destructive at Kansas and vicinity. They are so numerous that they are making any perceptible difference in their depredations.

The Latest from Beaver.—The following was received this afternoon:

BEAVER, 26.

Editor News:

Without eliciting much that was new, the cross-examination of Klingens Smith is concluded. Joel White resided at Cedar in Sept. 1857, and went to Mountain Meadows by order of John M. Higbee, in charge of a baggage wagon. He remained there two days and one night.

He didn't hear Lee give any orders on the 10th. Didn't see the cattle of the emigrants till he saw them near Harmony, where Lee lived, and learned they were in his charge. Had seen Lee kill them and give the beef to the Indians. Heard Lee say he had kept an account and had given all the cattle to the Indians that belonged to them.

Cross-examined by Sutherland.—Before the train came along he had seen and talked with Indian runners who had been coming along with the emigrants had poisoned a spring at Corr Creek, poisoning several Indians, who were bent on killing them. Thought there were about fifty Indians or more on the ground, all Pintos.

THE JUBILEE.

The celebration of the 25th anniversary of the entrance of the Pioneers into Utah Territory, held in the New Tabernacle on Saturday last, was an event that will not soon be forgotten by those who had the pleasure of beholding it or participating therein.

By about a quarter to eleven o'clock the huge Tabernacle was filled to its utmost capacity, there being several thousand children present to take part in the musical exercises of the day, and the scene, as a whole, has perhaps never been surpassed for beauty in Utah Territory.

On the stage were Presidents Brigham Young, George A. Smith and D. H. Wells, of the First Presidency, and Elders Orson Pratt, John Taylor, Willard Woodruff, George Q. Cannon, and Brigham Young Jr., of the Quorum of the Twelve; also the Presiding Bishop of the Church, Edward Hunter, and Governor McCormick and lady of Arizona.

The decorations were simply magnificent. The large centrepiece, trees and festoons, of evergreens and artificial flowers, appeared to metamorphose the huge ceiling into an inverted garden. Over the gallery, at the east end, was a very fine banner, with the words "Deseret Sunday School Union," in large letters, with a beehive, flowers and other emblems in the center, painted by Morris and Weggeland. Then there were flags, hanging baskets, banners, and other things numerous to mention.

One beautiful feature, which attracted great attention, was the fountain of living water, near the middle of the building, toward the stand, which sent forth a grateful spray. In the basin of the fountain were live water lilies, and on each of the four corners a crouching lion, on which were seated four children, in costume representing the four quarters of the globe, Europe, Asia, Africa and America, the two latter being genuine specimens.

Surmounting the organ was an angel sounding the gospel trumpet, to "every kindred, tongue and people," and on the stand were children from every country on the globe where the gospel has been preached and from whence converts have gathered in this dispensation.

The "Goddess of Liberty" was represented by a lady of tall stature, about six feet two inches high, armed with the sword of Justice, and when the National Anthem "America" was sung she arose, making a majestic and imposing appearance, and waved aloft the glittering weapon she grasped in her right hand.

The decorations and embellishments were far ahead of anything ever seen in this part of the country, and the floral part being especially fine. The latter were got up under the immediate direction of Brother Charles Williams, to whom great credit is due, as well as to his efficient troupe of assistants, consisting of ladies, gentlemen and children.

It is stated that the fountain not only added to the loveliness of the scene, but that it had a cooling effect, rendering the atmosphere of the building much pleasanter than it would otherwise have been.

Punctually at 11 o'clock the exercises commenced by the children singing the opening chorus—"Come join our Celebration," followed with prayer by Elder John Taylor. Then came music by Beezley's martial band. Mrs. Armada Young read very effectively the following original composition by Miss E. R. Snow, entitled:

A JUBILEE POEM.

For the 24th of July, 1875.

BY E. R. SNOW.

This day, on history's brightest page, will live, With honor's sweet diadem, adorned With life's crown of beauty and of youth, We now embellish it.

This is the day On which the Pioneers of Utah, first, Not yet three decades since, with thankful hearts, Entered this vale.

