Records! Records!

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for BRANCH and WARD RECORDS, of a new and improved form, which has been approved by the presiding Bishopric and others.

We shall make them of four, five and six quires each, holding 2,040 1,700 and 3,060 names each, respectively, and the price will be for four quires, $12.00, five quires, $13.00, six quires, $15.00. Each book will contain a suitable index, and be well bound in Cloth and Russia Leather with ornamental lettering pieces for name of the Ward on the side. The book being of a large size, we do not think it advisable to make them over six quires.

Specimens can be seen at this office, and orders received for size of book required.

Bishops in the Country desiring Records can order by mail, and we will make accordingly and forward them.

WASHINGTON, 15.—Despite the favorable reports of Senator Morton's condition, there is great reason to consider it very precarious. At times he appears decidedly better, but on the whole there are no reliable evidences of substantial improvement. Like Alexander H. Stephens, his wonderful vitality may enable him again to resume his public duties, but his death at any hour need occasion no surprise.

Congressman Lynch, of Maine, has concluded his arrangements for starting a new paper at an early day. It is intended to be an independent republican journal, and not anti-Blaine organ as has been stated.

While no one yet has authority for saying that Conkling will oppose Hayes' administration, evidence accumulates through the conduct of his trusted friends, that he will not give it a cordial support, and that if he breaks with the president it will not be upon the southern policy, but upon the order forbidding office holders engaging actively in managing political machinery. On this point, unfortunately, the cabinet is not thoroughly united.

Information received here fixes upon the New York custom house officials an intrigue for the defeat of George Wm. Curtis at the next Tuesday's primaries in order to prevent that distinguished apostle of civil service reform going to the State convention to support the president's policy. That his defeat will be effected by these means is not improbable.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 15.—There is hardly room for doubt that the week's operations about Plevna did not result as favorably for the Russo-Roumanian army as was expected, in view of the reports from Russian sources. The brief Turkish bulletin about affairs at Plvena reads: "Since Friday the Russians have made continuous assaults, but have been repulsed. We have captured two redoubts on the Lovatz road, which recently fell into the enemy's hands." This coincides with detailed narratives and with later Russian bulletins. The friends of Russia have reason to fear that the capture of the Grivica redoubt is of much less significance than was at first represented. If so, Osman Pasha may await his reinforcements without fear of further immediate molestation. These reinforcements are, according to a Vienna dispatch, already on the way from Sophia, whence most of the reserves have been sent across the Balkans to Orchanis.

The following description of Suleiman Pasha's position, written ten days ago, is probably still correct in the main:

Sulieman Pasha's army, including reinforcements just received, keeps up its original number of 42,000 men, with ample field artillery and mountain guns. Upon his right and left he has established sixteen guns, which give the Russians no rest, day or night. Although he cannot sufficiently command the road from Gabrova into the Russian fortifications to prevent their receiving supplies, he can and does make them have anything but any easy time within their entrenchments, which are exposed to his murderous flanking fire that entails very heavy losses. General Radetzky cannot break through the force before him and descend into the plain any more than Suleiman Pasha can drive him out of his position and make a swoop upon Gabrova and the country beyond, so matters will, in all probability remain until some important change occurs in the vicinity of Shumla and Plevna.

Report says the Czarowitch's forces have been so weakened to reinforce the Plevna army that they are no match for Mehemet Ali, and this seems to be corroborated by the the Russians steadily retrograding. On the whole, whatever may be the fate of Plevna, the time is rapidly slipping away in which the Russians might retrieve the fortunes of the European campaign, now so seriously compromised as the Asiatic one.

GERMANY.

Positive Denial.

BERLIN, 15.—The National Gazette most positively denies that Germany in any way influenced Servia and Roumania to participate in the war.

TURKEY.

War Notes.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 15.—Mehemet Ali telegraphs on Thursday that, the eleventh Russian army corps has evacuated Tirnova, and proceeded in the direction of Biela, to reinforce the twelfth and thirteenth corps.

Suleman Pasha, telegraphing from Schipka, yesterday, claims that his Circassians penetrated to Elena on Thursday, where they defeated a body of 500 Russians, killing fifty-three. Several more Russian cannon in the pass were dismounted on Friday.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

The Sitting Bull Commission.

