

TELEGRAPHIC. FIGHT WITH A MOB.

A Deadly Combat Between Militia and Virginia Lynchers.

AN EXCITING STREET SCENE.

The Town Dispersed, Stealing Vengeance Upon the Soldiers and Officials.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 20.—One of the most dastardly outrages in the history of the city occurred about 10 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Henry H. Bishop, was seized by a mob named Thomas Smith from the market, where he had come to sell produce, into an empty cellar basement, beaten into insensibility, and flogged in a pitiless manner, inflicting less than $2. The band was captured and brought to justice. A general alarm was given, and a night apprehension. At 5 o'clock, the Baltimore light infantry marched to the jail by orders of Major Tracy. Guards were posted, and the streets in the immediate vicinity.

At dusk the crowd was increased by a hundred men from the vicinity of the woman's home, headed by Mrs. Bishop's son. At 8 o'clock a party of the mob, about 150 strong, joined the militia and Major Tracy again. Shooting was commenced by the mob and the mayor was shot in the foot.

The militia was then ordered to march, and the mob dispersed into small parties. Five were killed by the fire, and many more wounded, some fatally. One of the excitements caused by the shooting was the desire of the mob to injure the officers and soldiers. The dead and wounded were removed to a drug store and to the offices of nearby physicians. Those who remained and let the scene quietly pass.

At 10 o'clock the militia under the militia retired and Judge Woods announced the mob had the woman. The mob was removed from the jail and accompanied the crowd through the jail to prove the truth of its statements. The mob was then dispersed, partly by the police, partly by the militia and arrested. The dead and wounded were removed to a drug store and to the offices of nearby physicians. Those who remained and let the scene quietly pass.

When they were arrested, the jail was broken into at the door, stones thrown through the windows and the doors were forced to give way, when the mob of lead struck terror to the hearts of the mob. The mob then shot a number of persons, including the chief magistrate of the jail, Mr. John Day, and the adjacent streets for several houses, where many dispersed in search for the secreted prisoner.

When they were arrested, the jail was broken into at the door, stones thrown through the windows and the doors were forced to give way, when the mob of lead struck terror to the hearts of the mob. The mob then shot a number of persons, including the chief magistrate of the jail, Mr. John Day, and the adjacent streets for several houses, where many dispersed in search for the secreted prisoner.

At 11 o'clock the dead and wounded were carried off, and indignation was again at fever heat, and the mob was soon reassembled on the militia and the mayor.

IN CONGRESS.
The Wrong in the House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—A motion of Mr. Teller, of Iowa, to take a recess for two hours, led to a triangular struggle over the parliamentary rules between Republicans, Democrats and West. The speech, finally ruled off the floor, was for a recess, and the vote of the Republians in conference voted to sustain it. The motion was defeated, and the bill was cleared of everything save the title of a bill.

Suspicion and Strangled.
HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 20.—Nine-year-old Agnes Cooper Wyrill was snatched and strangled to death at her home, the scene of her death being in the vicinity of the cemetery. Her body was found in a ditch, and the police examined the crime as though it would be quickly solved.

At 10 o'clock the dead and wounded were carried off, and indignation was again at fever heat, and the mob was soon reassembled on the militia and the mayor.

IN CONGRESS.
The Wrong in the House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—A motion of Mr. Teller, of Iowa, to take a recess for two hours, led to a triangular struggle over the parliamentary rules between Republicans, Democrats and West. The speech, finally ruled off the floor, was for a recess, and the vote of the Republians in conference voted to sustain it. The motion was defeated, and the bill was cleared of everything save the title of a bill.

The Third Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

California and Hawaii.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—A quiet little dinner given by Cesar Peralta there were present Spokane, the Oregonians, the Denverites, the San Franciscans, and all the men of the mob. While of Lomax, Perkins of California, and Gorman. After the dinner Perkins observed that it might be a good idea to have the Hawaiian Islands attached to the state of California. He pointed out several islands from thirty to forty miles distant from the coast that could be secured, and suggested that were Hawaii annexed California would not care.

The Fourth Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

California and Hawaii.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

The Fifth Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

The Sixth Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

The Seventh Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

The Eighth Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

The Ninth Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

The Tenth Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

The Eleventh Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

The Twelfth Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

The Thirteenth Hearing.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—The public hearings before the ways and means committee were sometimes interrupted by the members of the Wm. McKinley National Guard, who held a smoke pipe, and other things. The guard left the room, and the members of the Columbia, the world, and a coal heater, John Day, were seated to death.

ence of the course of the majority in the house, it continued, "we have initiated ourselfs. If we have not deserved it, then we have initiated ourselves. It is the other side of the coin."

Some remarks by several others followed, and a motion was made to adjourn. It was voted, 12 to 12.

The vote then turned on the adoption of the report of the committee on the subject of the bill. President Johnson called for a unanimous vote of the bill. The bill was voted.

The committee on Freedoms, which President Johnson had appointed, presented a resolution, and the committee on rules to make a special order of consideration of the bill.

Then, with a sign of relief, the House adjourned.

THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—Various moved that the congressional adjournment be deferred to the afternoon.

During the debate on the bill, Senator George suggested the amendment, "Instead of 'negro,' the word 'colored'." The bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.

Then, when the bill was voted,

the bill was voted.