publicanism. But if you won't do this you will have to expose the cloven-foot of imposture you have concealed the last ten years, and if it comes upon you, yours, too, must and shall feel the print of it. — Louisville Courier-Journal.

RAISING EXCITEMENTS.

THERE is a disposition manifest by some persons in this community to do the utmost to create excitement, and not only excitement, but trouble. There are individuals who would be glad to stir up the passions of men to a conflict between the people and the officers of the law, and every molecule of a circumstance that may transpire, be it ever so insignificant of itself, if it can be used for purposes of excitement, is seized upon with avidity, yea with gross greediness, and magnified to a mountain, in the vicious hope of inflaming the wilder passions of the public to a high degree of indignation and vindictive revenge against the people of this Territory.

The incendiary course of these enemies of their country can not be too severely reprobated, and all persons who indulge in such disruptive and dangerous acts should be shunned by their fellow-citizens as a deadly viper would be shunned, or treated as a fellow-beast upon whom no regard is to be paid.

The unpleasant circumstance which occurred last evening, and which is detailed in another column, is one of those eagerly waited for and gladly seized upon events, and in all probability it has been telegraphed east and west in a magnified and inflammatory style, for the deception and misrepresentation of the public at a distance. No body was hurt in the matter, and, with a little more coolness, civility, and consideration on both sides, and especially on that of the deputy who gave the original offence, there would have been nothing at all amiss. It adds nothing to the dignity of the Federal government when any one of its officers conducts himself with gratuitous offensiveness, and there are few Americans of any kind, or men of any nationality, who have the spirit of men within them, who would not resent the overbearing and heaping arrogance and insolence of men clothed with a little less authority, and even some of those who would not do so, if they were not so easily misled by the press.

Gen. Sherman and officers are busy inspecting army headquarters at St. Louis.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

EASTERN.

Baltimore Opera House on Fire.

BALTIMORE, 12, 2 a. m.—At a quarter to two this a. m. a fire broke out in the Baltimore Opera House and Variety Theatre, and soon communicated to several retail dry goods stores adjoining, and to the carpet store of George Johnson and the toy store of Heman Bros. The latter are also managers of the opera house, which will be completely destroyed. At this hour, 2 a. m., it looks as if the loss will reach at least $150,000. The fire is still raging.

First National Gold Something.

WASHINGTON, 12.—The Comptroller of the Currency has directed the organization of the first national gold bank of Petaluma, California, with a capital of $200,000.

Survey of California Ranches.

The impression that commissioner Burdett, of the General Land Office, has adopted the plan of surveying the California Ranches Los Prietos Y Nalajayagua, is erroneous. His decision disproves all surveys of the ranches, and he has decided to survey on principles which he prescribes. All proceedings under his decision will be subject to the right of objection and appeal by any party interested, and no claimant or protestant. The only appeal now pending was taken by claimants, but miners interested may take advantage of an appeal, which commissioner Burdett himself informally entered for them on hearing the representation made by their attorney yesterday before his decision, the ranches.

The Southern Republican Convention.

CHICAGO, 12.—The Inter-Ocean's Chattanooga special says: "Delegates to the Southern Republican Convention which meets here today are arriving in large numbers, and the prospect is good for a large attendance. It is probable that Clayton of Arkansas will be (temporary) chairman, and ex-governor Parsons of Alabama permanent chairman. It is the wish of all that native Southerners begin the active duties of convention, so that all kind of foreign-begotten will be removed and the Democratic press will have nothing to harp on this score. The object of the gathering, as expressed by the leading delegates, is to procure a statement of the condition of affairs, political, social and otherwise, on an even ground, and to address to the nation. Each delegation has come prepared with affidavits and sworn statements, which will be read, reports, and a committee appointed to prepare the address. I do not think the third term question will be broached at all, every delegate I have conversed with expressing the opinion that the convention has more important matters to consider, matters more vital to the interests of the South. The rights of the South, and the rights of the Union, will be defended without question, and a memorial prepared to be presented to Congress urging its early passage. The general opinion seems to be that it is best to look at the issue square in the face, and take a decided stand. Many think it will cause trouble in the south, and injure the reputation of the South, but it must be met sometime and will be put through. Several important addresses will be delivered. Judge Fletcher, of Louisiana, and Dorney that of Arkansas."

Special Naval Commission.

A Washington special says the commission sent out by the navy department a few months ago to examine into and report upon the character of the coast, &c., of work done upon vessels at Rio Janeiro, Brazil, as compared with those in the U. S. Navy, has returned to this country. When completed the report of the commission will be of especial interest and importance to the navy, and will be read, reports, and a committee appointed to prepare the address. I do not think the third term question will be broached at all, every delegate I have conversed with expressing the opinion that the convention has more important matters to consider, matters more vital to the interests of the South. The rights of the South, and the rights of the Union, will be defended without question, and a memorial prepared to be presented to Congress urging its early passage. Indiana Election.

An Indianapolis dispatch, dated last night, says both parties were eager and anxious for the work of tomorrow and both express the greatest confidence in the result. The Indiana election is expected to be a close one, and the result will be of great importance to the country, which is generally conceded to be doubtful by Republicans. An immense number of voters are expected to vote, and it will be an effort at illegal voting by wholesale, in which case there may be trouble. The election will be a very exciting day, and the result will be of great importance to the country, which is generally conceded to be doubtful by Republicans.
