Robert Baker, the busy congress-nan from Brooklyn, was speaking in he house, and Gen. Grosvenor, with the house, and Gen. Grosvenor, with long white whiskers, came down the alle and gazed intently upon the speaker. It nettled Baker, who point-edly remarked:

I am not unaware of the earnest attention the gentleman from Ohio is giv-ing to this discussion." Members enjoyed this sally, and the augh was general. "I will admit," answered Grosvenor after a pause, "that I was seeking very carnestly to ascertain what the gentle-man from New York was talking about.

This took some time, and just as Baker was about to proceed the chair-man rapped for order and announced, "The time of the gentleman from New York has expired." As Baker sat down there was an-other round of laughter in the house, DEFECTIVE ELECTRIC MACHIN-ERY.

Senator Hear on several occasions during the later years of his life called attention to a defect in the machinery for choosing a president and vice pres-ident, and a committee of the house has made a report this session upon the same subject. As Senator Hoar point-ed out, there is absolutely no provision for such a contingency as the death of a president elect between the time of his selection by the electors and his in-auguration. It is taken for granted that the vice president elect would take the o th of office as vice president and succeed to the presidency but in case sleeper on that train. Write to L. H. Harding, Gen. Agent. Salt Lake, for succeed to the presidency, but in a both should die there is nothing t could be done. The electors could folders and information. be convened, and no one can tell what might happen. It is rather strange that in a century and a quarter no con-gress has corrected this defect in such an important matter, VALENTINES!

NOT A FILIBUSTER.

NOT A FILIBUSTER. Senator Hansbrough of North Dako-ta, although he is opposed to the state-hood bill in the form it has been re-ported from the committee on terri-tories, has been trying to get the Dem-oratic opponents of the measure to agree to a vote upon it. "I have nev-er engaged in a filibuster," remarked Hansbrough. "I don't think we are sent to the senate for that purpose, and I say we ought to stand up and vote after reasonable debate upon any measure. If there is a majority for a bill it ought to pass. It is not for a minority to decide that a bill should not pass. For my part I am willing to go on record for or against any prop-osition that is presented." It is a well known fact that everybody can find out where Hansbrough stands. He is a legislator who can make up his mind and is not afraid to express an opinion either by speech or vote. opinion either by speech or vote.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Abso-lutely Harmless.

Intely Harmiess. The fault of giving children medicine containing injurious substances, is some-times more disastrous than the disease from which they are suffering. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Redemy is perfectly safe for chil-dren to take. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup is unsur-passed. For sale by all druggists.
