Ball Players. New York, Nov. 28.—One of the pro- posals which it is said will be made at the coming meeting of the National League of Boseball Clubs in New York, will be to limit the number of players that any club may retain on its salary list. It is said George B. Dovey of the Boston club will propose the adoption of a resolution forbidding the reservation of more than eight of the players and pro- viding that not more than five new man may be added during a playing season. Dovey declares that the salvation of the hig leagues depends upon the reduction of expenses and that in order to retain public interest the teams must be more evenly matched.

At a meeting held in Logan of the Ag-gies, Bossard, the big fullback, was chosen as captain of the team for next year. The new captain has been with the team for two years and is most pop-ular. He is one of the best players on the team and will do much to improve it. The meeting at which the selection was made was held last night and the team practically disbanded although there is a chance that a game will be arranged for Christmas with St. Vincent college el-even. The offer sent to Los Angeles by Coach Walker has not been answered as yet.

gon Aggies. Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. S. – The baseball eleven of the Gregon Agricultural col-lege arrived from the north today for their Thanksziving day contest with the St. Vincent team, the champions of the south. The northern players were all in good condition with the exception of be-ing greatly futigued with their three day's journey. They were at Fiests park this afternoon for practise. The Oregon team is much heavier than the local eleven, but as the latter have already de-feated several teams heavier than thom-selvs they are full of confidence in Thursday's result.

RACE TOMORROW.

Between Cavalry and Artillery Horses At Bennings.

At Bennings. New York, Nov. 22. Major General Frederick D. Graut, commanding the de-partment of the east, has given his ap-proval of the plan of the Washington Jockey club for a race at the Bennings track on Thankagiving day between cay-alty and artillery horses. The race will be participated in by horses represent-ting eight troops of the Fifteenth cay-alry, four troops of the Fifteenth cay-alry, four troops of the Fifteenth cay-alry and the second battery of field ar-tillery. Each horse will be ridden by an enlisted man belonging to the command to which the horse belongs. The Washington Jockey club has of-fored a gold cup and fifty in cash prizes. A large part of the cash will go to the troops and baitery to which the first three horses belong, the smaller amount going to the iders.

the subject, have arrived at an agree-ment which will insure harmony be-tween them for the future. Announce-ment of this said to be the result of work of J. P. Mor-ran, is expected to be made within the next week or two. The report of the committee of the Union Facilite directors having charge of the task of framing a plan for the segregation of that company's assets, represented by its stockholdings in other roads, is ex-pocted to be presented at about the same time, and it is not unlikely that the two announcements may be re-lated. The rivalry between Hill, Morgan and

The rivalry between Hill, Morgan and Hurriman parties reached its culmina-tion in the Northern Pacific "corner" which resulted in the panic of May 9, 1901, but it existed before that mem-orable date and has existed since then. Whather or not the peace now re-ported as having been arranged will include acquisition of a block of Union Pacific stock by Mr. Morgan and his associates cannot yet be learned.
