SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen.—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep, hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of the disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The fifth dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in five days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils, so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following their use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

BOSTON, Feb. 23 1875. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

SUFFOLK, ss. Feb. 23, 1875.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

SETH J. THOMAS, Justice of the Peace.

Each package contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, Mrs. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protecvive appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

WITH AUTUMN LEAVES.

BY MARY J. TANNER.

With Autumn leaves bedeck my brow,
And not with Summer flowers;
For life is passing swiftly now,
And holds its brightest hours.

The Spring of life is fresh and fair,
And sweet our young life's mission.
Its Summer brings us grief and care,
And many a hope's fruition.

The garnered sheaves are gathered in,
The ripening fruit is bearing,
And willing hearts and busy hands
The harvest-homes preparing.

The sunshine tints the mountain brow
With gold and purple gleaming,
And many a hope we cherish now
Is fair and bright in seeming.

Then bring to me, at Autumn time,
The spoils of Summer bowers,
The purple fruit and ruby wine,
The gold and crimson flowers.

I'll weave them in a garland fair
With pleasures bright and smiling,
And softly twine them in my hair,
The cares of life beguiling.

For soon across the mountain's brow
Comes Winter, cold and dreary,
And many a heart that's joyful now
Will oft seem weak and weary.

There's many a soul that in the prime
Of life was bold and fearless,
That bowing 'neath the hand of Time
Is left alone and cheerless.

Then bring to me, ere Winter's snow
Has crowned my brow with whiteness,
The hopes I cherished long ago
In all their growing brightness.

For many a joy we've tasted here
Our hearts may fondly cherish,
And many a hope we hold so dear
Is doomed to fade and perish.

Hostile Demonstrations Against Schmidt.

LONDON, 20.—Some recent events in Turkey seem to confirm the Paris dispatch reporting an Anglo-Russian understanding. Schmidt, financial director of Eastern Roumelia, last week, while on a tour of inspection, was mobbed at Haskoi and Jambloi, and troops had to be called out to protect him. On his arrival at the confines of Slivno he was met by several thousand people who threatened his life and compelled him to return to Jambloi. The Russian commander then said he could not guarantee his safety, because the troops were not authorized to use their arms against the people. Schmidt returned to Philippopolis, whereupon General Stolyphine, governor of Roumelia, with Schmidt and one of the French members of the commission went to Slivno last Sunday, and on hostile demonstrations against Schmidt being renewed, the troops were summoned. General Stolyphine and his staff led them and dispersed the crowd, arrested the ringleaders with their own hands. The Cossacks plied their whips vigorously among the rioters and even the Bulgarian militia are said to have behaved irreproachably, beating back the crowd with the butts of their muskets.

The Canadian Tariff Criticized.

The Times criticises, severely, the new Canadian tariff, and says, in concluding a long editorial on the subject: The tariff that has been produced in obedience to the call of the general election, is as unwise as it can be. There is not a branch of industry which will not be crippled by it.

Bright on the War of Tariffs.

In the House of Commons this evening, John Bright submitted a question as to whether it is proposed to represent to Canada the impolicy of a war of tariffs between the different portions of the empire, and whether it is true that the instructions to the Marquis of Lorne, governor general of Canada, for the first time, omitted a clause requiring that bills imposing deferential duties should be reserved for royal approval. Sir Michael Hicks Beach, colonial secretary, replying to Bright, said that only a telegraphic summary of the new Canadian tariff had been received, and therefore he was unable to judge of its effect, but he had telegraphed that government regrets the proposed increase in the duties already high. He added that the right of government in regard to the sanction of a new tariff was not affected by the instructions to Lord Lorne.

The Treaty of Berlin.

Prince Gortschakoff, in a dispatch dated Feb. 7th, answers Lord Salisbury's dispatch of Jan. 28th, pressing the execution of the treaty of Berlin by Russia. Prince Gortschakoff declines to enter upon a useless discussion. He holds that Lord Salisbury's dispatch contains nothing which conflicts in principle with the Russian view of the execution of the treaty of Berlin, but that it shows that the British Government has been sometimes mistaken in regard to the intentions of Russia or her agents. The latter, he says, must support, within the limits of the treaty of Berlin, the interests of the population for whose defence Russia made war. A general understanding would be greatly facilitated if those populations acquired the conviction that their interests would be effectually defended by Europe within the same limits when Russian troops were no longer there to protect them. All that the British government and its agents can do to induce in them confidence, moderation, resignation and thus effect an equitable and pacific execution of the treaty, will meet with Russia's co operation.

Strike of Weavers.

Eleven hundred weavers in Preston have struck against the introduction of the Blackburn standard list, which they allege would reduce their wages 10 per cent. beyond the reduction proposed by the masters.

FRANCE.

The Treaties of Commerce.

PARIS, 20.—The tariff committee, by a vote of 22 to 8, decided to report in favor of maintaining the treaties of commerce.