But they had come, searching their way across The trackless desert plains to find a home For persecuted Saints; and here they found A parched and sterile waste—the heritage Of crickets, and the Indians' stamping ground.

Which none but those who fully trusted in The living, speaking God of Abraham, Would have essayed, or struggled to reclaim.

And, since the tedious, slowly plodding team Is superseded by the "iron horse," And time and distance seem swallowed up, Rejoice the aiera realities

Rejoice the aiera realities Rejoice the aiera realities

To except his plans; and what He has Foretold through prophets, by Himself inspired, Will, to the letter, all be verified.

An ancient prophet, when the holy fire Of inspiration from the Deity, Obedient to a vision, beheld a glowing spark Of light divine, behind far down the low, Dark vista of the Dispensations, then Unfolded, ours—the present one—the last And greatest: 'tis the Dispensation of The fulness of times—comprising those Which have preceded; and, in this, he saw In the long "desert," a highway cast up, On which the ransomed of the Lord should come From every clime and nation under heaven.

God will establish in these mountain valleys, The Kingdom Daniel saw in vision, which He likened to a "little stone," that rolled Down from the mountain—growing, moving, and on.

Until it filled the earth. A portion of The elements are here before us, in This blooming choir—this mammoth Jubilee.

Where youth and childhood—pure and innocent As vestal flowers, and beautiful As ideally's bright rendellings Unite their voices in Jehovah's praise.

O may these germs of immortality Mature in wisdom's true intelligence, And with all the gifts the fulness of Thee exalting Gospel can confer.

May these young sons of Zion, these bright boys, Be stalwart in their growth—be champions Of And valiant for eternal truth—improve Upon the present time of manhood, and Foreshadow a still higher to succeed, Become staunch men of God, and proof

Th' infectious evil rampant in the world. May these fair daughters—these young, sprightly girls Preserve their purity—improve in mind—In heart—in manners, grace and dignity—Be to be the pride of home and life, More playthings on the page of human life, But aim at higher, grander purposes: To useful, noble womanhood; to be The model mothers of a Godlike race.

Such are the men and women God must have To consummate the work of Latter-day—To be His instruments, with which to form The basis of a government of Peace—Of Justice, Truth and Equity—to build His Kingdom, over which, the Prince of Life, The Prince of Peace, our King, will come to reign.

The songs, recitations, etc., followed in regular order, as per programme, the singing throughout by the children being specially excellent, being highly creditable to themselves and to their teacher, Professor Thomas.

Several of the recitations were received with marked applause, being delivered with excellent effect.

During the celebration a poem, composed by H. W. Naisbitt, Esq., was read by Mr. G. J. Bywater. It was entitled—

A TREBUCE OF HOMAGE TO THE PIONEERS OF '47.

BY H. W. NAISBITT.

With fervid words and blended voice We hail again this glorious day: With swelling hearts we give from choice Our homage in most fitting way.

To those brave Pioneers whose feet First pressed this arid, desert land, And laid that broad foundation, meet For Empire by the salt-washed strand.

A nation, fanned by Freedom's air, Which circles o'er yon mountain peak, Then rushes down each rustling stair, In every vale to kiss the cheek Of thousands springing into life, To mould them for the days of hand, Children of those who first from starry, For Empire by the salt-washed strand.

Here, midway from the oceans, we Lift up our standard to the world, Where none can flag to chains the free, Or bid again that flag be furled; That, garb of glory of our hope, That emblem of our trust and stand, That Heaven will here erect, to cope, An Empire by the salt-washed strand.

In countless thousands see our youth, "Trained bands" of Israel, God-inspired, Their lips and hands for God, to bless, And in Heaven's undying ray, Can conquest e'er o'er them be won? Will they as recreant traitors stand? Ten thousand souls ascend, as one, For Empire by the salt-washed strand.

Then as our numbers swell and grow, Tyrants shall tremble as we speak, And to our laws the world shall bow, For Zion is the end we seek. "Zion—the pure in heart" the blest, Loved by mankind in every land; They pioneered for Freedom's land, For Empire by the salt-washed strand.

At about half-past one o'clock the exercises terminated; and the vast assembly was dismissed by a benediction by Elder Orson Pratt.