OMAHA, 16.—The Sitting Bull commission, consisting of General Terry, Gen. Lawrence, of Rhode Island, and Gen. Corbin, of Ohio, Secretary of the commission, went west, yesterday. They go to Ogden, from thence to Fort Shaw, and from Fort Shaw across the country, some 150 or 200 miles to Sitting Bull's rendezvous. Probably nothing will be heard from them for twenty or twenty-five days after their departure from Fort Shaw.

Yellow Fever Deaths.

JACKSONVILLE, 16.—There were three deaths at Fernandina, last night. The fever is spreading to the Old Town, about a mile distant. There were some cases among colored people. Physicians and nurses arrived, to-day, from Savannah. Two resident physicians are sick. The hospital is completed. A call for aid in money, medicines, and nourishments has been made. Jacksonville is enforcing the strictest quarantine against Fernandina. The city is guarded by volunteers night and day to prevent refugees from Fernandina entering the city by land or water.

Run Down by Steamers—Loss of Life.

NEW YORK, 16.—The Harlem steamboat Sylva Dell, this evening, ran down a row boat in the East river, containing William Rodegan, John Welch, Mrs. Welch, and Frank Oliver and his daughter. The three latter were drowned.

The steamer D. R. Martin, tonight, ran down a row boat in the North river, containing Matthew Dorrigan, Wm. Hemilton, Mary McCarthy, Johanna and Katie Wing, and Ellen Mack. Ellen Mack and Mary McCarthy were drowned. Wm. Hamilton had both his legs broken by the steamers paddle wheels.

WESTERN.

Two Men and One Woman Brutally Murdered by Chinamen.

SAN FRANCISCO, 16.—Yesterday afternoon, people passing near Sargent's ranch, about two miles from Rocklin, Placer County, heard several pistol shots. As they approached the house two men ran away, scaling the fence. On entering the building by the door of Mrs. Oder, who with her husband and Sargent, occupied the premises, was found on the floor. She had been shot twice, and her head split with an axe. An alarm was given and constables and citizens began a search. About fifty yards from the house the body of Mr. Oder was found. He had received three pistol shots. The party then followed the trail of the men who were seen to jump the fence. The tracks showed that they were Chinese shoes. After crossing a ravine three quarters of a mile from the house, in a clump of willows, they found Sargent, bleeding from wounds in his head and body. He was conscious, and stated that two Chinamen had called at the house shortly after noon and desired to purchase a certain mining claim of him. He accompanied then to the claim, and while returning they shot him five times in the body and head, and left him for dead. He said the assassins were from Penryn, a neighboring village, one of them being a cook in Grant's boarding house, near Penryn quarries. He had received $120 from the other Chinaman a few days before for a mining claim, which was in a trunk in the house, and presumed the murders were committed to obtain that money. The party followed the tracks of the murderers to a Chinese cabin nearby, where they arrested three Chinamen, one of whom was in bed, but perspiring freely as though he had been running. Several other Chinamen living in the vicinity were arrested, and one who was much frightened volunteered information that Ah Sam and Ah Jem had murdered Sargent, but then stopped, and would say no more. One of the prisoners had $120 in his possession. It was discovered that the trunk in which Sargent had deposited the money had been cut open and the money taken.

Sargent died this morning. Hundreds of citizens viewed the bodies, this morning. Great excitement prevailed during the night, and had evidence against the prisoners been deemed conclusive they would doubtless have been lynched at once. The cook of Grant's boarding house could not be found, though the country and towns for miles around, were scoured, in pursuit.

This morning a meeting of citizens was held at Rocklin, and all the Chinese notified to leave the town before 6 p. m. By 4 o'clock the last squad, burdened with their baggage, filed out of town, including those employed by the railway company, only the prisoners remaining. They were in no way molested.

At 6 p. m. the citizens marched to the Chinese quarters and demolished all the buildings, twenty-five in number, including one store, the stock of which had been removed by the owner. A fire broke out during the demolition from a stove remaining in one house, but was extinguished by the railway employees, with an engine.

At an inquest held, to-day, the facts developed led the sheriff to believe that four of the Chinamen arrested were implicated in the murder, and it was decided to remove them to the county jail at Auburn. A crowd collected when they boarded the train and soon the murmurs of the throng broke out into exclamations of "Have them out! Hang them!" A rush was made for the door of the car, the sheriff and his deputies seized, and only for the free show of pistols by the officers and conductor of the train their purpose would have been accomplished. The crowd was finally forced back and the train pulled out from the station, followed by the yells of the throng.

