DIED.

In Mantle City, April 20th, Carolina Annetta, daughter of Soren and Christina Os live, and wife of Samuel Ware, aged 34 years, 1 month and 5 days. Deceased leaves four small children, the eldest being only six years of age.—[COM.]

THE SECRET.—Those who prize a beautiful head of hair, (and we know our ladies all do,) will thank us for a few words on the invaluable qualities of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR as a dressing. In our own case it heals a humor, keeps the head free from dandruff and scurf, stops the tendency of our hair to fall, and heightens its beauty. A slight touching with it removes the coarse and dry appearance which neglected hair puts on, imparts a rich gloss, and makes us resplendent in the most fashionable company. Such rare qualifications, presented in a single preparation, create for it an enduring value; but add to these the faculty of restoring to gray locks their youthful color, and maintaining our good looks with so small an expenditure of time and attention, and you stamp it prime favorite with the public, and ensure its permanent and enduring popularity.—Huntsville (Ala.) Republican.

That Popular Boot and Shoe Establishment, The WORKINGMEN'S CO-OP., has removed to the "Town Clock Store," 87, Main St., West Side, nearly opposite the former location.

MARRIED.—Annie D. Taylor, daughter of Allen and Elizabeth Smith Taylor, to Peter Neilson, son of Peter and Caroline W. Nielson, by D. H. Cannon. Washington, Washington Co., April 22, '75.
