THE EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, - - February 18, 1873.

of the United States not bestowed upon any other civil officer of the Government. It provides that a deputy marshal may, if in his judgment assistance is necessary, apply to any officer having charge of United States troops for a posse, and there upon the troops will be detailed in sufficient numbers. Pass this law, and any deputy marshal in Utah will have it in his unaided and unchecked discretion to march the United States troops against any community which may have incurred his displeasure.

The sixteenth section takes away from the people of Utah the right to elect their sheriffs, justices of the peace, and even judges of election, and vests the appointment of these officers in the Governor.

The seventeenth section is somewhat remarkable in its tender care of impecunious litigants, for it provides that "in all cases of appeal from one court to another, where a bona fide or other security is required to be given by the party appealing, it shall not be lawful, &c., to demand payment of costs," &c.

The twenty-fifth section disapproves the Utah statute of limitations, passed last winter. Why should the limitation law be repealed? It is the same in its provisions as the limitation laws of other States and Territories, and I can conceive of no good reason for annulling it.

Mr. Chairman, there appears no urgent necessity for any legislation with respect to Utah. The Territory is prosperous, the people are contented and peaceful, taxation is light, new industries are being developed, railroads are in process of construction, mines are being opened, property is safe, the rights and liberties of every citizen are secure. Why not, then, let Utah alone? Why plunge every business interest of this prosperous community into the seething crucible of experimental legislation? The social condition of Utah is rapidly being assimilated to that of all other American communities. Her peculiarities are destined to speedily disappear. Their disappearance may be delayed, but cannot, in my judgment, be expedited by legislation. This bill contains a few sections that are well enough, and to which no great objections can be made, but there are other sections whose passage would inevitably produce turbulence, confusion and business convulsion in Utah. The bill, indeed, goes far beyond the request of the memorial, and the memorial was evidently inspired by a few men who are possessed by a purpose of revolution, and who have much to gain and little to lose by any conditions of disaster which may result. The capitalists and business men of Utah do not want this legislation. The men who are constructing railroads, and building furnaces, and opening mines do not want it. In their behalf I beseech you to leave the laws of Utah undisturbed.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 38 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p.m. to-day. Beautiful day.

THEATRE.—This evening, for Mr. Thorne's benefit, and the first time here, the beautiful drama of "The Serf, or Love Levels All," in which the beneficiare will appear as "Ivan Khorvich," Miss Walters as "Madam le Comtesse de Maulcon," Miss Kent as "Accalina," Miss Simons as "Princess Barinstinski," Mr. Cogswell as "Mistigris," Mr. Dailey as "Count Fedon Karatoff," Mr. Forster as "Prince Vladimere Khovalenski," Mr. Thompson as "Steinhardt," Mr. Wilton as "Khor." After which a "grand olio," selections by the Tenth Ward Brass Band, and ballads by Marietta Jacobs and Miss Georgie Clawson. The performance to conclude with the farce of "I've Written to Browne," in which Misses Kent and Simons and Messrs. Graham and Wilton will appear. This constitutes a capital programme.

GOVERNOR OF UTAH.—A dispatch in the Ogden Junction says that President Grant has appointed W. H. Clagett, the outgoing delegate from Montana, Governor of Utah. If true, a more unwise and unjust appointment could hardly be made.

SNOW.—Another piece of a snow storm last evening.

FIRST WARD.—The good people of the First Ward, Bishop Joseph Warburton, have erected a brick school house 30x50 feet, and they intend to commemorate its opening and also Washington's birthday by a pic-nic and concert on Saturday, Feb. 22, commencing at 2 p.m. Committee of arrangements—W. Calton, S. E. Allen, E. Cox, J. Cox, W. Hill, C. Hawkins, G. Clark.

MR. FITCH'S ARGUMENT.—Our readers will readily excuse the paucity of other matter in to-day's NEWS when they read the able and lucid argument of Hon. Thos. Fitch, in answer to that specious lawyers' memorial. If any of the signers wish to recant, our columns are open.

