DESERET EVENING NEWS

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

It is reported that over $200,000 has been subscribed toward the establishment near this city of the proposed new packing industry.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen will give a Hallowe'en ball this evening, in the rooms of the Knights of Columbus.

Bandmaster Herrie of the Twenty-ninth infantry and a dozen fellow soldiers are off on a hunt in the Strawberry valley. They go prepared for arctic weather.

A stag social will be given in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium tomorrow evening, when Social Director R. O. Hanson will offer prizes for the funniest costume and the most artistic makeup.

The case of Julius Gustin, charged with bringing women from France to this country for immoral purposes, will be brought before the federal court. He is now in the county jail on this charge.

The Taylor-Armstrong company, which owns the piano store property recently burned out, proposes to erect there a substantial three-story brick building, in case the site is not disposed of to other parties.

Word from Nome, Alaska, states that Walter L. Goodwin, formerly of this city, and Miss Mary Nesbit of Vancouver, were married recently. The groom is a son of the late J. M. Goodwin.

The patent office has notified Miss Edith A. Smith of 578 east Fourth South street that she has been granted a patent for a washable and unbreakable button made of rubber. The fastener is of material that will not rust.

Applications for water rights have been filed by A. F. Buckley of Provo for six second feet, from the Duchesne river, to irrigate 320 acres; by Emma J. Stevens of Logan, for two second feet, from the Uintah river, to irrigate 160 acres.

Rev. Dr. T. W. Pinkerton of Kenton, O., is in town, having come to remove his family from Salt Lake to their Ohio home. The doctor is being congratulated on his recent Masonic promotion, and his many friends hope that he will shortly be made a 33rd degree Mason.

J. C. Leary is back for a few days from Montpelier, where he has been superintending live stock shipments for the Short Line. He says there are over 400 loads of sheep yet to be shipped from that point, and then the handling of cattle and other livestock will begin.

Local smeltermen are reported as preparing to send representatives to the Mining congress as El Paso, who will present the smelter side of the smoke nuisance, and it is understood that the farmers of this valley will be equally prompt in presenting their side of the case.

Local real estate men claim an annual increase of about 10 per cent in property values in all parts of the city, and that notwithstanding the knockers, Salt Lake real estate was never in a healthier condition. It is also claimed that September's business was the best of any month in the current year.

The Men's club of the First Congregational church will hold its second meeting of the season this evening, in the church parlors, when the subject for debate will be, "Resolved, that it was wise and proper for Uncle Sam to build the Panama canal." Affirmative, J. E. Frick; negative, E. O. Leatherwood. Refreshments will be served.

The report of the board of health for the week ending Oct. 28 shows 29 birth, 15 males and 14 females. There were 33 deaths reported, 17 males and 16 females. Twenty cases of contagious diseases were reported, consisting of five cases of diphtheria; two of scarlet fever, six of smallpox, two of tuberculosis and five of typhoid fever.

The Salt Lake stockyards have been doing a good business the past week. Two trainloads, 40 cars, were handled Saturday in transit from Oregon to the San Luis valley in Colorado, and 10 cars of cattle—two for this point and the rest for eastern consumption. Two carloads of horses for construction work on the Western Pacific were also received.

The Westminster College Men's quartet gave the State Prison Christian Endeavor society a treat yesterday morning, with several selections, Miss Sutherland, professor of music at the Collegiate Institute, officiating at the organ. The personnel of the singers is Edwin Troxell, Charles Johns, Heber Johnson and W. W. McKinahan. The meeting for the visitors was conducted by Miss Ruth Paul, vice principal of the Collegiate Institute.

Inspectors Peterson and Meyers of the state and city food inspection departments respectively have got on to a spurious article of butter that has been circulated around the outskirts of the city for some little time past, and are putting a stop to the sale. The stuff is made apparently of tallow preparations and coloring matter, and when broken open presents a very uneven appearance as to color and ingredients. The stuff was being sold as "pure ranch butter" at 15 cents a pound.

State Chemist Harms is in receipt of intelligence from San Francisco relative to the raiding of local dairies by the city health inspectors. There have been seizures of milk and arrests by the wholesale, with impositions of fines in the city courts, as the milk in many quarters was found loaded with formaldehyde and other preservatives, and was given a rich, yellow coloring with coal tar dyes. The death of numerous infants from using this impure stuff, and sickness in other quarters, stirred up the city health department, and the milkmen are being given a razzle dazzle that they will not forget in a long, long time.

In connection with the educational work of the Y. M. C. A. a course of lectures is announced beginning next Monday night, Nov. 6, to be given by Rabbi Charles J. Freund, consisting of general survey of the history of the Jewish people from the destruction of the second temple 70 A. D. to the present day. Preparatory to this will be a study of the Babylonian exile, 586-536 B. C., the Macabean era, 167 B. C. and the Roman period, 60 B. C.-70 A. D. These lectures will be given on Monday evenings of each week and are open to the public irrespective of membership. Enrollment for the course without charge may be made at the business office of the association.