EGYPT.

The Khedive Yields.

CAIRO, 20.—The Khedive has yielded to the demand of Rivers Wilson and M. DeBlignieres for the retention of Ris Pasha as minister of the interior. The crises is thus virtually ended.

INDIA.

War Preparations.

CALCUTTA, 20.—The Burmah king is constructing fortifications and making other warlike preparations. The Burmese residents of Rangoon have been summoned home, threatening to have their families executed in case of non-compliance.

TURKEY.

A Stormy Scene.

TIRNOVA, 20.—In the debate in the assembly of Bulgarian notables, relative to the proposed memorial to the powers, some of the members repudiated as a lie the statement that they wished, by delays, to prevent the organization of a permanent administration.

GERMANY.

The Socialists.

BERLIN, 20.—The socialists have resolved to introduce a motion requesting Bismarck to suspend criminal action against Fritsche.

"Whatever shall I do with such a bad, bad boy," said a loving mother, as she strove to impress on the mind of her six-year-old tow-head his manifold troublesomeness. "Oh, you let me alone; I ain't half as bad as I can be."

Groesbeck and William S. Groesbeck, who were the parties of the second part in said deed certain property described in said deed as follows, to wit: The southwest corner of lot (4) four, in block thirty-five, being five rods fronting south by six rods north of the southwest corner of said lot, as plotted in plot B, Salt Lake City Survey, said lot being in the Ninth Bishop's Ward; Also all the building or workshop situated on the north half of lot one, in block fifty-two, plot "A" of Salt Lake City Survey; together with all the machinery, tools and implements in the said building or connected therewith, consisting in part of one steam engine and boiler, one clipper planer and matcher, one large saw, one small saw, one trimming machine, one cash machine, one cross-cut saw, one stove, two desks and all shafting and gearing in or pertaining to the said workshop, also one horse, harness and wagon, all of said property situate in Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah. The said deed of trust was made to secure the payment of a certain promissory note in writing, and conditioned to become void on the payment of said note according to the tenor and effect thereof, said note is in the words and figures following, to wit:

$1,725 Salt Lake City, May 9th, 1876.

On or before eighteen months after date for value received, I promise to pay Nicholas Groesbeck or order the just and full sum of seventeen hundred and twenty-five dollars lawful money of the United States, payable without defalcation or discount, with interest at the rate of one and a half per cent. per month, from date until paid, both before and after judgment or decree. Said interest payable monthly.

(Signed) THOMAS OAKEY.

And whereas said sum of money mentioned in said note together with interest thereon from the first day of February, 1877, by virtue of the terms of said deed of trust and promissory note is now due and still unpaid; and, whereas the said Nicholas Groesbeck being the party of the third part in said deed of trust. Now, therefore, we the said John A. Groesbeck and William S. Groesbeck, trustees as aforesaid, at the request of the said Nicholas Groesbeck, payee, owner and holder of said note by virtue of the power and authority given us in said deed of trust, and in accordance with the provisions [of] said deed will, on Tuesday, the 8th day of April A. D. 1879, at the hour of 12 o'clock, m. of that day, at the south door of the Salt Lake County Court House, in Salt Lake City and County, Utah Territory, proceed to sell and sell the above described real estate and property at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand in order to pay said note and interest and costs of this trust, or so much thereof as it may [be] necessary upon such sale being made, being thereunto duly authorized by said deed, we shall make, execute and deliver to the purchaser of said property a good and sufficient deed, conveying all the right which the said Thomas Oakey had in and to the aforesaid real estate and property, on the third day of June, 1876, and which we have or hold thereby as trustees and parties of the second part to said deed of trust.

JOHN A. GROESBECK,
WILLIAM S. GROESBECK,
Trustees as aforesaid.
E. D. HOGE, Attorney. d96

FAMLIY RECORDS.

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for FAMILY RECORDS of an approved form.

Each book is divided into five forms.

The first form is that of a "FAMILY RECORD," with ruled and printed spaces or births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, dates, and places, one page acommodating one family.

The second form is a "CHURCH RECORD," with spaces for blessings, baptisms, confirmations, ordinations, endowments, and patriarchal blessings and various particulars of the same.

The third form is a "SEALING and ADOPTION RECORD," with spaces for name of person sealed, birth, death, time, place, etc.

The fourth form is a "MISSION and APPOINTMENT RECORD," with spaces for names, date of birth, field of labor, date of appointment, departure, release, etc.

The fifth form is a "RECORD for BAPTISMS, ENDOWMENTS, ORDINATIONS, and SEALINGS for the DEAD."

Each book is furnished with a title page, on which the person owning the record can enter his or her name. An explanation of the forms, or instructions how to keep the record is also printed in each book.

These Records are well printed and ruled on good ledger paper, substantially bound. We can furnish them of any size, from one to five quires, or larger, but probably five quires is as large as will be desired. We can also furnish the various forms in a record, proportioned to each other to order.