The moderation displayed by the citizens, with the exception of the above incident, was partly attributable to the fact that throughout the day, by common consent, all the saloon keepers closed up their places, otherwise serious consequences would undoubtedly have ensued.

The coroner's jury found that the murder of Sargent was committed by Ah Sam, Ah Jim, and another Chinaman unknown. Sargent having subsequently mentioned a third assailant. In the cases of Oder and wife the jury failed to fix the responsibility. The remaining prisoners were allowed to leave, there being no evidence against them.

About 8 o'clock this evening the buildings of the Chinese garden, about a mile from Rocklin, were burned. It is positively denied that the whites set them on fire, and possibly the Chinese abandoned and burned them. Sargent was an old and respected resident. Oder was a Bavarian; his wife has relatives in Trenton, New Jersey.

The Custom House Investigating Committee.

At yesterday's session of the Treasury committee, investigating the custom house affairs, the testimony of a large number of prominent merchants was taken as to the general efficiency of the administration of the custom house. All concurred in approval, with the exception of a general condemnation of the bond system as unnecessary and inconvenient. They were all examined, also, as to the effect of the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty, and the expression was general that the treaty had proved beneficial, and had effected a great increase in our export trade to the island.

Wm. H. Troy, several years ago employed in the customs service as a laborer and night inspector, testified that he had discovered a case of opium smuggling on one of the Pacific Mail steamers to the amount of $60,000. He said several employes of the custom house were connected with the smuggling. The opium could not have been stowed in the manner it was without the connivance of the officers of the ship. Shortly after making the discovery witness was removed at the instance, he claimed, of Oliver Eldredge, of the Mail company. Some findings of a court martial and the court records were read to impeach the character of the witness.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 16.—The Grand Vizier has informed Minister Layard that Osman Pasha defeated the Russians on Saturday, killing and wounding 8,000 and capturing several guns. The fighting before Plevna is still proceeding. In connection with the foregoing, a Constantinople special repeats the reports current there last night, that the whole Russian army had attacked the Plevna lines, and were repulsed after desperate fighting, losing over 5,000 men. They then abandoned their positions, retreating upon Bistova and Tirnova. Meantime the Roumanian corps on the north-east of Plevna were completely routed, with heavy loss, leaving nine guns and a large quantity of arms and ammunition on the field.

Greece has protested to the Porte against the construction of fortifications on the Gulf of Anta, and the dispatch of reinforcements thither as contrary to the treaty stipulations.

Mehemet Ali Pasha telegraphs that eighteen battalions of Turks, on Friday, repulsed an attack of the Russian 12th army corps on Sinana. The Russian loss was heavy.

The Grand Duke Nicholas telegraphs to St. Petersburg, under date of Poredin, Saturday, that on Friday evening the Turks assaulted Grivica, or Grivitza, but with the assistance of the Russian and Roumanian reserves, were repulsed. To-day we continue shelling the enemy's fortifications, and the town is burning.

According to the reports received up to Friday, 239 wounded officers and 9,482 men have passed through the hospitals since Sept. 7th. The number killed is about 3,000. The total loss is about 300 officers and 12,500 men. Up to the morning of September 14th the Roumanians had lost about 60 officers and 3,000 men killed and wounded. The spirit prevailing among the Russians and Roumanians is excellent. It is noticeable that the Grand Duke Nicholas, in this telegram, makes no mention of any further battle on Saturday.

It seems probable that the Grand Viziers announcement to Mr. Layard was merely a recapitulation of the general result of the operations before Plevna, particularly as the Porte has since published a telegram from Osman Pasha, dated 14th, and giving the Russian loss throughout the operation at from 7,000 to 8,000.

GREECE.

Does Not Intend to Declare War.

ATHENS, 16.—The reply of the minister of foreign affairs to the British remonstrance against Greek armaments, wherein Lord Derby asked the Greek government to authorize England to assure Turkey that Greece will not make war on her, declares that Greece has actually given assurances to the British minister at Athens that she does not intend to declare war against Turkey. This is all the Porte, or any other power acting in behalf of Turkey, is justified in asking.

As to the armaments of Greece, the minister points to the recognized independence of his country, and the rights which result from that independence.