THE UTAH SOUTHERN BLOCKADE.—The train that should have arrived in this city from Lehi on Saturday evening at seven o'clock reached the depot last night at about seven. It was only freed from the drifts after the most energetic and incessant labor. Mr. James Sharp, freight and ticket agent, and Mr. George Swan, secretary of the road, were at the blockade in person. The road was open last evening between this city and the Point of the Mountain, but dispatches from Lehi stated that the cuts between that place and the Point were all filled with snow. We understand a force of men are at work clearing the track now.

"THE SERF," at Thorne's benefit to-night.

DANGEROUS.—As two gentlemen were walking along First South St. this morning, they heard the report of a rifle, and a bullet whizzed past them. They could not see the person who fired the shot, but it appeared to be directed at some snow birds. A dangerous practice and a breach of the law.

CASH PATENTS.—We are requested to publish the following:

U. S. LAND OFFICE,
Salt Lake City, U. T.,
February 18th, 1873.

The following Cash patents have been received at this office and are ready for delivery on surrender of the receipt.

No. 774 in the name of Phineas H. Young.

No. 804 in the name of John Coon.

M. J. ROCHE,
Acting Register.

THE "NATIONAL TRIBUNE," the first issue since the office was destroyed by fire last September, comes to hand. It is published weekly at Russellville, Arkansas.

GRAND OLIO, at Thorne's benefit to-night.

NEW NOVELS.—We have received from the Messrs. Peterson of Philadelphia, through Mr. Dwyer, bookseller and newsvender of this city, copies of the following novels just published by them: "The Mysterious Guest," by E. A. Dupuy; "Lewis Arundel," by F. E. Smedley; and "The Greatest Plague of Life, or the Adventures of a Lady in Search of a Good Servant."

"The Mysterious Guest" is said to be a vivid, and powerfully told story, the history of one week spent by a young girl, in a country house in Louisiana, in the early portion of the present century. What she found there, and what she suffered, are depicted in the most graphic manner. Miss Dupuy, the authoress of the work, is considered one of the most successful of the modern school of American novelists, and this is one of her best works. It is issued in a large duodecimo volume, and sold by all booksellers at the low price of $1.75 in cloth, or $1.50 in paper cover, or copies will be sent by mail to any place, post-paid, by the publishers, on receipt of the price of the work in a letter to them. T. B. Peterson and Brothers, No. 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

"Lewis Arundel" is a daguerreotype view of real life, taken in all its phases, so faithful and true as to startle one with the counterfeit semblance. It is full of dramatic interest, pleasantly and most agreeably told, and as sparkling as a fire-fly. Cruikshank's illustration are excellent. For sale by all booksellers, or copies will be sent post-paid, on receipt of $1.00 by the publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers' Philadelphia, Pa.,

The "Greatest Plague of Life," or, the adventures of a lady in search of a good servant, by "One who has been almost worried to death," purports to be a narrative of the trying ordeals of a young housekeeper in the pursuit of a good domestic, and her troubles and experience are most comically set forth. While making merry over her narrative, however, lady readers may derive considerable instruction from it, and appreciate the cause of her misfortunes. A more comical set of misadventures was never related. For sale by all booksellers and sent post paid on receipt of 50 cents, by the publishers, T. B. Peterson and Brothers, No. 306 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

"I'VE Written to Browne," at Thorne's benefit to-night.

UTAH MATTERS.

WASHINGTON, 14.

The President is very determined about Utah and will bring matters at once to an issue. He says it is time to stop playing with Brigham Young. Mr. Claggett the present delegate from Montana is appointed Governor by the President.

Honorable William M. Mitchell, of Michigan, was to-day confirmed as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Utah. He is considered an able jurist, but very extreme in his political views. His appointment was suggested by Senator Carpenter, with whom he studied law in the same school.

WASHINGTON, 15.

All the troops now stationed in Texas, Louisiana, Alabama and Missouri, excepting detachments to do garrison duty, are ordered forward to Utah. The enforcement of the Acts of Congress is determined, insomuch that the laws of the United States will be fully carried out. The troops are to be stationed within a short distance of Salt Lake City.—Ogden Junction.
